

The Daily Tar Heel

WEATHER

Fair and mild, with an expected high in the 60's.

PLANKS

As usual, they're made out of green pine. See editorial, page 2.

VOL. LVII NO. 118

Complete (AP) Wire Service

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 20, 1957

Offices in Graham Memorial

FOUR PAGES THIS ISSUE

Israel Threatens War; Russia May Use Atom

JERUSALEM, — The open threat of a new war emerged today from Israel's dismay at Gaza Strip and Aqaba Gulf developments since she turned over those battle-worn territories to the United Nations.

Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion said Israel's army will march against Egypt again if President Nasser "tries to block our historic and legal passage into the Gulf of Aqaba."

"It would be a black day on the moral conscience of the world if we had to move our army to defend our rights," said the 70-year-old Israeli leader. "We will do it only as a last resort. But if forced, we will do it and do it effectively."

Ben-Gurion implied he hoped for backing from President Eisenhower — "an honorable man, a friend and a general of armies" — on the basis of a letter Eisenhower dispatched to him during Israel's early March crisis over the final pullout orders. Israelis have generally regarded that letter as a pledge.

If there is no forthright action by the United Nations, Ben-Gurion said, the Eisenhower Doctrine "could certainly be used to halt such a little man as Nasser."

WASHINGTON, — Israel's Ambassador Abba Eban called at the State Department today, evidently to press Israel's demands for a tougher United States policy toward Egypt. "It's a natural assumption that we didn't talk only about principles," he said afterwards.

Eban described it as a follow-up to yesterday's meeting of Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir with Secretary of State Dulles and her conference at the United Nations with Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

Eban declared that whether Israel fights Egypt, as Israeli officials say it will do in self defense, depends "not only on what we discuss here but on the situation on the scene." Eban said he had not yet heard about the six-point proposal on future operation of the Suez Canal. It was received by American officials and their initial reaction was that it falls short of being satisfactory.

Atom Bomb Would Be Dropped On U. S.

LONDON, — Soviet Defense Minister Georgi Zhukov says the U.S.S.R. would use atom and hydrogen bombs as its "main striking force" in the event of war with the United States.

Moscow Radio quoted him today as telling a Soviet army conference that if such a conflict broke out the United States would not "be able, as formerly, to sit it out over the ocean and avoid destructive and deadly blows."

The broadcast said the conference took place last Friday in Moscow.

Zhukov declared that any future war "will involve not only the theater of operations, but will stretch out deep into the rear of the belligerents."

UNC To Ask For Salary Hike

RALEIGH — (AP) — The Consolidated University of North Carolina was expected to follow the lead of the State Board of Education and ask the Joint Appropriations committee today for increased appropriations for faculty salaries.

President William C. Friday of the Consolidated University also was expected to request additional funds for the libraries of the consolidated University.

Malin Will Speak Here On 'Liberty' March 26

"Liberty—Unfinished Business" will be Patrick Murphy Malin's topic when he speaks before the Carolina Forum March 26. The Forum will meet at 8 p.m. in Carroll Hall.

A reception will be held in the Main Lounge of Graham Memorial immediately following the speech.

Malin, Executive Director of the American Civil Liberties Union, has spent a month traveling through the South studying civil liberties.

In the spring of 1954 Malin spent two months in England and Scotland, lecturing on American civil liberties to business, labor, educational and professional groups. He lectured chiefly under the auspices of Ruskin College (Oxford), the English-Speaking Union, and the Royal Institute of International Affairs (Chatham House).

Malin was born in Joplin, Mo., in 1903, where he attend public schools. He obtained his college education at the University of Pennsylvania receiving a B. S. degree in economics in 1924.

Last Day For Freshman Handbook Applications

Today is the last day for applications for freshman handbook positions, according to YMCA President Gerry Mayo.

Mayo said there were openings on the handbook in several areas including sports, extracurriculars, student government, and photography.

He encouraged all students interested to apply at the YMCA for the positions. "We're trying to make the deadline April 15, Mayo said, "and the staff needs to be organized within the next two or three days."

Candidates Talk To IDC Thursday Night

The IDC will meet tomorrow night at 7 p.m. in the Phi Assembly Hall, according to Sonny Hallford, president of IDC.

Student Body candidates for president and vice president from both political parties will speak before the body.

Representing the Student Party will be Sonny Evans, presidential nominee, and Don Furtado, vice presidential nominee.

Bill Baum, presidential nominee, and Benny Thomas, vice presidential nominee, will represent the University Party.

Daily Tar Heel editorship candidates Neil Bass, Frank Crowther and Charlie Sloan will be guest speakers.

Hallford stated that he would like to encourage all IDC members to be in attendance at this meeting, the last one before elections.

Best-Dressed College Girls Sought Here

By PEG HUMPHREY

A nation wide search is being conducted to find the "Ten Best Dressed College Girls in America."

Sponsored by a national magazine, the ten winners will be photographed for the August issue and will receive a "Best Dressed" award.

Carolina has been asked to participate in this search, and all dormitories, sororities, and fraternities have an opportunity to submit their candidates.

The national winners will be selected on the basis of neatness, original and imaginative accessorizing, appropriateness of dress, distinctiveness, and good fashion sense as evidenced from photographs which will be submitted.

Carolina's representative will be chosen from among the candidates submitted by campus groups by a board of student judges. Those groups entering representatives may submit three pictures of her (in a semi-formal or formal gown, town outfit, and campus outfit) as late as 8 p.m. Thursday to Peg Humphrey at the Kappa Delta House.

Judges of the search will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Woodhouse Room of Graham Memorial.

UP Selects Dorm Nominees; Party Headquarters Named

The UP continued rounding out its full slate of candidates last night by selecting nominees for Dorm Men's IV and V.

In acclamatory votes Bob Edwards, Fick Arthur, and Ash Exum were nominated, filling four one year candidate seats in Dorm Men's IV. Eddie Bass and Bryan Latham were nominated by acclamation for Dorm Men's V.

A vacancy in the legislature was also filled when Charles Huntington was named to fill an unexpired seat in Dorm Men's I.

UP Chairman Mike Weinman announced to the members that the central party campaign headquarters would be located in the Yackety Yack office in the basement of GM. He also asked for volunteer ballot counters and party helpers in directing candidates campaigns.

The party gathering was exhortated by student body President candidate Bill Baum to "settle all our differences."

"I'm proud of the way the campaign is being run," he said. "And I'm proud of the way you're working. But none of us will win by ourselves."

Baum said: "A UP that is united behind its candidates can win this election."

Emphasis On Parking Situation Marks Student Party Platform

By GRAHAM SNYDER

An emphasis on the alleviation of the campus parking situation marked the Student Party platform released Tuesday night.

In the platform around which its slate of party candidates will campaign in the April 2 elections, three planks deal with student parking violations, removal of parking restrictions, and a proposal that university officials and personnel pay parking fees to finance payment for parking lots.

The full platform pledges: (1) Separation of the investigation and prosecution powers from the judgment powers in the Judiciary Branch.

(2) Establishment of an arm of Student Government to aid Student Affairs office in the processing of campus parking violations to insure more equal treatment of student violators.

(3) Support on SP proposal to remove parking restrictions at

Hallford Asks For Vote Of Confidence For SP

A vote of confidence for the outstanding legislative work of the Student Party was called for by Student Party Chairman Sonny Hallford yesterday.

He pointed out that 32 bills and resolutions have been introduced in the current session of the Student Legislature. Out of these, the SP sponsored 22. Seven of the remaining ten were co-sponsored by the SP and UP, he said.

"The SP legislators had only one bill fail to pass, one bill held in committee and one resolution tabled," he added.

"This is indeed a record to be proud of. We of the SP feel that our SP legislators have proven themselves by taking the necessary initiative in introducing legislation that has benefited a vast majority of the campus."

"We hope that the campus will allow them to continue taking action for the benefit of all the campus."

"I feel that if the students weigh the SP's record in their minds they will vote for a continuance of this party in office."

"I encourage each of you to vote SP."

Price Cut On Caravan Trip To Kansas City

If anyone wants to go to Kansas City to see the NCAA Basketball Championships, there is still time to make arrangements to travel on a chartered bus.

Student Body President Bob Young announced that all persons wishing to go in a group on a bus can still pay for the round-trip by going to the information desk on the main floor of Graham Memorial before noon (12) today.

Costs for the trip have been cut to $43.12 for a round-trip ticket. This is a drop of some $8 from the first figure stated.

The bus or buses will leave from the campus, in the Morehead Planetarium parking lot, Thursday at 12:00 noon. It will return to Chapel Hill, leaving Kansas City at midnight Saturday and arriving in Chapel Hill by 7 a.m. Monday morning.

"Students will miss only two full days of classes, Friday and Saturday," stated Young.

Chancellor Robert B. House has commented on the caravan to Kansas City with the following statement, "I strongly urge all students who are in proper academic standing and who have the desire, to make the trip to Kansas City and help to push our Tar Heel basketball team over the top."

"Since 200 students at the most, could make the trip, I would suggest that all students who wish to make the trip check with their respective deans and make the necessary arrangements," stated the chancellor.

In connection with the story yesterday in the Daily Tar Heel about the probability of chartering a plane to Kansas, Jim Exum said today that the trip was called off, due to lack of student response.

UP Selects Dorm Nominees; Party Headquarters Named

The UP continued rounding out its full slate of candidates last night by selecting nominees for Dorm Men's IV and V.

In acclamatory votes Bob Edwards, Fick Arthur, and Ash Exum were nominated, filling four one year candidate seats in Dorm Men's IV. Eddie Bass and Bryan Latham were nominated by acclamation for Dorm Men's V.

A vacancy in the legislature was also filled when Charles Huntington was named to fill an unexpired seat in Dorm Men's I.

UP Chairman Mike Weinman announced to the members that the central party campaign headquarters would be located in the Yackety Yack office in the basement of GM. He also asked for volunteer ballot counters and party helpers in directing candidates campaigns.

The party gathering was exhortated by student body President candidate Bill Baum to "settle all our differences."

"I'm proud of the way the campaign is being run," he said. "And I'm proud of the way you're working. But none of us will win by ourselves."

Baum said: "A UP that is united behind its candidates can win this election."

'Hard Working' Will Solve Problems, Says Crowther

Symposium Scheduled For Thursday At 4

The second meeting of students interested in the Carolina Symposium on Public Affairs will be held tomorrow at 4 p.m. in the Wilson Library Assembly Room.

Students who wish to aid in planning this event have been invited to the meeting.

At the first meeting of the group Thursday 20 students and several faculty members met in an introductory session and heard Stan Shaw speak on the impact which the 1956 Symposium Week had upon the campus, state and nation.

Also heard was Dr. Fred Cleveland, faculty advisor for last year's undertaking, told about the operational aspects of the 1956 Symposium. He emphasized the months of planning and preparation required for such a program, the esprit de corps which existed among the committee of students and faculty members, and especially the better student-faculty relationships which this sort of joint activity promotes.

The Symposium was instituted to be held biennially. An Interim Committee, headed by Jim Exum, was established to "bridge the gap" between the 1956 Symposium and the one now being planned in order to carry out the program next year. The Interim Committee will aid the group in starting and will elect a new chairman, but has planned to withdraw from any official position so that the new committee might proceed on its own.

Tar Heel Editorship Should Advance Academic Position

Mud-slinging, growling and grumbling will not solve the many complex problems facing the students and faculty of UNC, according to Frank Crowther, independent candidate for editor of The Daily Tar Heel.

In a statement issued to The Daily Tar Heel yesterday, Crowther expressed the view that these difficulties will be surmounted chiefly by hard work.

He pointed out that the problems will not solve themselves and that the possibility of "George's doing it" is a remote one.

He said that he believes we will have to solve the difficulties under our own steam.

Observing that UNC is regarded by some as something of "a great cultural center," he said that The Daily Tar Heel should strive to advance this academic position.

He remarked that the students must elect an editor of The Daily Tar Heel who is sincere and honest in his desire to improve the

Forms Ready For Women's Counselors

Application forms for positions as Women's Orientation counselors can be obtained today from dormitory and sorority house presidents, according to Pat Dillon, chairman of the Women's Orientation Counselor Training program.

Completed forms are to be returned to house presidents by Wednesday, March 27, Miss Dillon said.

Applications will be studied by an Orientation Selection Board and counselors will be selected to serve in the Fall 1957 orientation program.

Women planning to attend summer sessions have been urged to assist with the summer school orientation program. They have been asked to indicate their desire as summer school counselors on their applications for the fall.

In a statement yesterday, Miss Dillon said:

"We hope to have a better trained and more enthusiastic staff of counselors than ever before. There will be a larger and more extensive counselor training program."

"The functioning and success of the entire orientation week rests, in final analysis, upon the capability and responsible guidance of the orientation counselors."

"These qualities are individual matters, however; the counselor must begin by being adequately informed on all facets of Carolina life. It is my plan to assure that the counselor training program will supply this wide range of information."

UNC-Michigan On TV

WTVD in Durham will televise the Carolina-Michigan State game Friday at 8:30 p.m. EST.

The game for Saturday will also be televised. The time is 10 p.m. if UNC wins and 8 p.m. if UNC loses.

Tar Heel Editorship Should Advance Academic Position

Mud-slinging, growling and grumbling will not solve the many complex problems facing the students and faculty of UNC, according to Frank Crowther, independent candidate for editor of The Daily Tar Heel.

In a statement issued to The Daily Tar Heel yesterday, Crowther expressed the view that these difficulties will be surmounted chiefly by hard work.

He pointed out that the problems will not solve themselves and that the possibility of "George's doing it" is a remote one.

He said that he believes we will have to solve the difficulties under our own steam.

Observing that UNC is regarded by some as something of "a great cultural center," he said that The Daily Tar Heel should strive to advance this academic position.

He remarked that the students must elect an editor of The Daily Tar Heel who is sincere and honest in his desire to improve the

Two-Hour Ban Now In Effect On Columbia St.

Two hour parking is once again in effect on S. Columbia St.

The 60 days the Chapel Hill Board of Aldermen gave students to park on S. Columbia lapsed Friday, but the parking ordinance was not put back into effect until Monday morning "to give students a break," said a town official.

The ordinance came last September as a result of crowded parking conditions downtown, and was pushed by the Merchants Assn. It was lifted for 60 days, at the request of Student Government officials, to give the students time to find a solution to the parking situation and to get their cars off the streets.

"We expected to have students at the March 11 Aldermen meeting, asking for an extension of the lift, but none showed up," said a town official.

"They asked for 60 days, and the 60 days are up."

Parking on S. Columbia St. is now limited to two hours a day, excepting Sundays and holidays.

University Club Plans Affair For Early April

Would you make a convincing, cruel villain? If so, or if you are a good tap dancer or skilled Charleston hopper, the University Club has plans for you.

Frank Inman, president of the University Club, said yesterday that the club is currently planning a campus-wide affair called "Spectacular 1890" for early April.

This event will consist first of a melodramatic play similar to a play called "The Drunkard" which has been a successful 1890 play for many years.

The exact date for tryouts has not been set as yet, but will probably begin during the first week of April.

Besides the play there will be various variety shows and skits with primarily an 1890 theme or background.

"We expect to see a lot of students participating in this event," Inman said. "The directing and casting will be good and we hope a light-hearted, gay time will be had by everyone."

"The University Club is hoping it will be able to obtain use of the Forest Theatre for the event. A definite date will be announced later," Inman said.

Cummings Says Nominations To Be In Friday

Nominations for positions to be filled in the coming election must be turned in to either the Student Government office or Ray Jefferies by Friday, it was announced yesterday.

Ralph Cummings, Elections Board chairman, said that while nominations may be turned in to either office, it was preferred that they be turned in to Dean of Students Ray Jefferies.

Cummings said that petitions submitted must have 25 signatures in addition to the nominee's.

Also on the program for the night is the UNC basketball game. There will be a TV set at the armory for those who might care to see a little of the ball game during the dance.