Mason-Dixon Jubilee To Highlight Weekend

By SUSAN ANDES

Sleepy this morning? No doubt with the weekend parties having started as early as Thursday that there are many droopy eyed but happy, people dragging out to classes today.

The Theta Chis for one are having "big doings" going on. Last night they had an open house for guests attending the Mason Dixon Jubilee-composed of Theta Chi chapters from North Carolina and Virginia. Tonight President Clint Andrews and the rest of the brothers will go over to Durham for the formal dinner and dance at the Union Ballroom at Duke.

The TEPs had a stag beer party Thursday night and Phi Gam pledges also gave a party Thursday for new Chi O initiates.

While we're on the subject of sororities, recognition has been given to the following girls from their respective Greek letter groups. Chi O best-all-round pledge award went to Alice Bost of Hickory. Eddie Rogers has typified what all Pi Phi's strive to have—that is all As—so she was the recipient of a scholarship ring.

Sallie Cowles of Statesville was elected best Pi Phi pledge and thus honored at a recent initiation banquet held at the Ranch House.

Jane Cooke was voted best Tri Delta pledge; while Cary Caperton received the scholarship cup. The KDs have been in the process of observing white rose week and will culminate their activities tomorrow with the formal initiation ceremonies. Mrs. Louise Burns and Mrs. Kay Kyser entertained the new initiates this week with a desert party. The ADPIs had an alumnae patroness tea early this week.

Phi Deltis are in the midst of a partying weekend. Last night their pledges and dates, as well as the entire chapter had dinner at the house before moving on to the Schoolhouse for a more informal party. At tonight's formal dance at the Chapel Hill Country Club the following pledge class officers and their dates will lead the figure procession: John Lewallen, Coral Gables, Fla., president, with Marshall Soyars, Chattanooga, Tenn. Gordon Darnell, Murphy, vice president with Robin Goode, Martinsville, Va. Bob Allison, Sylva, treasurer, with Nancy Franklin, Chattanooga, Tenn. Mark Cherry, Mt. Olive, secretary, with Kay Mitchell also of Mt. Olive. George Holt, Miami, Fla. social chairman; with Eve Hargrave, Lexington.

Others participating in the figure will be Pieter Hogaboon, Alexandria, Va.; P. W. West, Sanford; Bill Zickraf, Franklin; Galen Hobbs, Chapel Hill; Wendy Eaves, Washington, D. C.; Larry McMullen, Lumberton; John Medlen, Benson, and Baxter Culler, Martinsville, Va.

Seven North Carolina chapters of SPEs and one chapter from South Carolina are convening this weekend in the Chapel Hill area. Tonight the local chapters will be hosts at a dance at the State Union Building in Raleigh.

Sigma Nus said they were doing "nothing publishable" this weekend; and when the Dekes were called to find out their weekend activities the reply received from one of their members was "we don't do very much."

News for the pinning section include: Gerald Hudson, Sigma Chi from Spartanburg, S. C. to Elsa Pearlitz from Dallas, Texas. Lynn Mann, Pi Kap from Lillington to Pat Woodworth, a Meredith student.

The Lambda Chis inform us that several of their brothers have gone skiing in Vermont this weekend. Also from their house on Pickard Lane comes word that Bob Bell of Virginia Beach, Va. has married Sue Ringer, KD from West Hartford, Conn.

Election of officers has taken place in several of the houses this week with the following boys holding leadership positions. For the DUS, David Andrews, North Augusta, S. C., president; Gus Grant, Bethesda, Md., vice president; Bob Hice, Charlotte, secretary; and Jimmy Armstrong, High Point, treasurer.

Beta officers are Mike Boyette, Cincinnati, president; Charlie Froelich, High Point, vice president; Dick Noll, Boston, Mass., secretary; and Paul Monroe, Fayetteville, treasurer.

Sunday the events will come to a close with a "Bon Voyage" brunch on the house patio.

COLOR PRINTS

A collection of original signed color prints will be on display at the Person Hall Art Gallery beginning today and continuing through the 27th. The exhibition is planned by the Color Print Society of New York.

SENIOR STUDENTS

Senior students interested in being interviewed by Mrs. Paul Pfuetze, who will be on campus Monday to recruit seniors for professional YWCA work, should contact the Placement Service and the YWCA staff immediately.

Zeta Beta Tau Pledges Have Weekend

IT WAS THE SAME IN 1696

In 1696 one Robert Russell wrote a "Little Book for Children, describing who they are that are good children; and also who they are that are wicked children." We won't bother you with a description of the good child (we are both embarrassed and bored by it), but here is Mr. Russell's description of the day of the bad child:

"Then John goes with a story to his Mother that Mary hit him in the face. Then Mary and Betty go with a story to their Mother that the Boys do nothing but tear them about, and will not let them alone. Then Tom goes with a story to his Mother, saying Mother, William flung me aground and hurt my arm. Then William goeth with a story to his Mother, saying, Mother, Tom hit me with his Batt. Then Tom crys out, But you lye; I did not touch you, you flung me aground first. But you lye: And you lye: And you lye: And you lye: And you lye. And then their Mother is fain to come out with a good Cudgel, and set them all agreed. Then another time their Mother calls Will, to do something for her that she wanted to be done, and he not making haste to come to her, she then calls Tom, John or Richard, but they all give her the slip and run away to play"—Pleasures of Publishing solved."

The committee will try to help the newspaper, not control it, according to chairman Hudson. He said that if would try to point out what the members think are problems and have them explained by Kurland and Powledge.

The other members of the committee are Jim Monteith, Charles Hyatt, Bob Elder, Ed Lipman and Tom Lambeth.

Radio

"Why not look into the seldom working legislature?" asked Wright. "There might be some thing for investigation."

The announcer ended his discussion: "I wonder how many of our legislators are sincere... how many are interested in the students... how many are interested in their names?"

JEWISH BELIEF

Rabbi E. M. Rosenzweig, director of B'nai B'rith Hillel Foundation here, will speak at a Westminster Fellowship supper forum tomorrow on "What Does A Jew Believe?" Supper will be served at 6 p.m. at the fellowship hut at a cost of 50 cents. The program will begin at 7 p.m.

ACC Writers To Give New Player Award

RALEIGH, March 4 (AP)—The Atlantic Coast Conference Sports Writers Assn., at its annual meeting here today, voted to award a trophy for the conference "Basketball Player of the Year." This replaces the award previously given to the No. 1 player of the Tournament.

Letters From Lawmakers

wrote his letter to The Daily Tar Heel because "I would like to explain my position." According to Warren, his "views were not expressed correctly by your reporter."

"I figured that you were lazy because you weren't doing your job," said Warren's letter. "I may be wrong. I don't know whether you are lazy or not, so I will publicly retract that statement and say in its place that it is possible that you are lazy."

Warren in his letter said, "There has been a great deal of talk about The Daily Tar Heel's not covering all the campus news. In the case of the Phi Assembly this is true (Warren is speaker of the Phi). Every piece of news, except one that we have had in The Daily Tar Heel since I have been in a position to know about it, has been carried up to your offices and handed to you with the plea that you print it. On several occasions even these have been badly disarranged. Other organizations have had the same trouble, or so they say. Therefore, I say that you are not doing a good job. In the first place when news occurs on the campus, The Daily Tar Heel should go out and get it.

"If you don't have staff to do it, you should get staff, and if you don't get staff you are not doing a good job. You have at your fingertips the best possible means of getting a staff that anyone could possibly have—The daily Tar Heel—and if you can't get a large enough staff to cover all the news with that, then I just don't know what to think."
