

UNC Seeks To Snap Slump At Wake Forest Tonight

Varsity Contest To Be Preceded By Deaclet-Tar Baby Preliminary

McGuire Says Law Of Averages Just Caught Up With Varsity During Past Three Defeats

Coach Frank McGuire's Tar Heels, who have lost three consecutive games, will seek to pull out of their slump tonight when they invade Baptist Hollow to take on the Wake Forest Demon Deacons.

The game, to be preceded by a freshman preliminary between the Tar Babies and Deaclets, will get under way at 8:15 o'clock.

Despite Carolina's loss of three straight, Coach McGuire feels that the team has snapped out of its lethargic mood and is ready once again to play ball comparable to the days before Christmas. Then the Tar Heels were red hot.

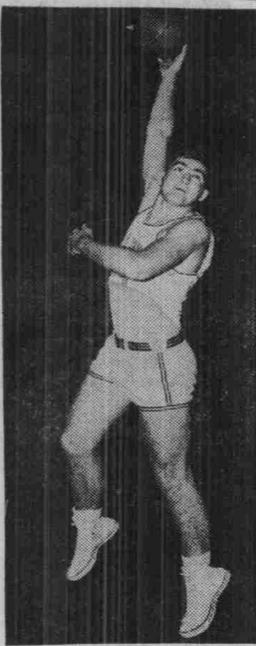

McGuire bases this opinion on his team's showing Saturday night against Maryland when Carolina battled the Terrapins down to the wire before dropping a 63-61 decision. With 30 seconds to go, the team led Maryland by one point.

"I think that the law of averages just caught up with us for a while," McGuire said after the Maryland defeat. "Wake Forest will be tough, especially on their home court (Gore Gymnasium). It will be a dog-fight, but I think we will do okay."

THE TAR HEELS beat the Deacons in Gore Gym last season, and won another from Wake Forest in Chapel Hill last month by a 95-78 count.

At the time of the most recent game between the two foes, it was said that Carolina was not a running team, but the Tar Heels abandoned their possession play and practically ran the Deacs off the court.

The starting line-ups for the two teams tonight will be unchanged. Wake Forest will open with Dickie Hemric, Jackie Murdoch, Lefty Davis, Maurice George and Ernie Wiggins. Carolina will start Len Rosenbluth, Jerry Vayda, Bob Young, Al Lifson and Tony Radovich.

Fencers In Triple Meet Here Sat.

The Carolina fencing team will tangle with swordsmen from State College and the Augusta Military Academy in a three-way meet to be held in Woolen Gym Saturday.

This will be Carolina's first contest of the year. The Tar Heel fencers have been holding daily practice sessions in preparation for Saturday's meet. Both State and Augusta have strong squads and should give the Tar Heels a rough opening assignment.

The first meet is slated for 1 o'clock and will pit State against Augusta. Carolina will then battle State at 3:30. The nightcap will begin at 7 o'clock when the Tar Heels take on Augusta.

Swedish Gym Troupe Appear Here March 2

The Swedish National gymnastic teams will appear here in Woolen Gym Wednesday night, March 2.

This year the troupe includes the Swedish women who won a gold medal in the 1952 Olympics. Miss Ann-Sofi Pettersson, rated Sweden's best, is leader of the women's team and holder of two world's championships.

Grid Practice Postponed 'Til Next Monday

Spring football practice, originally slated to begin tomorrow, has been postponed until Monday, with the first session scheduled at 4 o'clock.

Equipment for the workouts, which will continue until the annual Blue-White game March 19, will be issued on that date.

For the main, the sessions will be devoted to fundamentals — tackling, blocking and defense. Pass defense will receive a large part of the attention devoted to defense, as eight of the 10 teams on the Carolina schedule next year use the T or Split-T type offense. The two which do not are Tennessee, which employs a single wing with an unbalanced line, and North Carolina State, which uses a multiple type offense.

Coach George Barclay said, "We've got a lot of work to do, because of inexperience on the part of some of the boys, and this is probably the toughest schedule Carolina has ever played."

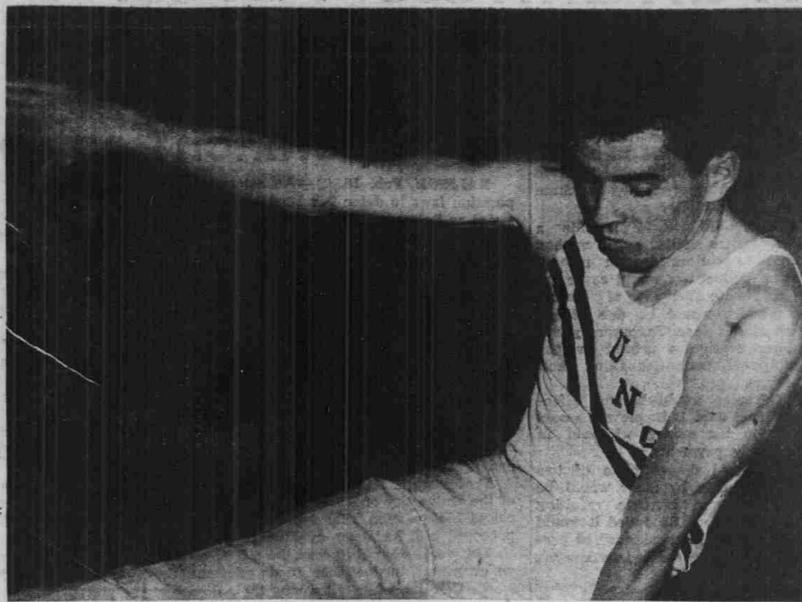

Barclay also stated that he would welcome anyone who wished to try out for the squad, and give them ample opportunity to prove their ability during the ensuing workouts.

ANYONE WHO wishes to try out should see Coach Barclay between now and Monday in Woolen Gym.

Injuries, which befell some of the freshmen players last season, have been for the most part pronounced cured and the players ready for action. Freshman players Wally Vale and Jimmy Jones, forced to miss most of last year's games, are ready to play. However, the future of Leo Russavage and Nick Marcolopoulos is still indefinite. Russavage received a severe charley horse in his knee last season, and Marcolopoulos is awaiting doctor's decision as to whether he will be able to play.

"We need work especially on our guards, fullbacks and quarterbacks," said Barclay. The end positions appear to be well taken care of, with Will Frye, Darden Livesy, Norman Lane and Larry Muschamp returning from last year's squad, and freshmen Paul Pulley and Buddy Payne up for a crack at the varsity.

Candidates for the quarterback position are Doug Farmer and Len Bullock from last year's squad, and freshmen Buddy Sasser, David Reid and Ron Marquette. The size of Sasser, the 160 lb. former high school all-american doesn't seem to worry Barclay, who believes that his speed will offset his lack of brawn.

Athlete of the Week!

With 13 Points, Hudson Topped Scoring As UNC Downed Tech

Gordon Hudson, outstanding Carolina gymnast, has been selected as "Athlete of the Week" by The Daily Tar Heel sports staff for his performance against Georgia Tech last Saturday.

He scored a first on the parallel bars, second on the side horse and third on the high bar for a total of 13 points as the Tar Heels turned back the Georgians, 58½-36½. This personable and versatile athlete is a 21-year-old senior from Winston-Salem. The effortless ease he displays is deceptive, for he makes the most difficult feats seem easy. It is this same grace and poise that has made him such a consistent winner.

LAST YEAR Hudson set a UNC

all-time scoring record, garnering 106 points for the season. For the last three years he has been the mainstay of the Carolina team, being the leading point-producer each year.

His consistency and versatility have caused gymnastics Coach Bill Meade to say of him, "He is the best gymnast I've ever had, and probably one of the best natives in the South."

Meade has high hopes for Hudson in the Southern Intercollegiate Gymnastics Championships to be held at Georgia Tech next month. The coach feels that Hudson will be one of the best men competing in the meet.

Blue Devils Begin Spring Grid Drills

DURHAM, N. C., Feb. 15. (AP)—A squad of 75 hopefuls reported to head coach Bill Murray as Duke University's Orange Bowl champions started off-season drills with a brisk workout here today.

Coach Murray said that most of the work would be on fundamentals and the problem of working the freshmen into the varsity squad.

Two Redskin Players Jump To Canada

WASHINGTON, Feb. 15. (AP)—Two star tackles who formerly played at the University of Maryland jumped the Washington Redskins today and signed contracts with the Calgary club of the Canadian Football League.

George Preston Marshall, the Redskin owner, said he hadn't decided yet whether or not to bring any legal action against the players, Dick "Little Mo" Modzelewski and Bob Morgan. But he had this to say of them:

"Both obviously have no respect for their agreements. Evidently, the University of Maryland has no course in contractual relations." Modzelewski said in a telephone interview that "We will get much more than what we've been getting."

IN THE DARK about which cigarette to smoke? Take a hint from the Doodle above, titled: Two searchlight crews, one asleep, one enjoying better-tasting Luckies. Your search is over when you light up a Lucky. You'll find out why college smokers prefer Luckies to all other brands, as shown by the latest, greatest college survey. Once again, the No. 1 reason: Luckies taste better. They taste better, first of all, because Lucky Strike means fine tobacco. Then, that tobacco is toasted to taste better. "It's Toasted"—the famous Lucky Strike process—tones up Luckies' light, good-tasting tobacco to make it taste even better... cleaner, fresher, smoother. So, enjoy the better-tasting cigarette...
