The Carolina golf team took its sixth straight victory of the season on the Finley layout yesterday as the Tar Heels defeated Michigan 24½-5½.

The Tar Heels, with two men firing sub-par 70's, showed great team balance as they mowed down

Doug Ford Has 68 To Take Lead In GGO

Doug Ford, winner of the Masters golf championship only four days ago, continued in his hot streak yesterday as he knocked two shots off par with a 34-34-68 to lead the first round of the $15,000 Greater Greensboro Open tournament by one stroke.

The Mahopac, N. Y., professional's nearest rivals were Greensboro amateur Willard Gourley and Marty Furgol, veteran Lemont, Ill., professional.

Those three were the only ones in the field of 135 to break par 70 of the 6,720-yard Sedgefield Country Club course.

Five men came in at par 70, including Julius Boros, former U.S. Open champion from Southern Pines, N.C., who had bogies on three of the first five holes coming home to lose a chance at gaining at least a tie for the lead. He was joined by Gardner Dickinson of Panama City Beach, Fla., despite his 34 putts; All Besse link and Mike Souchak, both registering from Grossinger's, N.Y., and Bob Maxwell of Abilene, Tex.

Ten men posted 71, including three foreign threats Gary Player and Trevor Wilkes, both of Johannesburg, South Africa, and Peter Thomson, the Australian who has won the last three British Opens.

Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., the defending champion and winner of six Greensboro tournaments since the first in 1938, was one of nine tied at 72. He had nine pars on the way out, but needed 37 coming home.

The group included Paul Hareney of Bolton, Mass., who followed a fat front nine 40 with an incoming 32, best nine of the day.

Ford, whose $23,000 leads the pro golf money winners this year, had only one bogey, on the 15th hole where he missed the green and took a five. His putter served him well as he racked up a deuce from 10 feet for a birdie on the seventh and a 20-footer for a birdie three on 11. He finished with a 10-footer for a birdie four on the last hole.

Gourley, 29-year-old mortgage loan dealer and a former Greensboro city and Sedgefield Club champion, is a member of the sponsoring Junior Chamber of Commerce. His 34-35 card resulted from what he termed "an utterly fantastic round." He hit only five greens, three times rolled in putts from off the edge of the green and, in addition, dropped

Frosh Blast CJC, 21-7; Fifth Win

By ED ROWLAND

The Tar Baby baseball team powered across 21 runs to stomp Campbell Junior College yesterday afternoon in Emerson stadium. Scoring in every inning but one, the frosh banged out 16 hits off the slants of two Campbell hurlers. It was the fifth win for the frosh.

Freddie Hirsch, a lean left hander from Charlotte, went the route for Carolina and picked up his first win. The visiting Camels, however, banged out 11 safeties to keep the pressure on.

Tommy Santsing and Frank Montgomery led the hitting for the Tar Babies. Montgomery, playing shortstop after patrolling the outfield in previous games, got three singles for four trips to the plate. Santsing slammed his third homer of the season and then hit a single in four appearances.

The other long extra-base blow came from the bat of Ray Borroughs, a triple in the second. Clayton and Hirsch had doubles.

Carolina played a flawless game in the field, but Campbell committed ten miscues. Only seven Tar Baby runs were earned.

The alert freshmen were handed four straight walks in the opening frame, scoring a run and a two-run error and a fielder's choice started the rout. They were never headed.

After the dust had died two hours and 52 minutes later, Dunn and Mazemore for Campbell had issued eleven free passes.

Hirsch had to bear down constantly in each inning. He only retired three men in a row twice. He started shakily, but improved toward the end of the marathon. Seven of the Camels' runs were earned. Hirsch walked seven.

two putts of 20 feet and another of 15.

Furgol, seldom a tournament winner, but often a high-ranking player on the money-winning lists, was out in 33 with two birdies and seven pars. But he went until the last hole on the home trip before he got another bird, this from two feet.

Bobby Maxwell, twin brother of Billy Maxwell, former National Amateur champion, hit a ball out of bounds for a double bogey six on the 15th and those two shots and his resultant 70 cost him a chance to tie Ford for the lead.

Snead, in good position with an outgoing 35 that saw him make three difficult pars in succession just before reaching the turn, ran into bogey trouble on the way back.

He three-putted the 10th and was trapped on No. 11. He missed the next two greens, but recovered for his pars. A missed green on 15 cost him a stroke to par, however, and he had to come in with a seven-foot putt for a birdie four on 18 to finish two over for the round.

A cheerleader practice will be held at Kenan Stadium from 3-5 p.m. today, Frank Black, head cheerleader, announced yesterday.

Yanks Will Be Loaded

NEW YORK, (AP)—The word for the New York Yankees is "loaded." Casey Stengel had the best crop of youngsters in Florida and he heads into the American League race with a well-balanced ball club made up of two-way players.

Although the Yanks lost to their Richmond farm club yesterday after barely struggling past two other minor league teams on the way home, it is the general impression that they can't miss when the bell rings for the regular season. Only injuries to key men like Mickey Mantle or Yogi Berra could change the picture.

While other clubs must settle for a man who can handle one position, Stengel demands the two-way or three-way ballplayer. An infielder must be ready to shift to the outfield and an outfielder must be prepared to catch or play shortstop.

Just take a look at the Yankee lineup that probably will open the season. Everybody can handle two jobs.

That is one reason some people predict the rest of the league might as well "wait til next year" before making any serious moves to challenge Stengels authority.

Carolina Caravan

By JAKE WADE

When Carolina track coach Dale Ranson learned Tuesday morning that his great distance runner, Jim Beatty, had been tapped for the Golden Fleece the night before, he was in a dither. Pleased as punch, of course, but worried because he knew that ordinarily the Fleece puts its neophytes through a mighty rough before-dawn "voyage" after the tapping. And Beatty was scheduled that afternoon for the special mile run and needed to be in top form. But the Fleece was kind, knowing the circumstances, and passed up Jimmy when it took to the tall timbers with the honored young men.

Never any Fleece tapping like this one, with an unprecedented 30 honored. Usually this venerable, honorary society includes only one or two athletes in its round-up. This trip it took the entire starting national championship basketball team and its coaches, plus footballer Ed Sutton and trackman Jimmy Beatty. Coach Farnk McGuire received probably the biggest ovation ever given a Fleece tappee.

Incidentally, McGuire and his young men swear they had not been tipped off and were greatly surprised when plucked. They did have the grapevine word that Lennie Rosenbluth would be picked and had assembled to give him a hand on the occasion.

The huge Jeff Thomas trophy will be awarded for the first time this year. This award goes to the UNC athlete (any sport) who is judged by varsity head coaches as having been most outstanding in sportsmanship and ability. It honors the long time operator of Jeff's Confectionary, a downtown haven for the sports-minded. Jeff has been seriously ill for many months. Whid Powell, Chapel Hill insurance man-about-town, is one of the chief moving spirits behind the Jeff Thomas trophy. There is wide speculation as to the athlete to be chosen.

Same goes for the Patterson medal, long regarded as the top athletic award here. This goes to the top all-around senior athlete with scholarship considered along with ability, leadership and sportsmanship. Footballer Ed Sutton and Don Redding recently received certificates and encyclopedia sets for being chosen on the All-Scholastic All-America.

The Tar Heel golf team is so loaded with talent that frequent challenge matches are necessary to determine the lineups. Tommy Langley is currently playing number one.

A's Beat Bums

KANSAS CITY — (AP)—Irv Noren's single off Don Bessent in the ninth inning scoring Bill Shantz capped a four-run rally and gave the Kansas City Athletics a 5-4 exhibition victory today over the Brooklyn Dodgers as light snow began to fall over Municipal Stadium in 34-degree weather.

Trailing 4-1 coming into the ninth, the A's gave the shivering 8,531 fans a warming rally as Tim Thompson and Billy Hunter led off with singles. After Cletus Boyer looked at a third strike, rookie Milt Graff singled to fill the bases.

Gus Zernial's single plated two runs and when Bessent threw wildly on Johnny Groth's topped roller Graff raced home with the tying run.

Iranian Bandit

TEHRAN, Iran—(AP)—A police spokesman said today a 16-year-old son of the bandit leader Dadshah has been killed in the running fight with the gang that slit three Americans March 24.

The youth, Kamal, was reported killed in a gunfight with police between April 1 and April 5. The spokesman said there still is no evidence that Dadshah himself has been slain, as claimed by his brother Ahmed, who was captured Sunday in Pakistan with another brother and other gang members.

Jordan Gov't

AMMAN, Jordan—(AP)—King Hussein's choice as the new premier of Jordan, Dr. Hussein Fakhri Khalidi, was reported tonight to have failed in his efforts to form a new government.

One informant said Khalidi already has told the King he was unable to organize a cabinet to replace that of Premier Suleiman Nabulsi, sacked by the King yesterday. There was no official confirmation of this report.
