Douglas To Be Speaker Here

WILLIAM O. DOUGLAS

Eisenhower, McGrath Also May Give Talks

Justice William O. Douglas and Gov. G. Mennen Williams of Michigan have accepted Carolina Political Union invitations to speak here, Bob Pace, secretary of the group announced yesterday.

Pace said there is also a possibility that Richard Nixon, Republican running mate of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, may also come to the campus. J. Howard McGrath has tentatively accepted an invitation to speak, Pace added.

Gov. Williams is not scheduled to speak until next spring, but Douglas will be here in November.

The CPU, a non-partisan discussion group organized by Prof. E. G. Woodhouse, will meet Sunday night in the Grail Room of Graham Memorial. A chairman will be named at that time, Pace said.

Topic for the meeting will be "Pacificism" and a faculty member will help with the discussion. "The meeting is open to everybody and freshmen are especially urged to attend," Pace concluded.

Dormitory Adviser's Bicycle Goes Astray

Jim Wallace, Mangum Dormitory adviser, reported the loss of a bicycle Monday between the hours of 11 and 12 p.m.

Other officers elected were Paul Somerville of Canada as vice president; Alfred Descloux of Switzerland as treasurer, and Mike Papas of Greece as secretary.

The new officers already have met to work out some of the problems which face the management of a group of this type. Ideas for future meetings include music, folk dancing, speakers from various nations, picnics and movies, Jurecic said.

Jurecic expressed a desire to have more North Americans in attendance in the future. Only a handful of U. S. students showed up at the initial meeting, he said.

The avowed purpose of the cosmopolitan group is to bring together international students and U. S. students as well as create friendship among them. It was founded in 1948 with assistance of the YMCA.

Meetings are held in Graham Memorial every Sunday at 4 p.m.

Playmaker Ducat Sale Opens Today

Season tickets for the five Carolina Playmakers' productions go on sale today.

A 20 percent discount is given to buyers of season tickets, John W. Parker, Playmaker business manager said yesterday. Season ticket holders are also given advance notice of ticket sales so that seats may be reserved before release to the public, he said.

Tickets include admission to "Death of a Salesman," "The Inspector General," "Princess Ida," "The Good Woman of Setzuan" and will also entitle holders first choice of seats for "John Brown's Body," starring Judith Anderson, Raymond Massey and Tyrone Power, and for "Emlyn Williams as Charles Dickens."

Directory

Mimeographed copies of the student section of the student directory will be available today in the Y at $1 a copy.

The complete directory will be ready in five weeks.

Printed Bible Anniversary Is Observed

The 500th anniversary of the printed Bible is being celebrated by the University Library with a special exhibit which will continue for about five weeks.

One of the focal points in the exhibit is a copy of the New Revised Standard Version of the Holy Bible which went on sale this week.

Also included in the display, filling four show cases, are a leaf from the Gutenberg Bible, a leaf from a 15th century Bible, the one-half by one inch "world's smallest Bible," a facsimile of Tyndale's New Testament, the 1611 King James edition, the Latin vulgate edition, the renowned "He" Bible, the Bay Psalm Book, and "the most beautiful book in America," the Book of Hours.

The new Bible took 23 of the world's foremost Bible scholars 22 years to complete.
