

GMAB Film Tonight

The Film Committee of the Graham Memorial Activities Board will present the fourth in its spring series of films tonight at 8 o'clock in Carroll Hall.

The film is "Rocking Horse

Winner," starring Valeries Hobson and John Mills.

The J. Arthur Rank production is a "dramatization of the effect on a young boy of the spendthrift habits of his parents, and his willingness to sacrifice his life to bring them contentment and happiness," according to Gordon Forester, president of GMAB. He added that the film is the best in the year's series.

Season tickets will be available at the door. No individual tickets will be sold.

DI DEBATES

The Dialectic Senate defeated a bill Tuesday night that would have abolished the United States Senate. The Senators killed the measure 14-2 on a voice vote.

The bill, introduced by Larry McElroy, described the nation's highest legislative body as "unnecessary" since the needs which it was created to meet are "no longer pressing."

In opposing the main bill, Turner described the western parts of the United States as "grouped around one big roulette wheel."

UP CANDIDATES MEETING

There will be a meeting of all University Party candidates today at 3:30 in the APO room of Graham Memorial.
