

CAMPUS COLLECTIONS

By Mary Nell Boddie

It's 'tea time' at the Curv-In, if you like tea, and Theodore Danziger is soon to open The Ranch House (formerly the Buc-cancer, alias Smitty's, for those of you who haven't heard), but entertainment center of the hour seems to be the Carolina Club, where Charlie Stancil features orchids to the coeds.

Members of the Phi Chi, medical fraternity, and dates held a private party at the Carolina Club last Saturday. The party was in honor of the 29 new members who were initiated that afternoon.

The Sigma Nu's were hosts to the ADPI's for a party at the Carolina Club on Tuesday night. We hear they sold completely out of coca-colas because of it.

Announcement is made of the engagement of ZBT Bob Heiman of Little Rock, Ar. and Hattie Dietz of Covington, Ga. Hattie is a student at Dook. The wedding is planned for June.

ZBT brother Henry Isaacson entertained for the chapter at his home in Greensboro last week.

The Chi Omega's were guests of the KA's at a party at the chapter house. Featured events of the evening included square dancing and listening to the music of one-half of the Hillbilly Sextet from Durham. During the evening pledges of the fraternity gave a skit on a sorority chapter meeting.

Tomorrow night the KA's will hold a convivium banquet in Durham at the Cabe Ford farm, in celebration of Robert E. Lee's birthday. Guest speakers will be Judge Frank Myers of Washington, D. C. and W. H. Poteat, professor of philosophy, and Howard Locke, Past Knight Commander of Kappa Alpha.

Last night the Tri-Delts were guests of the Dekes for dinner at the chapter house and a party at the Carolina Club.

Phi Delt Rolfe Neill, former Managing Editor of The Daily Tar Heel, is pinned to Rosemary Eoney of Clinton. Rosemary is Editor of The Carolinian, WC student newspaper, and a member of the senior class. Neill, who was once staunchly behind the statement "pinning is a last resort," was seen last week skulking around the DTH office trying to retrieve his statement which he had mounted in 48 pt. tempo on the bulletin board.

The Phi Delt's were hosts to the Pi Phi's for dinner and a party at the Club Sirloin last Thursday.

Serenading of the week was done on Wednesday night by the Chi Phi's. Object of their affections was Daisy Wade, Kappa Delta pledge from Bluefield, W. Va., who is pinned to Will London of Pittsboro.

The Pi Phi's will take a leave of absence from football practice in Kenan Stadium, and entertain the fraternities at coffee hour on Sunday from 5 until 6 o'clock.

Engaged are Pi Phi pledge Pat Bransford of Fluvanna, Va. and L. W. Allen of Richmond, Va.

Ann Townsend of Marshall, Va., '51 grad and Pi Phi, is engaged to Billy Overman of Elizabeth City. Bill attended Carolina last year, and is now doing grad work at VPI.

Alpha Kappa Psi Bill Friddle of High Point is engaged to Betty Duncan of WC and High Point. AKPsi pinning is that of Buddy Teague of Mooresville and Doris Best of Statesville.

The PiKas will entertain the ED's on Tuesday night with a party at the Carolina Club.

Pi Kappa Sig Bob Wallace of Baltimore, Md., is engaged to Eileen Hines of Baltimore, Md. Phi Kaps traveled to WC on Wednesday night for the purpose of serenading pin-ups.

Pinned are Phi Delta Chi David Prince of Whiteville and Elizabeth Farrington of Whiteville. Phi Delta Chi's and dates will party at the chapter house tomorrow night.

Phi Delt's and dates partied at the Carolina Club last Saturday, and Charlie Stancil chose a member of the party to draw numbers for the winners of the night's prizes, a carton of cigarettes, a carton of beer, and a gardenia corsage. The chosen member, Joanne Culler, '51 grad and Tri-Delt, performed quite well until the third and final drawing for the corsage. Out of the hundred or so numbers in the box she drew none other than her own.

Jeff Newton, Phi Delt from Raleigh, is pinned to Priscilla Harris of Raleigh.

Announcement is made of the engagement of Chi Phi Norman Hull-Ryde of Gastonia and Anne Dewsnap Bergh of Diamond, N.Y. Anne attended Wells College and is now a student at Winthrop College in Rock Hill, S. C.

Phi Gamma Delta Kenton Creuser of Atlanta, Ga. is pinned to Jackie Brownlee of Converse College.

The Sigma Nu's list two pinnings and one engagement. Bob Midgett of Elizabeth City is engaged to Janet Frances of Washington, D. C. Pinned are Buck Small and Barbara Byrd of Elizabeth City. Now wearing the white star of Sigma Nu Bill Harris of Henderson is Barbara Wheeler of Henderson. Barbara is a student at Peace College.

'Bowl' Halftime Show Slated

Ten representatives from each sorority on campus will be selected sometime next week to participate in half-time entertainment during the coming Powder Puff Bowl game.

The group will give a pantomime on the Rangerettes, who supply the entertainment for the Cotton Bowl game in Texas every January 1.

Details of the entertainment have not disclosed as yet. But different sources indicate that the coeds will use either large powder puffs or compacts.

Meanwhile the Pi Phis and Tri-delts have been putting in long hours at the practice field for the coming "Bowl" game.

Several of the girls have been complaining of the bruises and soreness after practice but they say they wouldn't miss practice for anything.

Invitations to the game have been sent to all dorms, fraternities and students living in own. All proceeds from the game will go to the Infantile Paralysis Fund.

From the House of Swansdown ed's wish. Here's a Stroock Wool comes the answer to many a co-coat that is perfect for dress and sport wear. The coat features a small round collar, which fits snugly with a button-on tab at the neck, push-up sleeves and a tafeta lining. It comes in white, red, beige, and pastel shades, and sells for under $100.

Model Ship Given NROTC During Dance

A revival of an old Navy-Carolina tradition was evidenced last Saturday night as Midshipmen and their dates, the NROTC officer staff, and University officials, gathered for the "Navy Ball."

Over a 100 couples danced to the music of Bill Byers and his Cavaliers, and refreshments were served caberet-style at bars below the first deck. Highlight of the evening came when Captain John S. Keating announced that unveiling ceremonies for the battleship USS North Carolina would be held. While the band played "Anchors Aweigh," Chancellor Robert B. House unveiled the seven-foot model.

Construction on the ship started before World War I but due to America's commitments in the disarmament meetings in 1922, the ship was scrapped. "Spray never washed her bow," as the captain put it.

However, the captain explained, such a model should be of historical interest in the State, and if the University established a museum, the NROTC will contribute this model. The first USS North Carolina was built in 1820 and contributed much to American short protection. The present North Carolina is in "moth balls" at New York. This ship saw extensive service during World War II.

Chemistry Frat Elects Officers

Bill Link of Lexington has been chosen Master Alchemist in recent elections of Rho Chapter of Alpha Chi Sigma, professional chemistry fraternity.

Other newly elected officers are Vice Master Alchemist Dudley Spainhour, Bethania; Reporter Jim Hummer, Titusville, Pa.; Recorder Jack Killheffer, Chapel Hill; Treasurer Tom Frazier, Siler City; and Master of Ceremonies Homer Hartung, Chapel Hill. In charge of publications are Bill Little and Bert Weisback. Jim Sansing is Alumni Secretary.

Initiated into membership of the fraternity in recent ceremonies were three pledges. They are William S. Best, graduate student from Gastonia; Jesse A. Giles, a junior from Winston-Salem; and Norman M. Rugheimer, graduate student from Charleston, S. C. The initiation banquet was held at Harvey's Restaurant in Durham with faculty members, brothers, dates and wives present.

Three Dental Frats Pledge 34 Students

Independent Board Hears Dean Wettach

Dean R. H. Wettach was guest speaker at the first winter quarter meeting of the Independent Coed Board held last week.

She spoke on the organization of independents on campus, and stressed the further organization of both men and women independents.

Independent Coed Board meetings are open to the campus and interested persons are invited to attend.

Psi Chi Installed

The 87th chapter of Psi Chi, national honorary psychology society, was formally installed at the University in ceremonies conducted Tuesday evening by Dr. Lloyd J. Borstelmann.

Elected as officers were President Carl Cochrane, Guilford College; Vice President Mortimer Brown, Chapel Hill; Secretary Nancy Cohen, Staunton, Va., and Treasurer John Kelton, Port Tampa City, Fla. Dr. Harry W. Crane was named faculty advisor for the group.
