

New Hospital Committee Offered By Y

By Alice Jane Hinds
A new opportunity for service, offered by the Y.W.C.A., is the Hospital committee, placed under the Commission of Social Responsibilities, which will function under the chairmanship of Rosemary Scovil, Greenville, S. C.

The purpose of the committee is to assist the hospital staff wherever aid is needed. Routine work, such as answering the telephone and tabulating temperatures, is done to aid nurses on desk duty. Personal services for the patients and other miscellaneous duties are rendered by coed committee members.

The girls, working two at a time, donate one evening a week, from 6:30 to 8:30, to hospital work. There are also girls placed on call to conduct tours through the hospital for visitors. These tours take place during the afternoon.

Enthusiasm already has been shown by coeds. Between September 24 and October 1, 53 hours of volunteer service were given. A navy uniform adorned with a special insignia is provided for the volunteer workers. The uniform, a sleeveless smock made with an apron effect, is to be worn over a white blouse and a solid color skirt.

Plans Announced For Point 4 Contest

Special to THE DAILY TAR HEEL
NEW YORK, Oct. 4.—Plans for a nationwide contest on the Point 4 Program with prize awards totalling $1,800 were released today by the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A.

The contest will open November 1, 1952 and close midnight March 31, 1953. It is open to all North Americans between the ages of 15 and 23. Both students and young people not in school are eligible.

Prizes will be awarded to two groups consisting of high-school-age contestants, 15 to 18 years, and college-age participants, 19 to 23. Names of winners will be announced about May 15, 1953.

Essays should be on the subject, "The United States and the Underdeveloped Areas." Basic purpose of the contest is to stimulate interest of young Americans in the Point 4 program and our relationship with the economically less developed countries of the world.

Contest instruction leaflets will be sent upon request by the Point 4 Essay Committee, National Council of Churches, 79 E. Adams St., Chicago 3, Ill.

Blood

Students interested in forming a campus chapter of the American Red Cross are asked to attend an organizational meeting in the Grail Room of Graham Memorial tomorrow. The meeting will be held at 4 p.m.

Mrs. Nash Will Lead Discussion On Dating

"Desirability, Delights and Dangers of Dating" will be up for discussion tomorrow night when Mrs. Arnold Nash, marriage counselor here, speaks in Lenoir Hall at 6:30.

The program is sponsored by the YMCA and is planned for freshmen. Those planning to attend are asked to get their trays at Lenoir and be in the south dining room by 6 o'clock. Ed Stevens will entertain at that time and he will be followed by Mrs. Nash at 6:30.

Inter-Faith Group Names Lecturers

Announcement was made yesterday of guest speakers this year, sponsored by the Inter-Faith council. President Jim Haney released the schedule.

Dr. Arnold Flaten, authority on art history and religious interpretation of art, will speak October 15-16.

Scheduled to lecture here November 15-17 is Dr. Eddy Asirvatham, theologian and political scientist from India. Dr. Asirvatham is currently teaching at Boston University.

Prominent Jewish journalist and free-lance writer, Will Herberg will be on campus December 1-2.

Dr. E. Harris Harbison, an authority on Tudor history at Princeton, will be on campus the latter part of this quarter or during the winter quarter.

Dean of the Graduate School at Princeton and a chemist of note, Dr. Hugh Taylor, will speak the latter part of January or in early February.

During winter quarter the Inter-Faith Council plans to sponsor a series of lectures by Chancellor Milford, of Lincoln Cathedral, London, England.

Other speakers will be scheduled throughout the year, Haney said.

Unitarians Meet Tonight In Gerrard

The Unitarian Fellowship of Chapel Hill will meet tonight at 8:30 in Gerrard Hall. "The Challenge of Unitarianism" will be the subject, and George Weitz of Charlotte will be the leader.

Weitz, president of the Thomas Jefferson Conference and president of the board of trustees of the Charlotte Unitarian Church, will discuss objectives and applications of Unitarianism, along with the basic principles of the denomination. He will lead a general discussion afterwards.

In The Church

Lutheran

Students of Holy Trinity Lutheran church will participate in a Bible discussion this morning conducted by Dr. Walter Nau, professor of romance languages at Lenoir-Rhyne college.

Dr. Nau is a popular speaker throughout the N. C. Lutheran Synod. He spoke last night to a group of townsfolk and students on "Sun-Crowned Heirs." He will assist at the service of Holy Communion during the regular worship service today.

"Academic Freedom and You" will be the topic of discussion when the Lutheran Student association meets this evening at 6:15 for a fellowship supper and discussion forum. Joe Hall will lead the discussion, based on observations made by Dr. George Forell and published recently in a student study booklet.

Christian Science
Christian Science services and Sunday School sessions will be held today, and each Sunday, at 11 o'clock in New West Building. The topic of the lesson-sermon today is "Reality."

Episcopal
The Rev. Baker J. Turner, rector of the Church of the Holy Trinity, Fayetteville, will speak on "Revival of Orthodoxy" at the meeting of the Canterbury club tonight. The meeting, held in the Parish House, will open with a 6 o'clock supper.

Student ministers of the pre-ministerial group read Evening Prayer in the chapel every weekday afternoon at 5:45.

A preaching mission will be conducted here November 9-11 by the Rev. Charles Martin, canon of the National Cathedral and headmaster of St. Alban's School, Washington. The mission is held under the auspices of the student congregation of the Chapel of the Cross.

Presbyterian

The Rev. Charles M. Jones, pastor of the local Presbyterian Church, is on a year's leave of absence to work with the Save-the-Children Foundation in Kingsport, Tenn. He will be in the pulpit one Sunday each month. Arrangements will be published soon regarding the preaching and pastoral work of the church that Mr. Jones can not handle.

Speakers for the month of October have been announced by Mr. Jones as follows: Dr. Thomas D. Schafer, Duke Divinity school, October 5; Dr. R. J. McMullen, Chapel Hill resident, October 12; Mr. Jones, October 19, and Dr. Thomas D. Schafer, Duke Divinity School, October 26.

World Communion will be observed at the 9:45 a.m. service today. A regular worship program is planned for the 11:00 a.m. service.

The Sunday night group will discuss "The Christian and War" tonight at 7 o'clock. The leader for the period is Claude Shotts, general secretary of the YMCA.
