Put a Pause for Coke on your Program too!

The whole crowd goes for refreshment. When the gang gets together for a dance session, one of the first thoughts at intermission is for an ice-cold Coca-Cola. Everybody knows Coke is delicious and refreshing.

UN Committee
There will be a meeting of the United Nations Committee at 1 p.m. today on the second floor of Lenoir Hall.
Woman's Club
The University Woman's Club will give a tea tomorrow from 4 to 6 p.m., in the Assembly Room of the University Library. Hostesses will be the Library and the School of Library Science. Special exhibits have been arranged, and tours will be available for those wishing to see the new rooms of the recently enlarged Library.
Air ROTC Project
Movies of the UNC-Miami football game and Air Force films on flight tests of Sabre jets and combat topics will be shown tomorrow night from 7:30 p.m. until 9:30 in the auditorium of the Library under the Business Administration building. The program is the project of the senior PIO's of Air Force ROTC.
Glee Club Christmas Concert
The Men's and Women's Glee Clubs will present their Christmas Concert on December 9 in Hill Hall. The combined clubs will sing selections from Bach, Beethoven, Wagner, Dufay and will include A Ceremony of Carols by Benjamin Britten. Included in the program, directed by Prof. Joel Carter, is a group of folk tunes representative of other countries. A trombone quartet directed by Joe Woods will play preludes before and after the program.
Valkyrie Meet
The Valkyrie Sing Song Chairman will meet at 3 o'clock in the Women's Council at Graham Memorial to decide date deadlines.

Barber Shop
The barber shop in the basement of Graham Memorial is not being operated now because the barber's license has expired and cannot be renewed until January. Bill Roth, Student Union Director, says that the shop will be open again in the early part of the winter quarter and will serve students from 8:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on Monday through Friday and from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. on Saturday.
