

Blue-White Contest This Afternoon Ends Spring Grid Drills Here

Queen To Be Crowned At Half; Coaches Of Year To Be Named

By BILL KING

Although football season is a long time off, there'll be football in the air in Kenan Stadium this afternoon as the Carolina football teams climaxes spring football practice in the Monogram Club's annual Blue-White game at 2 o'clock.

Under the watchful eye of Coach Jim Tatum, the Tar Heel squad will be divided into equal teams and the Tar Heel mentor and student body will get a preview of things to come in what, according to Tatum, promises to be a good battle with lots of competition. Last year the game ended 34-33 in favor of the Whites.

Tatum stated earlier in the week that he was a bit displeased with the ways things have been going during spring practice. He listed bad weather and injuries as the chief handicaps and added that, "it's rather hard to get a squad shaped up in 20 days."

The Tar Heels started practice Feb. 11, and have been working out regularly on Navy Field. Tatum had a few words of praise for the work of the freshman line during the off-season drills and made the remark that several of the frosh will be pushing for a starting berth.

In the backfield, a sore spot with the Tatum charges last season, about the only certainty is that the one-two quarterback combination of last season, Dace Reed and Curt Hathaway will be the top men at the signal-calling slot again in '57. Tatum lists right halfback and fullback as his weakest positions, and both appear to be wide open.

"The fans may not see a professional display this afternoon," Tatum remarked, "but they'll see a good competitive battle. The boys have been working hard in practice and I'm real happy about their attitude. I think everybody will be playing their best this afternoon," he concluded.

Tickets for the intra-squad contest are going for fifty-cents for students and one dollar for others. Proceeds will go to the Monogram Club.

Beatty Will Run Tonight In Chicago

Carolina's great All-American Jim Beatty, and the now-native Chapel Hillian Laszlo Tabari will be shooting for national honors tonight in the Chicago Daily News Relays.

Beatty, the best runner in Carolina history will be out to avenge a recent defeat to 34-year-old Horace Ashenfelter in the two-mile event. Neither Beatty nor Ashenfelter will be favored in the event but both should be strong competitors. The favorite role goes to Southern California ace Max Tret.

Tabari, the Hungarian refugee, will be out to make sportswriters "eat their words." Tabari was severely criticized because he did not compete in the Milwaukee Journal Games last Saturday, despite the fact that he was suffering a leg injury. The Hungarian will probably find his chief nemesis Ron Delaney waiting to make things unpleasant for him in the one-mile event.

Softball Clinic To Be Held
The intramural department has announced that a softball clinic will be held Monday and Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Anyone interested in softball officiating is urged to come to room 301 Woolen. Play begins March 25th.

Halftime entertainment will be provided by the crowning of the Blue-White Queen, who will be chosen from a group of twelve Carolina coeds, and the Monogram Club's choice of Carolina's top two coaches of the year. The winners this year are Frank McGuire and Sam Barnes.

The probable starting lineups:

BLUE	Pos	WHITE
Payne	LE	Turlington
Russavage	LT	McDade
Stallings	LG	Woodbridge
Swearingen	C	Nead
Pell	RG	Lineberger
Blazer	RT	Redding
Jones	RE	Goldstein
Reed	QB	Hathaway
DeCantis	LHB	Schuler
Drozze	RHB	Goff
Johnson	FB	Shupin

3 Swim Marks Fall In Special Trials

Three new swimming records were set in special time trials yesterday afternoon in Bowman Gray pool, and a number of others narrowly missed by the charges of Willis Casey of State and Ralph Casey of Carolina.

Dave McIntyre of the Wolfpack, current holder of the conference 100 yard freestyle record, swam the 110 yard freestyle in 56.5, breaking by one second the previous standard of 57.5 by Keith Carter of Purdue in 1953.

Paul Wachendorfer, star of this year's Carolina frosh, flashed 200 yards butterfly in 2:15.2, shattering by almost seven full seconds his pool record of 2:22.1, set earlier this year. In addition, he unofficially bettered the existing national Collegiate Freshman time by 2:16.4, held by Brawner of Princeton.

Net Coach Has Big Job

Spring has come to Carolina and with it comes the task of shaping a tennis team. John Kenfield who has coached tennis at Carolina for 30 years retired last season after coaching (as he always did) a very successful 18-1 season. His duties have been turned over to Ham Strayhorn.

Coach Strayhorn said yesterday, "We have our job cut out for us. There is only one letterman returning from last year's squad. Four of the eight man squad graduated and the other three are ineligible because of scholastic difficulties. It will take a lot of work from everyone to shape up a good squad."

Letterman Steven Banke will be leading the way this season for the Tar Heels along with a promising sophomore, Jeff Black. Other top performers who are expected to be a big help are Frank Livingston, Bobby Jacobus, Ray Newcome, J. B. Walker, Caine Smith, Tom Melver, and Fritz Van Winkle.

The freshman season does not look quite as dark. Marshal Happer, state junior boys champion, and Ben Keys, S. C. state junior boys champion and rated second in the South, are top frosh prospects along with Walker Lockett, Jack Macy and David Myers are expected to make up the strongest freshman squad in four years.

Program Sellers Meet
Monogram Club Chairman Charles Boyette announced yesterday that all Monogram members who are going to sell programs for the Blue-White game this afternoon must meet in the Monogram Club room today at 12:30. According to Boyette, the dress for the program-sellers will be ties or sweaters.

3 Swim Marks Fall In Special Trials

The final record breaker of the specially sanctioned trials was Dick Faden of State, who stroked his way to a new American record of 1:14.2 by McGuire of the 3rd Army in 1954. Charlie Kreppj, All-American backstroke, missed in his bid for new American and World records in the 200 meter, 300 yard, and 220 yard backstroke trial. Other narrow misses were recorded by Faden in the 220 and 200 meter breaststroke. Bill Roth in an attempt on his pool 50 yard freestyle record, and Frank Nauss of State in the 500 yard freestyle.

Mantle Blasts; But Yanks Lose

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 15 (AP)—Mickey Mantle unloaded a 425-foot homer in a losing cause today as the New York Yankees lost to the St. Louis Cards, 7-4. Mantle's blast soared over the scoreboard in left center. He was batting lefthanded against rookie righthander Tom Cheney.

The triple crown winner's first spring home run came in with a runner aboard and put the Bombers ahead 4-1 in the fifth inning. But Tom Byrne, veteran southpaw, was hammered for five runs as 10 Cards went to bat in the sixth.

Toothpick Sam Jones started for St. Louis. He gave up five hits in the first two innings, the Yankees scoring twice in the second frame. Johnny Kucks pitched the first five innings for the Yankees and was touched for eight hits, three of them by rookie shortstop Eddie Kasko.

The Plussage of Old Books

A part of the charm of collecting old books is the extra bits they accumulate through the years—marginal notes, presentation inscriptions, sparks of persistent humanity in faded ink. We've had books on our shelves whose whole history of ownership could be traced in a series of faded inscriptions going back to the 1820's.

A book of poetry we bought in not long ago was inscribed to "Grace, from one who will love her forever". As we held the book in our hand, it seemed to us that for a moment the charming Grace did triumph over the universal dust. Just at the moment, we have on our shelves the very copy of Help-er's "The Impending Crisis" which his nephew "took from my fathers shelf" to give to a friend. Come in for a lazy half hour in our old book section when you have time. We think you, too, will find delight in the small extra treasures of the old book world!
