

Special AAU Mile To Feature UNC-State Track Meet

Tabori Will Run Mile With Beatty, Scurlock

By DAVE WIBLE

The Carolina trackmen under the direction of Coach Dale Ranson will be out to get their second conference win in as many starts this afternoon when they meet the cinder squad of State College on Fetzer Field at 3 p.m.

The meet will be highlighted with a very special event. Tar Heels Jim Beatty and Dave Scurlock and former Hungarian star Laszlo Tabori will run an AAU-sanctioned mile. The event scheduled for 4:15 promises to be one of the top miles this section of the country has ever seen.

Jim Beatty, an All-American in his sophomore and juniors years and a cinch for honors this year, is called by Ranson, "the best distance runner in the history of this area."

Beatty has run a 4:08.8 mile indoors and a 4:09.4 outdoors. Primarily a two miler, he has concentrated on the mile this spring, developed more speed, and should be capable of lowering his time this afternoon.

ATTENTION GIRLS!

A PRE-EASTER SPECIAL

Our Entire Stock of Lady Manhattan Shirts has been reduced:

Oxford Cloth & Gingham—Reg. $3.95 NOW	$2.99
Short-Sleeved Batistes & Stripes—Reg. $5.00—NOW	$3.99
Egyptian Cottons & Linens—Reg. $5.95 Now	$4.99

Most of these numbers are Short-Sleeved & Sleeveless.

STEVENS-SHEPHERD

COME AND GET IT! I've Still Got ESSO EXTRA

at

Downtown Prices For Regular Gas
and

My Regular 3¢ Under That

Plus

Bring This Ad and Get 1 Cent Off Per Gal. Gas, 5 Cents Per Qt. Oil Credit Cards Honored Again
At The Students' Friend

WHIPPLE'S ESSO SERVICE

SELECTIONS UNLIMITED IS THE SPRING THEME AT MILTON'S

NEVER HAVE WE BEEN ABLE TO OFFER SUCH VARIETIES IN EVERY PHASE OF WARM WEATHER DRESS

In our warm weather suits we carry from size 36 short through 48 extra long

Dacron/wool tropical worsted suits with smart, foulard linings

Dacron/cotton trousers—ivy mode—from Sanforized cotton cords or khaki slacks

Some of our customers don't realize it but we carry over 1200 pairs of shoes—ranging from size 6 1/2D to 13D including many A widths. We don't know of another store anywhere who can match our size range in cordovan shoes and loafers.

New English cordovan loafers—only

New one piece shell cordovan shoes made in England, fully leather lined, storm welt—none finer at $32.50

—our price—

Dirty buck shoes made of imported South American buckskin leathers, fully leather lined, sponge rubber soles

Over 85 different patterns in our ivy bermudas—over

1800 pairs to pick from—from Over 500 dozen dress shirts—ranging in size from 13 1/2

32 to 17 3/4—from

New and most complete assortment in warm weather neckwear—from

SEE OUR COMPLETE SELECTIONS NOW

Milton's
Clothing Cupboard

JIM BEATTY

DAVE SCURLOCK

LASZLO TABORI

National Loop To Have 3-Way Race This Year, Says Expert

By JACK HAND

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (AP)—All signs point to another terrific pennant scramble in the National League among Milwaukee, Brooklyn and Cincinnati with the Braves the choice here to outlast the Dodgers on their fine pitching.

Many think Milwaukee has developed a "second place complex" after three of the last four years in the runner-up spot. It is generally accepted the Braves should have won last year but "blew it." The thinking in this corner is that Manager Fred Haney who has been goading the Braves through grueling practice sessions in Florida, will have them ready to make a fast break for the first time.

The Braves were the only club to take the season series from the Dodgers last year, 12-10, although Cincinnati broke even with Brooklyn. It does not seem likely that Milwaukee will have as much trouble with this year's Phillies as they did a year ago.

The age of Brooklyn's regulars and the absence of Jackie Robinson are the factors that dropped them down a peg in this rating. At this moment, it is no certainty that Roy Campanella has regained his old batting power after the operation.

The two were selected in a poll of sportswriters of the Carolinas.

The occasion was presentation of the Teague Awards to Dave Sime of Duke University and Lee Skidmore, teenage Columbia swimmer.

Sime is Duke's dash star. He was here yesterday to play with the Duke baseball team against the University of South Carolina. Miss Skidmore, now in a girl's school in Florida, flew home for the banquet.

The 15-year-old daughter of Earl Skidmore, Columbia city parks recreation specialist in charge of swimming, already is training for a chance at the 1960 Olympics team.

Sime missed the 1956 Olympics when he pulled a muscle painfully in early tryouts.

He holds the world mark for the 220 yard dash of 20.0 seconds.

Frosh Lose, 3-0

The Carolina Frosh baseball team played only 4 1/2 innings of a scheduled regulation game with the North Carolina State Wolfpacks and dropped a 3-0 decision in Raleigh yesterday.

LAST CALL!

All clothes that have been here for a year or more will be sold for alteration charges before Easter if not called for.

It is more than a pleasure to do business with you, but we must rid ourselves of these clothes. We would hate to sell your suit, pants, or sport coat to someone else, but we must if you don't claim them. So want you come by and make sure that you have picked up all your things.

Pete The Tailor

Specializing In
"Ivy Leagueizing"

Baseball, Net Teams Hit Rain

The Tar Heel baseball squad, rained out of their scheduled game with the Maryland Terps on Saturday, met the same fate in the 35-year-old bracket.

Cincinnati has the same power-packed lineup, plus an added starting pitcher in Warren Hackett. However the Redlegs still are shy on top-flight pitching and still are a bit concerned about the physical condition of Frank Robinson,

The Rookie of the Year of 1956 who has a sore arm, and Ted Kluszewski, who has been slow coming around.

St. Louis has added punch in Del

Reese but is thin in bench strength. If Vinegar Bend Mizell hits his stride and Sam Jones can win regularly, the pitching should be better.

Philadelphia has real good pitching but little else while Pittsburgh,

the surprise of last spring, has a good first line ball club with only

two dependable starting pitchers,

Bob Friend and Ronnie Kline.

Both the Chicago Cubs and the

hard-hitting New York Giants appear to be outdistanced in this otherwise well-balanced field. If Andre

Rodgers, the rookie shortstop,

stands up, the Giants might do better than expected. The Cubs

are in the midst of a major rebuilding process.

Philadelphia has real good pitch-

ing but little else while Pittsburgh,

the surprise of last spring, has a

good first line ball club with only

two dependable starting pitchers,

Bob Friend and Ronnie Kline.

Both the Chicago Cubs and the

hard-hitting New York Giants appear

to be outdistanced in this otherwise well-balanced field. If Andre

Rodgers, the rookie shortstop,

stands up, the Giants might do

better than expected. The Cubs

are in the midst of a major re-

building process.

Philadelphia has real good pitch-

ing but little else while Pittsburgh,

the surprise of last spring, has a

good first line ball club with only

two dependable starting pitchers,

Bob Friend and Ronnie Kline.

Both the Chicago Cubs and the

hard-hitting New York Giants appear

to be outdistanced in this otherwise well-balanced field. If Andre

Rodgers, the rookie shortstop,

stands up, the Giants might do

better than expected. The Cubs

are in the midst of a major re-

building process.

Philadelphia has real good pitch-

ing but little else while Pittsburgh,

the surprise of last spring, has a

good first line ball club with only

two dependable starting pitchers,

Bob Friend and Ronnie Kline.

Both the Chicago Cubs and the

hard-hitting New York Giants appear

to be outdistanced in this otherwise well-balanced field. If Andre

Rodgers, the rookie shortstop,

stands up, the Giants might do

better than expected. The Cubs

are in the midst of a major re-

building process.

Philadelphia has real good pitch-

ing but little else while Pittsburgh,

the surprise of last spring, has a

good first line ball club with only

two dependable starting pitchers,

Bob Friend and Ronnie Kline.

Both the Chicago Cubs and the

hard-hitting New York Giants appear

to be outdistanced in this otherwise well-balanced field. If Andre

Rodgers, the rookie shortstop,

stands up, the Giants might do

better than expected. The Cubs

are in the midst of a major re-

building process.

Philadelphia has real good pitch-

ing but little else while Pittsburgh,

the surprise of last spring, has a

good first line ball club with only

two dependable starting pitchers,

Bob Friend and Ronnie Kline.

Both the Chicago Cubs and the