Tar Heel Fish Challenge USC Here Tomorrow

Coach Jim Ratliff's South Carolina Gamecock's will arrive tomorrow night in the first leg of a road trip that will see them meet the Tar Heel mermen on Friday night and N.C. State in Raleigh Saturday.

Although the Tarheels took the South Carolinians 65-15 last season, they are expected to field a strong club this year.

As for the locals, they will make assaults on two ACC marks. The medley relay team of Krepp, Kickgraf, Roth, and Rose will attempt to set a new standard in the 400 yard medley relay. This is the first year that this event has been swum at 400 yards instead of 300. The 400 yard freestyle relay team of Krepp, Kickgraf, Roth and Rose will attempt to crack the existing ACC record set by the Tarheels last year.

Sooners Get All-Star Berths

MIAMI, Fla.—(AP)—Five players from Oklahoma, the nation's No. 1 football team, will play in the North-South All-Star game here Dec. 26, game director Andy Gustafson announced today.

The Oklahoma players, who will be on the North squad, include halfback Tommy McDonald, center Jerry Tubbs, quarterback Jim Harris, tackle Ed Gray and end John Bell.

The North previously had signed Penn State's Billy Kane and Jack Calderone.

Players announced for the South team are Jackie Simpson, Joe Brodsky and John Barrow, all from the University of Florida.

Heavy Trading Anticipated In Minor League Sessions

By JOE REICHLER

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP)—While the higher classification minor leagues were drafting 36 players at a cost of $156,750 yesterday, major league executives were getting down to serious trade talk at the annual minor league meetings.

Although the only deal consummated thus far has been the eight-player transaction between Detroit and Kansas City, officials were looking forward to one of the most active trade sessions in years.

Manager Birdie Tebbets, whose Cincinnati Redlegs have been dickering with several clubs in hopes of strengthening their pitching staff, predicted every club in the National League will be involved in at least one trade either here or at the major league meetings in Chicago.

"I've never seen anything like it," he said. "Every club in our league has expressed an eagerness to trade. Not only that, but they've actually gotten down to brass tacks and mentioned names. Unless I'm all wet, I'm sure there will be a number of deals—and for top flight players, too."

One proposed multiple deal involving such big names as Richie Ashburn and Harvey Haddix of Philadelphia and Carl Furillo of Brooklyn, had reached the serious stage until it was finally rejected by General Manager Roy Haney and Manager Mayo Smith of the Phillies.

Had the deal gone through, Brooklyn would have dealt the Phillies Furillo, outfielders Gino Cimoli and Bert Hamric, shortstop Bill Lillis and pitcher Ken Lehman for Ashburn and Haddix.

"The deal is off," Smith flatly declared. "We rejected it. Brooklyn didn't offer us enough."

A proposed deal between the Chicago Cubs and Redlegs involving either Bob Rush or Sam Jones, a pair of right-handed Cub pitchers, and Smokey Burgess, Cincinnati's second-string catcher, also appears to have fallen through. Tebbets, however, is confident his team will come out of this meeting with a pitcher. The New York Giants have offered Ruben Gomez their Puerto Rican right-hander to the Reds for Burgess.

The most active would-be traders in the American League appear to be Washington, Boston, Chicago, Baltimore and Cleveland. The names most bandied about are a trio of third basemen—Washington's Eddie Yost, Cleveland's Al Rosen and Baltimore's George Kell.

Yearling Grunt And Groaners Meet Generals

This Saturday, Carolina's freshman wrestling squad will open its season against the Washington and Lee junior varsity. The meet will be held in Woollen Gym before the varsity's matches with Washington and Lee and Wake Forest.

Pacing the frosh matmen will be Jim Welborn wrestling in the 147 pound class. Welborn has twice been N.C. High School wrestling champion in his weight class.

Holding the top positions in the other weight classes will be: Bill Suttle, 130; Joe Perrine, 137; Don Russell, 157; Ron Purdy, 167; Benno Sack, 177; and Mike Pittman, heavyweight.

Wrestling coach Bill Barnes said yesterday that Sack is one of the top men on the squad although he has never wrestled before this year.

The Tar Babies can count on losing one match already; there is not a man on the squad light enough to wrestle in the 129 pound class. The squad will have to forfeit this match. Coach Barnes is making an appeal for a man that will wrestle in this weight. Any one interested meet Coach Barnes near a set of scales.
