

Duke Program This Week Is Ultra-Heavy

With the baseball team facing Pennsylvania in Ace Parker's home coaching debut tomorrow, Duke University's spring sports will have their heaviest program of the year this week.

There are 15 events on the week's slate and all of them are at Duke with the baseball club leading the way with a game daily.

Parker's crew meets Penn again tomorrow at 3:30 and at the same time the tennis outfit will make their home debut against Michigan State at three o'clock.

On Wednesday it will be baseball versus Lehigh and the lacrosse outfit opens its card against Williams.

Thursday the baseballers go against Michigan State, the tennis team meets New England champion Amherst and the golfers make their home start against Ohio University.

Friday the baseball team continues against Michigan State, the lacrosse team faces Cornell and the golfers meet Florida.

Saturday is the biggest day of the week. The Blue Devil nine faces Williams, the track team opens at home against Navy, the netters face Presbyterian and all day long in the Duke swimming pool will be staged the annual Invitational Interscholastic Swimming Meet.

Thus, the students, who resumed classes today after spring holidays, and the fans will be given a full variety of athletic events.

In baseball, Coach Parker has many holes to plug in the team that last year won Southern Conference and District Three NCAA

Tennis Match

The Carolina tennis team, winners of its first match by 9-0, meet Harvard tomorrow afternoon at two o'clock on the varsity courts.

There will be 15 individual matches played instead of the usual nine to allow the coaches to see more of their team in competition.

Carolina Wins, 11-9

Camp Lejeune, March 28 — (Special)—Carolina scored three runs in the top of the ninth inning to beat Michigan State, 11-9. This win was the second Tar Heel victory in two days over Michigan.

Bill Lore was the winning pitcher.

"The Colonel liked to study the spread and high piled cheeses and the great sausages. People at home think mortadella is a sausage he thought.

"Then he said to the woman in the booth, 'Let me try a little of that sausage, please. Only a sliver.'

"She cut a thin, paper thin slice for him, ferociously, and lovingly, and when the Colonel tasted it, there was the half smokey, black pepper-corned, true flavor of the meat from the hogs that ate acorns in the mountains.

titles. Several of the "big guns" at bat are gone and some of the better defensive performers from last year are also missing. In all, not available from the great 1952 outfit are two pitchers, two catchers, an infielder and four outfielders.

Golf Exhibition Is Tomorrow; Swimmers Score In NCAA

Tomorrow three of North Carolina's golfing greats will display their talents on Finley Course here so that a future star might get a start.

Julius Boros, Harvie Ward and Johnny Palmer, with Tennessee's great Cary Middlecoff, will play an 18 hole engagement at 2 o'clock in the afternoon.

Proceeds from the match will send a Tar Heel star, the N. C. Jaycee Junior champion, to Ann Arbor, Mich. for the National Jaycee championship meet this summer. A portion of the proceeds will also go into the P.G.A. Relief Fund.

The match will pit Ward against Middlecoff and Boros over the tough par 72 Finley Course just off the Raleigh Road near the University of North Carolina campus.

Ward and Palmer are former Carolinas Junior champions. Ward is from Tarboro, and now lives in Atlanta, while the colorful Palmer is a Badin native. Boros registers out of Mid Pines and Middlecoff hails from Memphis.

COLUMBUS, O., March 28—(Special)—A third in the 400 yd. free style relay and a sixth in the 200 yd. backstroke by Warren Heeman gave Carolina's swimming team nine points in the finals of the NCAA meet here yesterday.

Favored Yale was far in advance of the field, followed by host school Ohio State, but Carolina's showing was one of the best ever made by a Southern school in the NCAA's.

The Carolina relay team of Jack

Edwards, Don Evans, Stan Tinkham, and Buddy Baarcke finished in 3:31.7 just six seconds of the record time. Heeman swam his event in 2:17.1.

Carolina could pick up some more points today, depending on its qualifying heats for the rest of the finals. Edwards is swimming in the 100-yd. freestyle heat, Baarcke in the 100-yd. backstroke, Evans in the medley, and the Carolina medley relay team can qualify.

Yoshi Oyakawa Ohio State's Olympic and NCAA champion, won the 200 yd. backstroke in the record time of 2:05.1. His time is two seconds less than the old record, and is the fastest time recorded for this event in the world.

Michigan's 400-yd. freestyle relay team set a new record while successfully defending its championship in 3:24. Yale also shaded the old record, taking second in 3:25.4.

J. Paul Sheedy* Switched to Wildroot Cream-Oil Because He Flunked The Finger-Nail Test

POOR PAUL felt down under when his girl said, "Your sloppy hair kangaroos our friendship. Never pouch your arms around me again until you high tail it to a toilet goods counter for some Wildroot Cream-Oil. Contains Lanolin. Non-alcoholic. Relieves annoying dryness. Removes loose, ugly dandruff. Grooms the hair. Helps you pass the Finger-Nail Test. Get it or you'll kangaroo the day!" Sheedy tried Wildroot Cream-Oil and now all the girls are hopped up about him. Better reach in your pocket for 29¢ and buy Wildroot Cream-Oil in either bottle or tube. You kangaroo cause it puts real punch into your social life. Ask for it on your hair at any barber shop too, and get a jump ahead of all the other guys!
