

Tar Heels Tie For First Place With 8-2 Win Over Deacs

Deadlock Blue Devils; UNC Beats Duke In Final Doubles

By BILL KING

The Carolina Tar Heels moved into a tie for first place in The Atlantic Coast Conference here yesterday as they defeated the Wake Forest Demon Deacons, 8-2 in Emerson Stadium before the largest crowd of the season.

As the temperature soared, so did the Tar Heels right into a deadlock with the Duke Blue Devils at the top of the league standings. Both clubs now have a 7-2 conference record. This was the only action in the ACC yesterday.

The Tar Heels actually won the ballgame in the third inning when they pounded Wake Forest starter, Jack McGinley for six runs and four hits before the Deacon hurler was lifted in favor of John Stokoe. Stokoe allowed two more hits and the final two runs of the inning for Carolina. Both runs were charged to McGinley.

From there out it was smooth sailing for Carolina righthander Jim Raugh who went the distance for his seventh win of the season against one loss. Raugh was never in trouble except in the fourth when he was tagged for the Deac's only two tallies.

The Tar Heels hadn't gotten a hit off McGinley going into the home third. Don Hill led off the inning with a single and this started the biggest inning of the season for Carolina. After Carson Oldham popped out, Bomber Hill lined a double to leftfield to score Don Hill. Raugh then picked up an RBI with a single to left scoring The Bomber.

Second baseman Don Lewis kept things rolling for the Tar Heels with a single to right moving Raugh to third. With runners at first and third, Dick Hudson singled to bring Raugh home with the second tally. Catcher Jim Legette then hit to the pitcher but McGinley's attempt to cutoff Hudson at second was wild and the Tar Heels had the bases jammed.

Joe Shook came through with a single driving Hudson across with the fourth run. Stokoe then came on to pitch for the Deacs. He got Rog Honeycutt to ground out, but Don Hill promptly unloaded a single to left center driving in the fifth and sixth runs for The Tar Heels.

The Deacs got a glimmer of hope in the fourth inning with two runs on three singles off Raugh, but the Tar Heel righthander settled down to retire the side and Wake Forest never again threatened seriously.

Carolina added a couple of insurance runs in the sixth frame against Stokoe, who did a fine job in relief for the Deacs, striking out seven Carolina batters. Don Hill scored the seventh UNC run moving from second on Bomber Hill's triple to left, the second extra base blow for the Carolina first sacker. Raugh then aided his own cause again with another single driving Bomber home with the final Tar Heel tally.

For the Deacs, it was loss number five in ACC competition

UNC Beats Duke In Final Doubles

By JIM CROWNOVER

The Carolina tennis team, figuratively speaking, made their season a success here yesterday afternoon by defeating the Duke Blue Devil netters, 5-4 on the local courts.

With Steve Bank and Geoff Black finally reaching the peak of their ability, the Tar Heels swept through four of six of the singles matches.

Bank, number 1 man, played the best tennis that he has played all season and defeated Lief Beck of Duke, 7-5, 6-4. Black, the number two Carolina player, though hard-pressed, showed that he is beginning to reach top form as he defeated Don Romhilt, 6-4, 5-7, 7-5. Coach Waldimir Cernik was extremely pleased with the team's performance. He said, "Coach (Ham) Strayhorn and I are very pleased, and we realize that the boys have improved a great deal. I have no doubts that if we were to play Maryland again, we could avenge our 5-4 loss to them and replace them as conference leaders."

The Summaries

Singles: Steve Bank (C) defeated Lief Beck, 7-5, 6-4; Geoff Black (C) defeated Don Romhilt, 6-4, 5-7, 7-5; Jack Williams (D) defeated Frank Livingstone, 7-5, 6-4; Ray Newsome (C) defeated Bob Lawrence, 6-4, 6-3. Claude Jack (D) defeated Fritz Van Winkle, 7-5, 6-1; Tom McIver (C) defeated Ed Rude, 7-5, 6-2.

North-South Golf

PINEHURST (AP)—Hillman Robbins, the medalist and defending champion, rallied from a two down, seven holes to play situation today for a hard-earned 2 up North and South amateur golf tournament quarterfinals victory over Don Bisplinghoff of Winter Park, Fla.

Gonzales And Rosewall Meet In Tennis Duel At Coliseum

Pancho Gonzales and Ken Rosewall bring their professional tennis duel to Raleigh April 30 as the highlight of Jack Kramer's coast-to-coast world championship series.

The match will be played in Reynolds Coliseum beginning at 8 o'clock. Also featured on the program is a singles match between Pancho Segura and Dinny Pails and a doubles match with Gonzales and Segura paired against Rosewall and Pails.

Gonzales, the lanky, hard-serving professional king, recently won his fourth straight pro title by downing Segura in the World Professional Tournament. He has won Kramer's tour twice in succession.

A native of Los Angeles, Gonzales turned back Tony Trabert 74-27 last year and won a round robin over Segura and Frank Sedgman in 1955.

Gonzales' opponent, Rosewall, turned professional this year after dominating the amateur ranks for a number of years. The Australian Davis Cup star won the United States, Australian and French singles titles and missed out on only one major title — the Wimbledon singles.

Rosewall played in eight Davis Cup challenge round singles matches against the United States and won six. In 1953 he won the deciding Davis Cup singles match for his country.

At last count, Gonzales led Rosewall 37-16 but the Aussie, gaining experience each day, won five out of the last 10 matches to start closing the gap.

Segura, the bow-legged, two-handed swinger, is having little trouble with Pails, a 35-year-old Australian who won his country's singles crown in 1947. Segura copped the pro crown in 1950 and 1952 and has been runnerup four times.

Tickets for the attraction are on sale at the Coliseum Box Office, Kerr Drugs in Cameron Village and Womble's in downtown Raleigh. Reserved seats are $2. with general admission $1.50. College students will be admitted for $1.

New Rule Stops Interference

CINCINNATI (AP)—The major leagues acted today to put an end to base runners deliberately letting a batted ball hit them to prevent a double play.

Effective immediately, the runner who is hit by a batted ball and the next succeeding runner or batter will be declared out. In the past, when the runner let the ball hit him, only he was called out.

Warren C. Giles, president of the National League, said American League President Will Harridge had agreed with him that the change in regulations be made.

It will be up to the umpires to determine whether a runner willfully lets himself be hit.

Soccer Candidates

All soccer candidates are urged to see manager Lief Erickson as soon as possible in order to give pertinent information and uniform. Erickson is in room 5, Vance.

UNC, State, Deacs' 3rd Games Will Not Count

GREENSBORO (AP)—Only the first home-and-home baseball games in the Atlantic Coast Conference schedule will count in the championship standings, leaving as unofficial the third contests slated between Wake Forest, North Carolina and North Carolina State.

ACC Commissioner Jim Weaver reported the decision of the conference baseball committee last summer to clear up the possible problem that might have arisen in the tight baseball race which currently has the four North Carolina teams only a half-game from each other. Duke leads the standings.

These "third" games which do not count are State at Wake Forest May 8, North Carolina at State May 9 (moved from May 15 and North Carolina at Wake Forest May 13).

The conference champion participates in the NCAA district playoffs at Gastonia May 31—June 3, leading to the NCAA College World Series in Omaha, Neb.

Golfers Win

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va.—(AP)—North Carolina golfers won all nine points in the first foursome here yesterday and went on to defeat Virginia, 15-12, in an Atlantic Coast Conference match.

Tuffy Henderson of North Carolina was medalist with a 73. Glenn Mitchell and Paul Sackett of Virginia each carded 74s.

The Cavaliers won best ball on the last two foursomes, but the matches went to the Tar Heels by the count of four to two. Tom Langley and Gene Lookabill disposed of their opponents easily and won their matches by the score of 3-0.

Carolina Trackmen Run In Penn Relays Today

By DAVE WIBLE

Four members of the Carolina track team have made the trip across the Mason-Dixon line to participate in the 63rd annual Penn Relays which begins in Philadelphia this afternoon.

Jim Beatty, Dave Scurlock, Everett Whatley and Howard Kahn will be going for Carolina honors against a field of 3,387 other track men competing in the relays carnival.

Beatty, holder of many track laurels, will be going for his third consecutive Penn Relay two-mile championship. This event will be run today. Tomorrow Beatty will join teammates Scurlock, Kahn, and Whatley in the two-mile relay.

Beatty will be favored to hang on to this crown and the relay team ranks high on the favorite list in that event. The team is loaded with some of the best runners Carolina has ever seen.

Just last week, two time All-

American Beatty ran a 4:06.5 mile at a Carolina-Maryland duel meet at College Park, but he was edged out of first by his old Terp rival Burr Grim who ran the distance in 4:06. This was the best College mile this season and Beatty's time, although he did not win, was the best mile a North Carolinian has ever run.

Scurlock is proving to be the top, middle-distance man ever to hit Carolina. At the same Carolina-Maryland meet the striding sophomore finished the 880 with a new ACC record of 1:52.3.

Whatley and Kahn have both been finishing close behind Beatty and Scurlock all season. Whatley ran a 4:15 mile at the record ridding Tar Heel-Terp meet making him the second best miler in Carolina history.
