Dr. Newman To Speak To BSU Sunday

What can man believe about the Bible?

This question will be answered this Sunday at 6 p.m. by Dr. Stewart S. Newman, who will address the Baptist Student Union on this topic in the Chapel Hill Baptist Church. Dr. Newman is associate professor of religious philosophy at Southeast Seminary of Wake Forest.

This address is one of a series of talks given each Sunday night under the auspices of the group's Supper-Forum.

Other subjects to be discussed at the meetings will include "What Can Man Believe About the Church?" by Dr. James A. Tull and "What Can Man Believe About the Cross?" by Dr. Ben Lyons. The series will be concluded on April 7 with an address by Dr. Samuel T. Habel entitled "What Can Man Believe About the Life To Come?"

Supper-Forum Committee Chairman Nola Hatten has invited all interested students to join in this Sunday night program.

Dean Will Be Participant In Convention

Dr. Katherine Kennedy Carmichael, Dean of Women, will be a participant in the annual convention of the National Association of Women Deans and Counselors.

The convention will be held in San Francisco March 28 through April 1.

The main speakers for the convention will be H. Donald Winbigler, Dean of Students at Stanford University and Dr. John L. Bergstresser, Dean of Students at Chico State College in Chico, California.

Dr. Carmichael will lead a discussion on "Programs for the Gifted College Students," at a Friday, March 29, luncheon. The following Sunday, Carmichael will be one of several hostesses who will hold discussion groups for the purpose of acquainting new members with the people who have served the organization for a number of years.

CADET CALLENDER AND COL. SMITH ... congratulations on award.

Kenneth H. Callender Wins Speaking Contest

Cadet 1st Sergeant Kenneth H. Callender, winner of the annual Republican Aviation Corporation speaking contest, received the first-place prize of a silver bracelet and an accompanying certificate March 4.

All contestants were required to speak on some facet of air power, but were allowed to present their speeches in any way they wished. Cadet Callender's topic was: "What Air Power Really Means."

The contest, held at Detachment 590 of the Carolina AFROT, during an Arnold Air Society meeting, is sponsored by the Republic Aviation Corporation. Its purpose is to provide Air Science juniors with a broader knowledge of Air Power concepts, and to encourage these cadets to obtain experience in research, preparation and delivery of speeches.

The judges at the contest were: Col. George Smith, Lt. Col. Franklin Swann and Maj. Thomas Gilchrist.

Major George Lynn, speech teacher and assistant professor of Air Science, said that the other participants, cadets Ralph P. Hunt, Jerry J. Smith and Thomas G. Farrell, will receive merits for the keen competition they offered and for the interest they showed in the contest.
