

Errors Costly As Baseballers Lose 9-4 To Blue Devils

Second ACC Defeat For UNC; Raugh Is Loser

By BILL KING
The Duke Blue Devils capitulated on two big Carolina errors in the seventh inning to push across five runs and hand the Tar Heels a 9-4 Atlantic Coast Conference defeat in Emeron Stadium yesterday.

Boros, Ford Lead Way In GGO Tourney

GREENSBORO, N. C. (AP) — Julius Boros, after watching his four-stroke 36-hole lead melt away, birdied the last hole yesterday for a one over par 71 finish that gave him a 54-hole tie at 206 with Doug Ford in the $15,000 Greater Greensboro Open golf tournament.

Boros, Southern Pines, N. C., professional who won the National Open title five years ago, made a fine chip and followed with an 18-inch putt for a birdie four on the final hole to move into a tie with Ford, whom he had replaced as the leader Friday.

Ford, playing from Mahopac, N. Y., still winging after winning the Masters title last Sunday, had eagled the same hole from 12 feet a short time earlier for a three-under par 67.

Boros and Ford faced a twin foreign threat going into today's row's final 18 holes. Stan Leonard, Lachute, Canada, professional, fired a 67 and Gary Player, youthful Johannesburg, South Africa, pro, came in with a 68 to tie for third at 207, only one shot back of the leaders.

Mike Souchak of Grossinger's, N. Y., in fifth place at 209 after a 69 yesterday, to trail by three shots, appeared in the best position of the others to challenge today.

He was followed by Trevor Wilkes of Johannesburg, traveling companion of Player on their excursion to America which began only a month ago. Wilkes had 211.

Sam Sneed of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., bidding for his third Greensboro title in a row and seventh since the first in 1938, fell seven strokes off the pace at 213.

Meeting Places

Local fraternities and societies are holding informal after-dinner discussion groups in connection with the Spring Forum Monday and Tuesday nights. Local faculty members and student pastors will lead these groups as they discuss varied topics in connection with the theme of the forum.

BOOK SALE
A special book sale has been planned as a part of the Spring Forum. Books will be sold in the Y lobby Monday and Tuesday from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. These books will be related to the theme of the forum.

Among the books being sold are "Campus Gods on Trial" by Chad Walsh; "The Superstitions of the Irreligious" by George Hadley; and "Faith and Education" by George Buttrick.

Many of the books featured for sale will also be available in Wilson Library. One of Dr. Beach's best-known works, "Christian Ethics," will be among these books on reserve.

HEIDELBERG PROFESSOR

Professor Paul Bockman of the University of Heidelberg will speak in German on "The Novels of Theodor Fontane" tomorrow at 8 p.m. in 105 Hanes Hall. The Dept. of Germanic Languages will sponsor his talk. The public has been invited to hear Dr. Bockman who teaches "German Literature" at Heidelberg.

Raugh, who pitched a creditable six and one third innings, got the first batter on strikes before the Tar Heel's costly defensive lapse.

With one out, The Blue Devils got runners at second and third. Pete Maynard then singled driving in the tying run for Duke. The Devil then loaded the bases and first baseman Charlie Dunlevy hit a grounder to Carolina first sacker Bomber Hill. Hill tried to cut off the run at the plate but his throw was wild and two more Duke runners came across.

With Dunlevy on at first, and Andy Cockrell at third shortstop Lon Bonczek singled to left scoring Cockrell. Leftfielder Joe Shook bobbled the ball and Dunlevy circled the base with the Blue Devil's fifth run of the inning. Don Saine then came on to relieve Raugh and got the sides out without further damage.

Carolina jumped off to a 2-0 lead in the first inning against Duke starter Dick Burton. Don Lewis and Joe Shook hit successive singles. Hill then got on first as the result of an error by Cockrell at third, and Lewis came across with the first run of the game. Shook scored moments later when Don Hill lifted a sacrifice fly to right field.

The Blue Devils grabbed the lead from Carolina in the bottom of the second with three big runs and only one hit. Burton was lifted for a pinch-hitter in the second and lefty Dick Smallwood took over the pitching chores for the Blue Devils in the top of the third and went the rest of the way to pick up the victory.

After the second inning, which saw Duke holding a 3-2 advantage, the contest turned into a fine pitching duel between the side-arm throwing Burton and hard-throwing Raugh.

Neither team threatened again until the fifth frame as Raugh and Burton settled down to pitch effective ball for three innings.

In the home fifth, Carolina came back to tie it up at three each as centerfielder Dick Hudson, who turned in another fine performance for the Tar Heels, doubled to left, moved to third on a wild pitch and scored on an error by the Duke shortstop.

The Tar Heels took the lead in the bottom of the sixth as Don Hill doubled with one out and came home on Jim Legette's single to center. Then the roof collapsed on the Tar Heels.

The loss was the second in ACC competition for Carolina and the fifth of the season. The Tar Heels now hold a 4-2 conference record and are 9-5 for the season. For Raugh, it was his first loss of the year against four victories.

The Tar Heels next game will be against the Clemson Tigers here on Wednesday.

Tennis Team Beats SC

The Carolina tennis team won its second straight Atlantic Coast Conference match in as many days here yesterday as it defeated the South Carolina Gamecocks, 8-1.

This was the identical score of their triumph over the Clemson Tigers here Friday and gives the Tar Heels a respectable 4-5 seasonal record.

Only Carolina's Fritz Van Winkle was not able to come through for the Tar Heel netters, losing his match 6-4, 6-1.

Trackmen Rout South Carolina; Beatty and Scurlock Lead Way

By DAVE WIBLE

Led by Jim Beatty and Dave Scurlock the powerful Tar Heel trackmen continued on the undefeated road in yesterday's cold afternoon with a lopsided 85-37 victory over the Gamecocks of South Carolina.

In the freshman competition, the Tar Babies were victorious with twelve first places compared to the Biddies three.

All-American Jim Beatty used his well developed running ability in the two-mile event. He took the lead from the start and gradually built it up until he had lapped the field. He then slowed down to talk to Coach Ranson and then went on to win with the very good time of 9:16.2.

Tar Heel distance man Everett Whatley who usually runs both the mile and the two-mile, put all his eggs in one basket, the mile, and ran a beautiful 4:17. This now gives the Tar Heels three men, Beatty, Dave Scurlock and Whatley who can run the distance under 4:20.

Scurlock ran his specialty the 440 twice yesterday. He won the 440 run with a 49.2 and he anchored the winning mile relay team of Jim Fox, Tony Arey, and Ben Williams.

Spring Planting Of Shrubbery To End Soon

Operations Director J. S. Bennett said Friday the spring planting of shrubbery will soon be concluded.

He said this year most of the plants have been placed around some of the older buildings because after eight to fifteen years the shrubbery outgrows its usefulness.

He explained as shrubbery grew the bottom part of the plant became "leggy" and was no longer attractive. The ground crew usually leaves a bit of the better old shrubbery around.

This year Bennett said approximately $2000 has been spent for shrubbery. During the year the trees also have to be replaced, contrary to popular belief, he said.

F. J. LeClair is in charge of the landscaping and takes care of plants which the University buys in bulk and then plants throughout the year.

It has been only during the last few years that new shrub in large numbers have been planted to replace old ones. Last year, according to Bennett, the shrubs around

Buddy Payne And Dave Reed Picked As Football Leaders

Quarterback Dave Reed of Shamokin, Pa., and end Buddy Payne of Norfolk, Va., have been elected co-captains of the Carolina 1957 football team. Both are rising seniors.

"Reed" says Coach Jim Tatum, "should be one of the nation's finest quarterbacks next fall. He is an excellent football player in every respect. We would have done much better last season, if he had been available to us throughout the year. In our off-season practice this year he seemed even more improved."

Reed last fall sustained an ankle injury on the first day of pre-season practice. He missed all of the early work and did not see action until the third game with South Carolina. He was used sparingly until it was certain he had fully recovered from the injury.

Reed finished the season as the teams leading passer with 22 completions in 54 attempts for 313 yards and four touchdowns. In rushing he gained 118 net yards in 58 carries.

Payne caught five passes for 84 yards and was a fine all around player.

Phillips and Peabody Hall were reworked.
