

Dedication Of Hillel House Next Sunday

Dedication ceremonies for the new Hillel foundation building here will be held next Sunday, as a feature of the annual convention of the North Carolina Association of B'nai B'rith Lodges which opens in Durham Saturday night.

Rabbi Arthur J. Lelyveld, New York, national Hillel director, will be the principal speaker at the exercise here at 2 o'clock in the new building. It was begun last September on site of a previous house which was removed two years ago. The new house is the culmination of many years of planning, with Cy Girard, Gastonia, serving as chairman of the fund-raising committee.

On Sunday morning there will be a business session of B'nai B'rith Lodges, after which there will be a luncheon with Melvin Harris, of Columbia, S. C., and Julius Fisher, Roanoke, Va., president and secretary, respectively, of the Fifth District Grand Lodge, as speakers.

Rabbi Jerome Mark, Gastonia, will give the invocation at the dedication program, and Rabbi Fred I. Rypins, Greensboro, will give the benediction. Greetings will be extended by President Gordon Gray and Chancellor Robert B. House, and by George Blankstein, Greensboro; Mr. Harris, and Leon Moel, Durham.

Keys to the new house will be presented by Ben Krieger, Greensboro, president of Hillel foundation, the recipients being the heads of the four Hillel groups: Ted Frankel, UNC; Miss Marilyn Tolochko, Woman's College, Greensboro; Herbert Saywitz, State College, and Garry Goldstein, Duke.

A dedication prayer will be offered by Rabbi Samuel Perlman, Hillel director at Chapel Hill for the past four years. A musical program will be rendered by a University quartet.

Joe Hanchrow, Wilson, president of the North Carolina Association, will introduce Rabbi Lelyveld. Following the program there will be a reception and the presentation of a dedication play, "If Not Now," by Albert R. Klein, which will portray the history and scope of the Hillel movement.

The association's banquet will be held Sunday night at the Carolina Inn, with Rabbi Lelyveld as the principal speaker. The Hillel student group will attend a banquet at the new house at which awards will be made by Rabbi Lelyveld and Rabbi Perlman.

Thurstone Gives Talk

Dr. L. L. Thurstone, research professor and director of the Psychometric Laboratory at UNC, was one of the principal speakers at the annual meeting of the Southern Society for Philosophy and Psychology, being held at the University of Tennessee this weekend.

Dr. Thurstone's address was on "The Measurement of Values." Other members of the staff here attending were Dr. Harold McCurdy, who has chairman of a program on social psychology; J. F. Dashiell, and Dr. Dorothy C. Adkins, chairman of the Department.

THIS PICTURE SHOWS All-America Charlie Justice on his last touchdown run for the University. It was in the first quarter of the game against Virginia that Choo Choo faked out the player whose foot can be seen blurred at the left and went on to score. The picture, taken by former Daily Tar Heel photographer Jimmy Mills, was reprinted all over and hundreds of copies sold to Choo Choo fans. We thought those students who never had the privilege of seeing Charlie play would get a good idea from this shot.

Copyrighted by Mills

Ugliest Man Deadline Is On Thursday

Several contestants already have entered the annual Theta Chi "Ugliest Man on Campus" contest, which is being sponsored this year in connection with the University Carnival. It will be

Person Exhibition

An exhibition of paintings and sculpture by members of the staff of the State College School of Design is hanging now in Person Hall art gallery.

The exhibition includes work by James Fitzgibbons, Roy Gussow, Manuel Bromberg, Duncan Stuart, Laskey, and Travelli.

Mr. Gussow, whose sculptures are included in the show, will give a gallery talk in Person hall on Tuesday night, April 15, at 8 o'clock.

Also at the gallery are exhibited drawings by Japanese school children.

Both exhibitions will close April 27.

held April 25.

Thursday is the deadline for contestants. Entries, accompanied by a photograph, may be turned in to any member of Theta Chi fraternity. Any male student on campus is eligible.

Voting will be held in the Y court from April 21 through April 25. Prizes, including an all-expense paid date with a coed and a recognition cup, will be presented the winner at the carnival.

COSMOPOLITAN CLUB

The Cosmopolitan club will meet in the Rendezvous room of Graham Memorial today at 4 p.m.

Never enough college women with Gibbs secretarial training to meet the demand

Special Course for College Women. Five-city personal placement service. Write College Dean for catalog. KATHARINE GIBBS BOSTON 16, 90 Marlborough St. NEW YORK 17, 230 Park Ave. CHICAGO 11, 51 E. Superior St. MONTCLAIR, 33 Plymouth St. PROVIDENCE 6, R. I., 195 Angell St.

Easter
Greetings

— from your reliable
UNIVERSITY CLEANERS

Chapel Hill's only authorized SANITONE agent. This seal is your guarantee of quality work

UNIVERSITY CLEANERS
Across from the Post Office