Final preparations are being made for the Campus Chest campaign to be held from March 4-7 according to Allan Tate, chairman of the only fund drive held on the campus each-year.

The Chest combines the fund drives of five different organizations into one for more convenience to the students and better efficiency. "Solicitors will call on each student in dorms, fraternities, sororities, and town," Tate said.

Various prizes include $5 to the solicitor collectin gthe most per capita and other unannounced awards to the fraternity, sorority, men's dorm, and women's dorm contributing most in their respective divisions.

Organizations supported by money raised by the Campus Chest are the American Heart Association, the American Cancer Society, the Red Cross, the North Carolina League for Crippled Children, and the World Student Service Fund.

Solicitations will be held for South Building employees beginning on Monday, March 3 and continuing through Wednesday, March 5. The faculty will be solicitated from Tuesday, March 4, to Friday, March 7.

A goal of one dollar per student has been set by the Chest.

The Daily Car Beel

CHAPEL HILL, N. C.

FEBRUARY 29, 1952

U.N.C. Library Serials Dept.

Chapel Hill, N. C.

NUMBER 114

BULLETIN

VOLUME EX

The NAACP will institute contempt proceedings if discrimination charges are proved true, C. O. Pearson, attorney, said last Pearson believes that the five Negro law students have been discriminated against by the University Law School in their grades. But Dean Henry Brandis denied the charge.

"They've been treated like any other student in grading and scholastic performance," said Dean Brandis.

Chancellor Robert B. House commented, "I have absolute confidence in Dean Brandis and the faculty." House declined comment on the NAACP charges. He added that he had no personal knowledge of the students being shcolastically deficient.

Pearson charged that the school is harassing students by trying to prevent present students from graduating and to prevent others from enrolling.

He said that the national NA-ACP office is looking into the matter.

The ifve negro students, two of whom led their classes at North Carolina College, admitted 'that they had made generally poor grades. They declined comment either yes or no on whether they were being discriminated against.

Clark, Press, Stores Controversies Will Be Aired At Trustee Meeting

(Special to The Daily Tar Heel)

A AL O ITERARY

RALEIGH-A routine meeting may finish with fireworks as the full Board of Trustees of the Consolidated University convenes today at 11 o'clock in the General Assembly chambers of the State Capitol.

Chief item on the agenda will be a report to the trustees by Vice-president and Controller W. D. Carmichael, Jr., on the State College student supply store. It is expected

State Textile Dean Admits Chastising Student Editor

(Special to The Daily Tar Heel) RALEIGH—The dean of State College's school of textiles admitted yesterday that he had chastised Paul Foght, editor of the campus weekly paper, for an editorial criticizing Prof. H. A. Fisher, chairman of the College Athletic Council.

Dean Malcolm E. Campbell said he had charged the student editor with failing to use "good manners" and informed him that his editorial activities would be considered in making job recommendations.

However, campus reports that job placement threats had been used against Foght because of the editorial were labeled as "entirely erroneous," by the textiles

Campbell said that no effort had been made by college authorities to contact the sponsors of a scholarship on which Foght is attending school. But he said that "I told him (Foght) I knew of at least two persons who had started to phone or contact" his sponsors.

A senior in the School of Textiles, Foght is from Kenosha, Wisconsin, and holds a scholarship from Cooper's Inc., a textile firm there.

The editorial criticizing Dr. Fisher appeared in the Technician's issue of January 25. Foght's talk with Campbell took place in the dean's office on February 5. Two days later, February 7, the

1 directors of the Mecklenburg county alumni chapter signed a petition protesting the editorial and demanding that Foght be "punished." The petition also suggested that he leave the cam-

Foght's editorial proposed that Dr. Fisher explain his position in the recent ouster of head football coach Beattie Feathers. If Fisher failed to explain, the editorial contended that "his resignation should be demanded" by the college administration.

Elaborating on his talk with Foght, Dean Campbell said, "I pointed out that our reputation as the School of Textiles depends upon our graduates, and therefore, we followed the policy of giving prospective employers as accurate information as we could when asked; and that we try to give them the good features and the bad ones since erroneous information would be unfair to the employer and to the student.

"I told him," Campbell added, "that we would do the same in his case, and it was up to him to see to it that he enjoyed a good reputation.

"I suggested that he keep this in mind in his activities."

By "his activities" Campbell said he was "referring to what I consider bad manners and lack of courtesy in the editorial on Dr. Fisher. I told him I didn't think editorial.

ceive interviews (from prospec- the store's accounts. (See STATE TEXTILE, page 8)

that the State College administration will present some proposals to answer student requests hat to answer student requests that tional and cultural activities.

President Gordon Gray will speak on student freedom, including publications. Gray said recently that he would bring up the matter of "trustee, administration, and student relationships."

Previous to the 11 o'clock meet. the executive committee will consider placing on editorial and letter written by Rosemary Boney, editor of The Carolinian, to Governor Kerr Scott on the agenda. The letter asks whether trustee John Clark is authorized to conduct his letter writing as an execuive committee member. Scott recently turned the matter over to the committee.

The committee may also consider a request by Raleigh merchants that the State supply store stop selling articles in violation of a Sate law. The law prohibing the sale of goods by State agencies not essential for classroom work and meals, and provides that other goods valued at less than 25 cents can be sold to members of the educational staff or staff auxiliary or students.

State students have asked that he had used good manners in his the supply store profits be turned over to a fund for recreatoinal "I haven't told him we would and cultural activities. A petitry to keep him from getting a tion signed by over 300 students job. He is still on our list to re- recently asked for the opening of

(See CLARK, page 8)

Beauty Pageant Set Tonight; Seventeen To Vie For Title

Seventeen beauties will vie for | ship to the college of her choice, the title of Miss Chapel Hill tonight at 7:30 in the high school auditorium.

The latest two entrants are Miss Delores Funai and Miss Jackie Merritt. Miss Funai is a third year coed and is sponsored by Sigma Chi fraternity. Miss Merritt, sponsored by Long Meadow dairy, is a graduate of Carolina and was one of the runner-ups in last year's beauty pageant.

The fifteen other beauties are Misses Ruth Benson, Jane Matthews, Beth Lloyd, Louise Mansfield, Carolyn Ellis, Ann Mackie, Betty Sue Jacobs, Mary Haley, Evelyn Matthews, Louise Curlee, Patsy Ellinger, Margaret Wimsett, Ann Jacobs, Iris Merritt and Barbara Bynum.

The winner tonight will get a chance to compete for the title of Miss North Carolina in Winston-Salem this summer and possibly the Miss America title in Atlantic City.

She will receive a $250 scholar-

Senior Invitations

Senior Class invitations and announcements will be sold today from 9 o'clock until one and from 2-3 in the Y lobby.

The Order of the Grail is the official agency for selling Class of 1952 invitations. The Grail will also sell individual calling cards for insertion into the invitation and announcement envelopes, Sales are expected to continue for another ten day to two weeks but all seniors are urged to place their orders as soon as possible.

an evening gown, a trophy and all expense paid trip to the pageant in Winston-Salem.

Sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, the night's activities will also include a variety show and the choosing of "Miss Chapel Hill of 1970" from a slate of baby candidates.

Duke Pastor Here Sunday

James T. Cleland, professor of preaching in the Divinity School of Duke University and preacher to the University, will be guest minister at the Methodist Church here on Sunday night, March 2, at 7:30.

In Scotland, where he was born, he played soccer, and he has had a hand, as assistant coach, in turning out consistently successful soccer teams at Duke. Another of Professor Cleland's interests is the collection of religious poetry.

While a student at Glasgow, he served as student-assistant in three parishes of the Church of Scotland. He received an M.A. degree from Glasgow University in 1924. Prof. Cleland came to America in 1927, after receiving his B. D. degree. Studying under the Jarvie Fellowship at Union Theological Seminary, N. Y. City, he obtained the S.T.M. degree in 1928. Between 1929 and 1939 he taught at Glasgow University and Amherst College, On May 23, Church (WEA).

Application Deadline Date For Deferment Is March 10

lege students.

This will be the last test to be

The deadline for applications given during the 1951-52 academfor the Selective Service College ic year. It is under the auspices Qualifications Tests to be given on here of the University Testing April 24 is midnight, March 10, Bureau. No one who does not General Hershey, director of Se- have a permit issued by the Edulective Service, has reminded col- cational Testing Service at Princeton, N. J., can take the examina-

> Blanks for applying may be obtained from any Selective Service Board. The nearest ones to Chapel Hill are at Hillsboro and Durham.

> To be eligible to take the test, an applicant must on the testing date (1) be a selective service registrant who intends to request deferment as a student, (2) be satisfactorily pursuing a full-time college course-undergraduate or graduate-leading to a degree, (3) not previously have taken the

The criteria for consideration for deferment as a student at the present time is either a score of 70 or better on the test or class standing among the male members in the upper half of the freshman class, upper two thirds of the sophomore class, or upper three-fourths of the junior class, Seniors accepted for admission to a graduate school satisfy the criteria if they are among the maner half of the male m

Three members of the Austran Student Goodwill tour are shown above in their authentic Alpine costumes. Yodeling, Aus-1938, Cleland was ordained into trian folk songs, folkdances, zither playing, Viennese music and the ministry of the Presbyterian slap dancing will be presented by this troupe tonight at 8 o'clock

- (in ... ()