

Glee Club Gives Concert At Durham High School

The UNC Men's Glee Club, recently returned from its annual spring tour, presented a concert at Durham High School in Durham Tuesday morning.

A spokesman for the Glee Club said yesterday that the concert was given before "around 1,000 enthusiastic and appreciative students."

Directed by Dr. Joel Carter, the club rendered most of the numbers sung on the spring tour. Segments of a cantata, "Testament of Freedom," by Randall Thompson, "Integer Vitae," several folk and secular numbers, a Russian liturgy, "To Thee Wee Sing," and special numbers were included on the program.

A small choral group led by student director James Chamblee offered two comical selections. Hoke Simpson, the club's guest artist for the recent tour, sang three calypso numbers backed by a quartet, and "The Flatters," a barbershop quartet selected from the Glee Club, rendered two numbers.

Accompanist for the concert was Hunter Tillman.

Limon Dance Company Will Appear Thursday

Jose Limon and his Dance Company will bring "Theatre in the Dance" to the UNC campus Thursday.

Sponsored by the Student Entertainment Committee, the dance program will be presented in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m.

Jose Limon, who has been called by dance critics "certainly the finest male dancer of his time," is a leading exponent of the modern dance movement. He has included in his company a group of dancers who specialize not only in the dance but also in the acting field.

The Dance Company, made up entirely of featured soloists, includes in addition to Limon, guest artist Pauline Koner, former Jooss Ballet star Lucas Hoving, Betty Jones, Ruth Currier, Lavina Nielsen, and concert pianist Simon Sadoff, musical director of the company. Artistic direction will be in the hands of choreographer Doris Humphrey.

Limon's company has a long record of honors and worldwide appearances. It has been chosen by the State Dept., through the Agency of the American National Theater and Academy, to be sent as cultural emissaries to South America in 1954.

The Company is featured on major artistic series annually, New York seasons with the Juilliard Orchestra, soloists with leading symphony orchestras, television appearances and coast-to-coast tours.

Students will be admitted free to the Limon program upon presentation of ID cards. A $1 admission fee will be charged to student wives, with a $2 admission to others.

EXCHANGE

(Continued from Page 1)

many in time for a refresher course in German during September and October before the first of November. The summer semester ends around the first of August so that it would be possible to return to Carolina for the fall semester the following year.

The scholarship provides transportation to and from Germany and the Goettingen student body provides room, board, and incidental expenses. The recipient of the scholarship must provide the expenses for any travel which he might undertake during the school vacations, said the announcement.

Credits for courses taken must be worked out with the individual involved, the announcement said.

CLASSIFIEDS

FIVE ROOM BRICK HOUSE IN center of town — has hobby workshop. Call 9458.

Training Cruise Will Be Taken This Summer

One hundred and twelve UNC midshipmen will take a summer training cruise with 5,835 academy and NROTC Midshipment, according to Capt. A. M. Patterson, USN, professor of naval science.

Sixty seven regular juniors and freshmen will take part in the first cruise, Alfa, which will arrive at the Naval Academy on June 7th to participate in the June-week graduation activities. The practice squadron will then go to Norfolk, said Patterson.

The ships will remain in Norfolk where they will participate in the International Naval Review in connection with the Jamestown Festival, commemorating its 350th year of existence. The cruise will depart June 18th for the first ports of call, Rio De Janeiro and then Santos, Brazil, he said.

The midshipmen will tour the Caribbean landing at Trinidad, St. Thomas, San Juan, Puerto Rico and Guantanamo Bay, Cuba. The squadron will return to Annapolis August 5th, Patterson said.

THIRTY FIVE

Thirty five contract juniors in the company of 1120 other midships will leave from Norfolk on cruise Charlie July 7. The squadron will cruise to Quebec and visit there for six days. Then they will visit Boston from the 26th to the 30th of July. The cruise will end August 7th when the ships return to Norfolk, he said.

The navy has also scheduled cruise Bravo, which will leave Norfolk June 10th, go through the Panama Canal to Valparaiso, Chile, and then cruise in the Caribbean area. No Carolina students are expected to be on this cruise, Patterson said.

A Navy department release said the cruises "are designed to give midshipmen an opportunity to learn first hand the jobs they are training for in their future careers as naval officers."

Concert, Dance To Feature CU Day Tomorrow At WC

Women's College of the University of North Carolina will celebrate Consolidated University Day Saturday with an open house, a concert and an informal dance.

Men from Carolina and State College in Raleigh have been invited to attend open houses during the afternoon and a dance starting at 8:30 p.m.

The dance will be held in Eliot Hall, the student union building. Tickets will be 50 cents, according to an announcement.

The Consolidated University Student Council will meet in Eliot Hall on the Women's College campus at 2 p.m.

UNC, Duke, N.C. State Drill Teams To Compete

The first annual NC Drill Competition between drill teams from Duke, N. C. State and UNC will be held tomorrow at 3 p.m. on the intramural field beside Woolen Gymnasium.

Both straight and crack field drill movements will be executed, according to an announcement.

Bob Harrington, commander of the drill team here, said Wednesday awards in the form of trophies will be given in both divisions.

"There will be five minutes of straight drill and ten minutes of crack drill by each unit," Harrington stated.

Harrington said Brigadier Gen. F. Carlyle Shepard of the NC National Guard will be director of the event. He is the Military Affairs Co-ordinator for UNC.

The judges will be Maj. Lawrence C. Norton, USMC, asst. professor of naval science here at UNC; Maj. Clarence L. Morrison, USMC, Asst. Professor of naval science at Duke University and Lt. Colonel Basil I. Mishtow, USA, Asst. Professor of military science and tactics at N. C. State, Harrington said.

"This drill competition will be an annual event and will be held next year at Duke University," Harrington stated.

The competition this year is being sponsored by the Jesse J. Morehead chapter of the Arnold Air Society. This group is an advance AFROTC cadet honorary society.

Commander Harrington will lead the UNC Drill Team, Cadet Maj. Lary Royster will command the N. C. State team and Master Sgt. Henry Custer will lead the Duke team.

"The drill competition will be judged on the basis of showmanship, performance of various drill movements, and overall general appearance," Harrington concluded.

No admission will be charged for the event.

PHI ETA

(Continued from Page 1)

Roanoke, Va.; Edwin Levy, Jr., New Orleans, La.; Robert Glenn Lewis, Morehead City;

Denton Lotz, Northport, N.Y.; Malcolm Hector McLean, III, Lumberton; Clifton Darrell Mann, Newport; Theodore Carlton Moore, Jr., Chapel Hill; Robert Cutler Noble, Raleigh; James Ambrose Packard, Providence, Rhode Island;

James Lee Parker, Fairfield; Wilson Burton Partin, Jr., Scotland Neck; Hugh Lester Patterson, Edenton; Ashmead Pringle Pipkin, Reidsville; Herman-Joost Polak, Washington, D. C.; Richard Beverly Roney, Jr., Chapel Hill; Julius Rowan Raper, Oxford; Charles Green Reeder, Laurel, Miss.; Bryan Wilson Roberts, Hillsboro; Richard Hill Robinson, Jr., Greensboro; Norman Barrett Smith, Franklin; Edward Lee Smithwick, Jr., Morehead City;

Jack Holland Spain, Greenville, N. C.; David Henry Suckow, Bowmansville, N. Y.; Chester Windley Taylor, Jr., Castle Hayne; Anthony Garland Turner, Rocky Mount;

James Battey White, Pineville; James Lynch Williams, Asheville; Mark King Wilson, III, Chattanooga, Tenn.; Herber Wilkinson Windley, Jr., Washington, N. C.; Michael Lee Collins, High Point.

FORUM

(Continued from Page 1)

the conference each night at 8 p.m. in Memorial Hall.

Informal discussion groups will be held in the various fraternities and sororities on campus preceding these main addresses each night. Local faculty members will lead the discussions.

Following the program in Memorial Hall, group-centered discussions will take place at various spots around campus such as Graham Memorial, the Library Assembly Room, and Carroll Hall. These will also be led by outstanding faculty and administration personnel of the University.

Rev. Maurice Kidder of the local Episcopal Church will lead the two campus-wide worship services April 15 and 16 that are being featured as part of the Spring Forum. These will be at 1 p.m. in Gerrard Hall. All students have been invited to attend.

Powladge's Last

Today's Daily Tar Heel is the last for Editor Fred Powladge. Powladge, elected editor a year ago, today will turn over the management of the newspaper to Neil Bass, who was elected editor in Tuesday's campus election.

Congratulations . . . Jane Stainback
This Month's Winner Of The Title Of
MISS FASHIONPLATE

Next Month's Candidates

MISS SARAH VAN WEYK
A junior English major and member of Pi Beta Phi sorority, from Winnetka, Illinois.

MISS ELIZABETH THOMPSON
A junior education major and member of Delta Delta Delta sorority, from Rocky Mount.

MISS SUE MAYHUE
A junior sociology major and member of Chi Omega sorority, from Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

YOUR VOTE WILL BE APPRECIATED

Vote by ballot at J. B. ROBBINS

Nothing to buy — just come in and complete and cast your ballot for your favorite. Both male and female are eligible to vote. The winner receives a valuable gift from Robbins.

Note: This Is The Last Fashionplate Contest

Next month we will have a contest from amongst previous MISS FASHIONPLATE winners to decide on the 1956-57

FASHION QUEEN

The Winner Of This Contest Will Receive A Complete Ensemble From

VOTE

VOTE

OF CHAPEL HILL

NEED A HOME?

Plenty Of
V.A. and F.H.A.
Money Available
For Construction
Of LESCO HOMES
Dial 83446

COMING ALL NEXT WEEK
OUR SEVENTH ANNUAL

GOING-GOING-GONE SALE

A table piled high with used books — everything from texts to lively novels — offered at prices that get lower and lower until they vanish!

Monday April 8 Your Choice	Tuesday April 9 What's Left	Thursday April 11 What's Left	Saturday April 13th What's Left
29¢	19¢	9¢	FREE

You pick your bargain and you pick your price.
Bring along your wheelbarrow and have fun!

The Intimate Bookshop

205 E. Franklin St. Open Till 10 P.M.

DAILY CROSSWORD

ACROSS

- Bridge
- Tams
- Game, on horseback
- Ostrichlike bird (var.)
- Walked back and forth
- Flower
- Chest
- Sign as correct
- Strange
- Beetle
- Cheese
- Soft
- Man's nickname
- Harass
- Firearm
- Hewing tool
- Curved lines and shellwork
- Resort
- Questioning
- Sesame
- At home
- Game of cards
- Glossy fabric
- A beatified soul
- Small nail
- Skin disorder
- Epochs
- Wooden pins

DOWN

- Extra
- Pouches
- Malt beverage
- Greet casually
- "The dickens"
- Wine receptacle
- Singing voice
- A time piece
- Animal's foot
- Girl's name
- Not young
- Swerves
- Preposition
- Building block
- God of love
- Strong, woody fibers
- Atone
- Balking
- Metal container
- Place of worship
- Roman date
- Obtained
- Writing fluids
- River (S. A.)
- Weaken
- High card

Yesterday's Answer

1. 2. 3. 4. 5. 6. 7. 8. 9. 10. 11. 12. 13. 14. 15. 16. 17. 18. 19. 20. 21. 22. 23. 24. 25. 26. 27. 28. 29. 30. 31. 32. 33. 34. 35. 36. 37. 38. 39. 40. 41. 42. 43. 44. 45. 46. 47. 48. 49. 50. 51. 52. 53. 54. 55. 56. 57. 58. 59. 60. 61. 62. 63. 64. 65. 66. 67. 68. 69. 70. 71. 72. 73. 74. 75. 76. 77. 78. 79. 80. 81. 82. 83. 84. 85. 86. 87. 88. 89. 90. 91. 92. 93. 94. 95. 96. 97. 98. 99. 100.