

Merry Christmas, Amigos

'Tis the night before Christmas and all through the casa Not a creature is stirring. Car-ramba! Que pasa? The stockings are hanging con mucho cuidado In hope that St. Nicholas will feel obligado To leave a few cosas aqui y alli For chico and chica (y something for me.) Los ninos are snuggled all safe in their camas (Some in vestidos and some in pajamas). Their little cabezas are full of good things They esperan que old Santa will bring. Santa is down at the corner saloon Muy borracho since mid-afternoon. Mama is sitting beside la ventana Shining her rolling pin para manana, When Santa will come in un manner extrano Lit up like the star spangled banner, cantando, And mama will send him to bed con los cochos Merry Christmas to all, and to all Buenos Noches.

Chi Psi's Elect Ramsey; Give Christmas Party

Jim Ramsey of Roxboro has been elected to lead Alpha Sigma of Chi Psi for the coming year. He succeeds Lew Chapman of Union, N. J.

Other officers elected Monday night are Vice-President Zane Robbins of Winston Salem, Secretary Frank Allston of Arlington, Va., and Treasurer Fred Price of Greensboro.

On Wednesday night the Chi Psi's were hosts to 47 children from Wright's Refuge of Durham and St. William's Catholic School of Raleigh for a Christmas party.

Upon arrival each of the tiny guests was presented a toy, and ushered into the living room where Charlie Justice gave them personally autographed pictures.

Santa Claus made a special trip to the chapter house and distributed the gifts from under the Christmas tree to all the children. Ed Stevens told the story "Why The Chimes Rang" and a cartoon and movie feature were shown. Following the movies, lime punch and cookies were served.

Mrs. R. H. Wettach, dean of women, who assisted the Chi Psi's in entertaining, played the piano and led the group in singing Christmas carols.

Other special guests for the evening were Dean and Mrs. Fred H. Weaver, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Friday, Mr. Ray Jefferies, and Mr. Walter Spearman.

NROTC Frosh Have Dance

Freshmen NROTC midshipmen held a dance, which was their initial social event as a group, in the Naval Armory last Saturday night.

Music was furnished by a juke box, and the armory was decorated with signal flags framed by blue and white bunting beneath shaded lights. Several square dances were featured, which Maj. Frank C. Caldwell, USMC, called.

Highlighting the evening's festivities was the midshipmen's floor show. Featured entertainers were Al Norberg, pianist; Clarence Clause, baritone; and a four-man hillbilly combo. Members of the combo were guitarist Steve Trimble, fiddler Ed Lantieri, base fiddler Ed Ayscue, and vocalist Nowell Gill. Gill was master of ceremonies for the program.

Co-chairmen of the dance committee in charge of arrangements were Midshipmen Thomas Ruffin, Jr., and Ed Ayscue.

Kappa Epsilon National Prexy Visits Chapter

Mrs. Robert Coghill, national president of Kappa Epsilon pharmaceutical sorority, was the guest of Lambda chapter on Sunday and Monday of this week.

On Sunday night Mrs. Coghill, members of the sorority, and Miss Alice Noble, chapter advisor, had dinner at the Monogram Club and an informal coffee hour at the Institute of Pharmacy building.

Miss Noble entertained at coffee for Mrs. Coghill on Monday afternoon. Invited guests for the afternoon were Mrs. R. H. Wettach, dean of women, faculty wives, and sorority alumnae.

Bishop Henry To Speak Here

The Rt. Rev. M. George Henry, Bishop of the Diocese of Western North Carolina, will administer the rite of Confirmation and preach this Sunday at 11 o'clock at the Chapel of the Cross.

At the 8 o'clock service Sunday morning, at which Bishop Henry will celebrate and speak, there will be a corporate communion of all Episcopal students from the diocese of Western North Carolina.

Canterbury Club will meet Sunday night for supper at 6 o'clock. There will be Christmas caroling, and Bishop Henry will speak on "The Incarnation and the Individual."

Tomorrow night from 8:30 o'clock until midnight, the Canterbury Club will hold its annual Christmas dance, in the Parish House.
