Special To The Daily Tar Heel

RALEIGH-North Carolina's tall, terrific Tar Heels made a shambles of the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament finals here last night as they roared to a 95-75 victory over the snowed under South Carolina Gamecocks.

12,400 delighted fans sat in Reynolds Coliseum and watched Coach Frank McGuire's classy club dispose of their 27th consecutive victim by the most one-sided margin in the history of the tournament finals.

The win gave Carolina their first ACC title since the formation of the conference. But just as prized was the automatic bid to an NCAA playoff spot. The Tar Heels will meet the Ivy League champions, Yale, Tuesday night in New York City in the middle game of a tripleheader.

It's Yale that UNC meets in the that the Tar Heels will make it.

Last night's triumph, achieved with almost ridiculous ease, was strictly an anti-climax after the Tar Heels' two-point verdict over Big Four rival Wake Forest in the semi-final round. UNC breezed by Clemson in the opening round, while South Carolina, the Cinderella team of the tournament, conquered Duke and Maryland to move into the finals
