For A Pitcher Vernon Might Be In Trade With Red Sox

ORLANDO, Fla., March 2 (AP)—Washington and Boston Red Sox officials today discussed a possible trade involving Mickey Vernon, holdout first baseman of the Senators, but results of the conference were not disclosed.

Calvin Griffith, Washington vice-president, said after a huddle with Joe Cronin, general manager of the Red Sox, "We discussed the possibility of a trade involving Vernon."

The Senators' bargaining position is strengthened by the shoulder injury of Ted Williams. Mickey has played some outfield and could provide some of the batting punch that will be lost indefinitely to the Red Sox by Williams' injury. The Senators probably would (See VERNON, page 4)

Frosh Win

CHARLOTTE, March 2 (AP)—With Lennie Rosenbluth and Joe Quigg bearing the brunt of the offensive attack, Carolina's freshmen won a 53-44 basketball decision over Davidson's frosh here tonight.

Rosenbluth poured in 19 points to lead both teams' scoring. Quigg chipped in 18.
Scoring: Carolina — forwards: Quigg, 18; Rosenbluth, 19; Gaffney, Hearndon; centers—Young, 5; guards—Ward, 8; Henderson, 2; Teague, 1; Clark.
Davidson—forwards: D. Shaw, 6; McSwain, 8; centers—Walker, 13; Finnegan; guards—Weeks, 13; B. Shaw, 4; Pulliam.

They Call Him 'Stump' ACC Diving Champ John Hussey Is Also Tops At Sportswriting

By Tom Peacock
For those who may think a sports writer is never an athlete, the Daily Tar Heel offers as its Athlete of the Week an assistant sports editor who is also the Atlantic Coast Conference diving champion.

John Hussey, unanimous winner of the honor, is a sophomore who practiced diving in the early afternoon, then went to the Tar Heel sports office and earned a staff job within a year.

Last Friday Hussey went to his first college individual championships, the ACC meet in Raleigh, and walked off with the John A. Feutehlerberg Trophy for the champion diver to the chagrin of five other entrants.

Swimming Coach Ralph Casey looks with glee towards two more years of having Hussey on his team, and says, "Hussey is a good man and a good diver. I'd rate him with some of the best we've ever had." Casey grins and adds, "If he would only work out and get in shape he could be one of the best in the South."

Athletic Director Chuck Erickson's comment on Hussey was more poignant though unintentionally so. When John was pointed out to Erickson as the ACC diving champ, Erickson said, "You know, he looks sort of stocky to be a diver." The five-foot, six inch Hussey is best known by his teammates and friends at the Beta house as "Stump." His winning score at the meet was 110.5, his weight, according to some of the jokers he works with.

Hussey's diving career started about seven years ago in his hometown of Shreveport, La., at AAU meets. Next was Sewanee Military Academy in Tennessee, a prep school famed for its swimming team and an outstanding supplier of talent to Carolina.

Last year Stump had the same record as the whole freshman swimming team, seven meets and seven victories. The competition was tougher this season, but he broke even with five wins and six losses in regular competition, then his big win in the ACC championships.

Last year a win in the championships for a Carolina swimmer would have been commendable but not spectacular. This season, however, State's strong senior team rose up and grabbed 11 of 13 events. A South Carolina swimmer won the 100-yard freestyle, making 12, so Hussey's diving championship was Carolina's lone win, and saved the Tar Heels from being shut out.

The championship was decided by a combination of scores from the semi-finals in the morning and the finals that night. Hussey (See HUSSEY, page 4)

Undeclared Swedish Gymnasts To Perform In Chapel Hill Tomorrow Night

The greatest gymnastic show ever to be presented on the Carolina campus will appear here when the Swedish Olympic tumbling team stops at Woollen Gym for an exhibition at 8 p.m. Thursday night.

Chapel Hill will be the next stop for the Swedes, who are currently on a 100,000 mile tour of the nation. They will return to their own country on March 8. As yet they have not been defeated while in this country, even though they have faced some of the best gymnastic talent in the nation.

They will not compete while at Carolina, but will perform an exhibition. Bill Meade, Tar Heel gymnastic coach and sponsor of the program, has said that the reason for this is that he wants the fans to see "Gymnastics at its best."

The ticket office have announceed that there are still plenty of tickets available for the show. Pass-book holders will be given a special price for the event.

SALUTE
JOHN HUSSEY

John Hussey, Atlantic Coast Conference diving champion and Assistant Sports Editor of The Daily Tar Heel, is the DTH Athlete of the Week by unanimous vote. Hussey led in diving during the whole meet, never giving the meet favorites a chance, and was the only Carolina swimmer to take a championship in 13 events.

The 19-year-old sophomore has two more seasons with the swimming team, and Coach Ralph Casey expects him to develop into one of the best divers in the South.

We want John to drop by TOWN & CAMPUS and pick out a shirt to his liking—compliments of the house.

We want the old and young alike of Chapel Hill to make TOWN & CAMPUS their headquarters for the finest in men's clothing. Drop in today.

IT'S ALL A MATTER OF TASTE

No guessing games with cigarettes
When Luckies are your brand—
A cleaner, fresher, smoother smoke,
A taste that's really grand!

Phil W. Elder
Oklahoma University

When you come right down to it, you smoke for one simple reason . . . enjoyment. And smoking enjoyment is all a matter of taste. Yes, taste is what counts in a cigarette. And Luckies taste better.

Two facts explain why Luckies taste better. First, L.S./M.F.T.—Lucky Strike means fine tobacco . . . light, mild, good-tasting tobacco. Second, Luckies are actually made better to taste better . . . always round, firm, fully packed to draw freely and smoke evenly.

So, for the enjoyment you get from better taste, and only from better taste, Be Happy—Go Lucky. Get a pack or a carton of better-tasting Luckies today.

I'm called a real go-getter!—
My brand is always Lucky Strike—
Why shucks, they just taste better!

COLLEGE SMOKERS PREFER LUCKIES
A comprehensive survey—based on 31,000 student interviews and supervised by college professors—shows that smokers in colleges from coast to coast prefer Luckies to all other brands! The No. 1 reason: Luckies' better taste!

I've always heard that taste will tell,
And now I know it's true—
The better taste of Lucky Strikes
Will sure convince you, too!
