Legislature Passes Bill On Dorm TV

The Student Legislature last Party Chairman Mike Weinman, night passed unanimously a bill during the 25-minute session, concerning the maintenance of men and women's dormitory television sets.

The bill, revised from the original bill introduced last week to "investigate the possibility of fi- tration. nancing the maintenance of men and women's dormitory television sets from sources other than the individual dormitory social fund."

Three other bills were introduced, all of them by University

Four GMAB Members At Conference

Four members of GMAB attended the regional conference of the Assn. of College Unions at Tüskegee Institute in Alabama on Oct. 4, 5, and 6.

The conference brought together directors and students from mions on campuses in Alabama, Virginia, Florida and North Caro-

Some recommendations made at the conference which will be submitted to the National Assn. were as follows: The end of the mion program is that of all curricular and extra-curricular colegiate activities, education union programs should attempt to meet the needs of all students, special programming efforts must be urned towards increasing and mproving student-faculty relaions, the UNC representation ecommended that no programming aimed at creating competition on a fraternity vs. independent basis should be encouraged and the union should never hesitate to supplement the program of other campus groups nor to cooperate where union resources can help to effectively present worthy projects.

The representatives from the UNC group felt the governing system, the relation to student government and the place within the student union here is superior to any of our sister institutions.
