

Graham Memorial Has Information On Tours

People who are interested in tours abroad and desire some information here on the campus should contact Jackie Aldridge, at the Student Government Office in Graham Memorial, it was announced yesterday.

Miss Aldridge has information on scholarships for study abroad and commercial tours of Europe. At present there is information on a tour conducted by Mary Branham, Fort Sumner, New Mexico, lasting 56 days and costing $987. The Catholic Digest is sponsoring a study-travel tour, lasting 46 days and costing $1348. A travel and optional study (for 3 semester hours) tour is being sponsored by Miami University and will last 57 days and cost $1295. Covering 71 days, the Volkswagen Student Tour will cost $1389. There is also some information on trips organized by General Tours.

Stanley Shaw, who can be lo-ated at the National Student Association Office in the basement of Graham Memorial, has data pertaining to N.S.A. tours.

Hoover Claims Inflation Now May Not Last

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Former President Hoover said Monday that the current inflation shows signs of a depression "agony" like that which beset his own administration.

In an appeal for governmental reform and economy, delivered at the third national reorganization conference, Hoover repeated Secretary of the Treasury Humphrey's recent forecast that big federal budgets, if long continued, will produce "a depression that will curl your hair."

"Mine has already been curled once—and I think I can detect the signs," the 83-year-old Hoover said in a speech prepared for 500 conferees here and a nationwide radio audience.

MISS ANNE HOLDFORD:

North Carolina Educator To Teach Elementary Ed Here

Anne Holdford, well known North Carolina educator, will teach classes and lecture in elementary education in the University School of Education during the Spring Semester, it was announced today by Dean Arnold Perry.

Miss Holdford received her bachelor's degree from George Peabody College, her master's degree from Columbia University, and did two years of work beyond the master's degree at Columbia University. While a student she was awarded a General Education Board fellowship and later the Frank Ross Chambers Fellowship at Columbia University.

Her professional experience includes teaching in the elementary and secondary schools of North Carolina and twelve years as supervisor of the Wake County, North Carolina, public schools. From 1935 to 1941 Miss Holdford was supervisor of schools in Delmar, New York, and left there to become supervisor of schools with the State Dept. of Public Instruction in Albany, New York. For the past two years she has been supervisor of schools in the Tarboro City and Edgecombe County schools.

Miss Holdford has been a college teacher in several institutions including Adelphi College for the last five years. She has been visiting instructor during the summer terms at the University of Florida, Alabama Woman's College at Montevallo, Alabama, Duke University, and North Carolina State College.

She belongs to several professional societies including Delta Kappa Gamma and Kappa Delta Pi. For many years she has been in the revolt. By some estimates, 32,000 Hungarians and Russians have been killed. The revolt was crushed by Soviet tanks three months ago.

Pineau Warns UN

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—(AP)—Foreign Minister Christian Pineau warned Monday France would ignore any recommendations the U. N. might make on turbulent Algeria.

In a 20,000-word speech to the U. N. political committee, Pineau stressed anew that France regards Algeria as a purely internal matter. He blamed Egypt, the Soviet Union, and international communism for terrorism in the North African possession.

Delegates Look

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y.—(AP)—Worried by Israel's firm refusal to get out of Egypt without guarantees, U. N. delegates looked to the United States Monday to take the lead in a new assembly debate, perhaps Thursday, on the deteriorating Middle East crisis.

The view was expressed by several delegates in private talks that it was up to the United States to bring pressure on Israel to obtain compliance with six U. N. resolutions requesting withdrawal. The U. S. delegation was silent on these expressions but was engaged in extensive consultations with delegations from various parts of the globe.

Civil Rights Urged

WASHINGTON —(AP)—Atty. Gen. Brownell declared Monday there would be no federal encroachment on states' authority in the administration's civil rights program. He urged passage of the legislation to "affirm the Congress' determination to secure equal justice under law for all of our citizens."
