

Varsity And Freshmen Cagers Clash Today In Woollen Gym

BILL HATHAWAY
...starting varsity center

Tip Off Is Slated For 2 O'Clock

It will be brother against brother this afternoon in Woollen Gym when the unbeaten and nationally ranked Carolina varsity cagers take on the scrappy UNC frosh in a family feud slated to tip off at 2 p.m.

The scrimmage will be played under actual game conditions just as was the case in two previous varsity-frosh battles. Coach Frank McGuire's high flying veterans ranked second in the nation behind Kansas and newly crowned champs of the Dixie Classic, swept both of the first two games in pre-season play. They won the first by a narrow four point margin, but ran up a one-sided score in the second fray.

The yearling cagers, coached by former UNC basketball player Vince Grimaldi, have posted a respectable 4-1 record for the season. Wins have come over High Point Jayvees, Duke, Wilmington Junior College and Edwards Military Institute. State's highly touted frosh handed them their only setback by a narrow 91-89 margin.

Pacing the Tar Baby attack so far this season has been "Leaping Lee" Shaffer, the blond bombshell from Pittsburgh, Pa. Snaffer a husky 6-6 youth has dominated both scoring and rebounding.

Another effective man both under the boards and in the scoring column has been Dick Kepley, rangy 6-8 center. Rounding out the Tar Baby front line is Bruno LaRese, sharp shooting 6-4 forward from New York City.

DICK KEPLEY
...frosh pivot man

Tar Heel Mermen Romp Over Virginia Cavaliers, 50-36

By STEWART BIRD
Carolina's undefeated mermen kept the slate unblemished yesterday afternoon by downing the University of Virginia, 50 to 36 in Charlottesville.

Using only eight swimmers, Coach Ralph Casey's charges took eight out of ten first places in rolling to their fourth consecutive victory of the season. All eight Tar Heel mermen took at least one first place apiece, with Nash, Mercer, Mahaffy, and Veazey adding more points by taking the medley relay.

The squad returned to Chapel Hill last night, to begin preparations for the first real showdown meet of the season against N. C. State in Raleigh Jan. 15th. Upon the results of this meet and the final encounter at Chapel Hill in February, undoubtedly will hinge the decision of the 1957 ACC conference championship.

The summary:
400 yard medley relay — Nash, Mercer, Mahaffy, Veazey. (UNC). Time: 4:23.0.

22 yard freestyle—(1) Zickgraf (UNC), (2) Sanders (VA), (3) Maness (UNC). Time: 2:24.1

50 yard freestyle—(1) Rath (UNC), (2) Grinnan (VA), (3) Cooper (UNC). Time: 24.0

200 yard butterfly—(1) Mahaffy (UNC), (2) Turner (UNC), (3) Doll (VA). Time: 2:29.0

Diving—(1) Rodge (VA), (2) Phillips (VA), (3) Hamilton (VA). Carolina, no entries.

100 yard freestyle—(1) Maness (UNC), (2) Zickgraf (UNC), (3) Helberg (VA). Time: 58.0

440 yard freestyle—(1) Mercer (UNC), (2) Blake (VA), (3) Hel-

berg (VA). Time: 5:38.
200 yard breast stroke — (1) Cooper (UNC), (2) Phillips (VA), (3) Bryan (VA). Time: 2:51.9
200 yard back stroke — (1) Nash (UNC), (2) Diddrick (VA), (3) Bryan (VA). Time: 2:34.0
400 yard freestyle relay—Brennan, Saunders, Doll, Mudd (VA). Time: 3:58

Carolina Caravan

By JAKE WADE

IN THE MORNING, after their usual ham and eggs at pal Spero's Goody Shop, about the only downtown eating place open during the tranquil holidays in this town, they went to their rooms and mostly slept.

This was the University of North Carolina basketball squad and the time was last Saturday. That night the Tar Heels would win their eleventh straight game of the season and their first Dixie Classic championship. They had gone into the colorful tournament as the nation's number two team and they lived up to their billing.

During the day some of the boys did strange things.

Tommy Kearns, the Tar Heels' back court quarterback, went down town and bought, of all things, a hat. Nobody knew exactly why.

Big Billy Hathaway, who before going on the recent northern trip, took the battery out of his car and locked it in the trunk. He had found it dead on returning. So he bought a new one.

Then "Hot Rod" Hathaway decided his beloved auto needed a washing. He went out to the home of "Sarge" Keller, U. N. C.'s faithful equipment man, and borrowed a hose. He washed his car.

IN THE AFTERNOON of the eventful day, after lunching at the Goody Shop, they listened to the mainline games on the radio.

At 5 p.m., following their custom throughout the tournament in which they turned back Utah and Duke before they toppled the Demon Deacons, they had their steak dinner at Leroy Merritt's "The Pines" restaurant. They were off in their station wagons for the Coliseum, where they fared so well all week.

The win was a long time coming to the Tar Heels but all agreed that they richly deserved the diadem. All likewise agreed that this is a wonderful basketball team. It probably is the finest in Carolina's history and Coach Frank McGuire, who did an excellent job in guiding his team through the colorful meet, thinks it may be the finest he has coached. He has had many good teams.

LENNIE ROSENBLUTH, the Classic's "Most Valuable" player, probably was the calmest man in the event. Carolina's All-America star, the "man with the golden touch," took it easy each day but at night he was there with those uncanny, silk-like shots and all-around brilliance.

He was the high scorer of the tournament and he is the team's high scorer. He should end the season as one of the nation's highest because if the fine teams he has met so far have been unable to curb him, except momentarily and with gang-up defenses, it is unlikely future foes will hold him down.

Lennie's mom and dad were on hand at Raleigh last week. They are enthusiastic Rosenbluth rooters.

But Lennie disclaims too much credit for his team's eleven triumphs without a setback. He points, rightfully, to the other lads on the team. Tommy Kearns, Pete Brennan, Bob Cunningham, Joe Quigg and Billy Hathaway were the workhorses who did the most playing at Raleigh. It was a team tournament conquest.

THE TAR HEELS face stern business ahead before the season ends. However, after two busy weeks, three games in a row on their northern trip and three in a row in Raleigh, they are happy to get a few days respite.

They swing back into action against William and Mary at Williamsburg Jan. 8 and then will show before the home folks again against Clemson here on Jan. 11.

Before it's over in March they must meet Duke and Wake Forest again, along with N. C. State in the Big Four.

Then they will shoot for the Atlantic Coast Conference championship and hope for the "double" that in the past has become too much of a habit for N. C. State.

At present, at least, the Tar Heels are on top of the world and it couldn't happen, as the old saw goes, to nicer fellows.

Devils Singe State, 92-85 To Avenge Classic Loss

DURHAM—(AP)—Guard Bucky Allen tossed in 34 points to lead Duke's Blue Devils to a 92-85 revenge win over North Carolina State last night in an Atlantic Coast Conference basketball game before 8,000 fans in Duke Indoor Stadium.

John Richter toppler N. C. State with 31 points before he left the game on fouls with 2:30 left to play.

The win gives Duke a 3-0 record in the conference, and a 7-3 record overall. The Wolfpack has a 1-3 mark in the conference and a 7-6 record for the season.

Another effective man both under the boards and in the scoring column has been Dick Kepley, rangy 6-8 center. Rounding out the Tar Baby front line is Bruno LaRese, sharp shooting 6-4 forward from New York City.

On the backline the Tar Babies have tiny John Crotty and Mike Steppe. Crotty, a 5-11 ball handling flash, is the team's ace playmaker.

Starting for the varsity will be the usual lineup of Hathaway, Rosenbluth, Brennan, Kearns and Cunningham, with Quigg, Groll, Radovich, Lotz and Rosemond leading the reserves.

The Tar Heels have not seen action since last Saturday night when they beat Wake Forest for the Dixie Classic title. They resumed practice for their next regular season game against William & Mary last Thursday, and with the Indian tilt only two days off, the session with the freshmen will serve as a warmup.

The frosh have played one game since the holiday break. In that one Friday night, they stopped Edwards Military Institute, 82-65. They meet the Atlantic Christian Jayvees Tuesday night in Wilson.

Wilkinson Says He Won't Leave Oklahoma Post

NORMAN, Okla.—(AP)—Head football coach Bud Wilkinson yesterday squelched reports he might leave the University of Oklahoma to coach the professional Baltimore Colts.

"I'm quite happy at Oklahoma," Wilkinson said just before leaving for Minneapolis and a week's visit with his parents.

At Baltimore, sources close to the Colts were reported as saying the club has offered Wilkinson $50,000 a year to succeed Webb Eubanks as coach. However, this was denied by Colt President Van Kelleff.

"I am making no coaching changes," Wilkinson said. "I hardly like to dignify wild rumors with any comment."

Oklahoma President Dr. George L. Cross also commented on the report.

"I am quite sure Wilkinson would never leave OU for another coaching position," Cross said. "He has a lifetime post of security here with the best financial deal of any coach in the nation."

"There is no better coaching position anywhere."

The Tulsa Tribune said a Minneapolis television concern has offered Wilkinson $45,000 a year for five years to conduct a program on "news and personalities in the news."

BOSELLER SPARKS 21-7 WIN

South All-Stars Whip North In Senior Bowl

By STAN ATKINS

MOBILE, Ala.—(AP)—All-American Don Bosseler of Miami, Fla. picked up yardage in huge chunks to lead the South All-Stars to a 21-7 victory over the North in the Senior Bowl yesterday.

The powerful 200-pounder from Pittsburgh, Pa., smashed over two touchdowns in the fourth period. He set up the first Rebel score in the opening period with a brilliant exhibition of hard running. Del Shofner of Baylor carried over from the three for the South's first period tally as TCU quarterback Charley Curtis faked a hand-off to Bosseler. The Miami fullback gained 50 yard on three rushes during the drive and Shofner added 23 more on three carries.

Georgia Tech's Wade Mitchell converted after each South touchdown.

Mural Cage Play Picks Up Full Momentum

Intramural Basketball will get into full swing tomorrow with a greater number of teams participating this year than ever before.

There are 112 teams this year, comprising the dorm, fraternity blue and fraternity white divisions; compared to 98 teams last year. Also there will be two more divisions church and outlaw, that are not completely organized yet. The church division will consist of teams organized in the local churches. The intramural department announced that there are eight teams in this division. The outlaw division is made of anyone teams without a sponsor. Eight teams will be in this division. Anyone is eligible to play in this league from Sammy Ranzino on down. These two divisions will not be permitted to enter the all-campus playoffs.

The dorm and fraternity divisions are divided into leagues; eight in the dorm, six in the fraternity white and five in the fraternity blue. Each league will play a round robin tournament to determine the best in the league. The league champions will play a single elimination tournament for the division championship. Finally, the division champions will play for the All-Campus title.

The finals will be played near the last of February. No games will be played during the two weeks of exams.

The North drew first blood in the opening quarter on sharp passing of Len Dawson, Purdue's great quarterback. The score came on a 14-yard pass to Terry Barr of Michigan. Milt Plum of Penn State converted.

Bosseler, who was named outstanding player, scored the final Rebel touchdown with eight seconds remaining in the game, ramming over from the seven. The drive came after Mitchell intercepted a Dawson pass at midfield.

Bosseler's other fourth period tie-breaking touchdown was on a smash from the one. This drive followed Georgia's Roy Wilkins' recovery of a fumble by John Bayuk of Colorado on the North 20.

The big Miami fullback netted 100 yards on 27 carries. The game drew an estimated 30,000.

When The Icy Winds Blow And The Old Room Seems Dreary, Come Join Your Friends In

The Intimate Bookshop
205 E. Franklin St.
Open Till 10 P.M.

Mural Info

The Intramural Department announced yesterday that there will be a meeting of intramural managers Monday night at 7:30 in room 301-A of Woollen Gym.

Table tennis entries will be due at this meeting. The table tennis teams will consist of two singles and one doubles team.

The final organization for the church and outlaw basketball leagues will be Tuesday night at 7:30 in room 301-A of Woollen Gym.

The handball courts will be open Tuesday and Thursday nights of this week for the handball tournament.

There Is A Place In This Picture For You!

OPPORTUNITIES

for Students with Bachelor Degrees in

- ★ CHEMICAL ENGINEERING
- ★ CHEMISTRY
- ★ MECHANICAL ENGINEERING

This is a chance to get a head start in your professional career with General Chemical Division, Allied Chemical & Dye Corporation. Company representatives will be on the campus for interviews.

Contact Placement Office Today for an Interview, Appointment and Descriptive Literature

GENERAL CHEMICAL DIVISION
ALLIED CHEMICAL & DYE CORPORATION
40 Baxter Street, New York 4, N. Y.

Do You Graduate This Year?

A Bell System Interview May Be The Key to Your Future...

Majors in engineering, accounting, physical sciences, business administration, social sciences and liberal arts have a definite place in the Bell Telephone System.

Administrative development is part of your training.

Technical management, accounting, public relations, personnel, research, manufacturing, construction, design and development all are important phases of the telephone industry.

See your placement officer today for complete details. Or visit with the Bell System representative who will be happy to discuss your future with one of the world's great organizations.

BELL SYSTEM REPRESENTATIVES WILL BE ON THE CAMPUS

2:00 P.M. January 7 for Group Meeting
January 7, 8, & 9 for Individual Interviews

SEE YOUR PLACEMENT OFFICER FOR AN INTERVIEW

- Southern Bell Telephone and Telegraph Co.
- American Telephone and Telegraph Co., Long Lines Department
- Western Electric Company
- Bell Telephone Laboratories
- Sandia Corporation