What Carolina Coeds Are Looking For When They Start Out Husband Hunting

Some people are interested in what students think of the Little Rock situation, what students want out of college, etc.

Recently a group of interested readers requested a coed opinion poll on "What I am looking for in a prospective husband." Here are some of the answers we got:

Ann Robinson, Charlotte, wants "... a boy who can see both points of view, who can give and take ... who likes to do different things ... kind of adventurous."

Joan Brooks, Greensboro, says, "I want him to have ambition ... to like to travel ... you know, the cosmopolitan type. But I want him to remember the little things like bringing me a bunch of violets on the first day of spring."

Mertha Fortune, Brevard, demands this combination: "He must have a great personality and not be crude, or unattractive."

Betty Whitehurst, from Virginia Beach, goes for "the thoughtful man who likes children."

Sally Grayas, from High Point, says, "Understanding is a worn out word, but most important to me. Besides being understanding, I want nothing to do with dollars and him to be a good clean-cut all-American boy. And of course one who can put up with me."

Margaret Starnes from Raleigh: "I think the most important thing for a man to have can be summed up in one word—WORTH. And this has cents."

The Daily Tar Heel SOCIETY

Mary Alys Voorhees, Editor

Anyway you look at it Carolina had a great deal to celebrate this weekend ... the football game ... fraternity rush was over ... and everyone was happy over new pledge classes.

St. A's Double-Barrel Victory

A double-barrel victory party lived things up over at the St. A House Saturday as brothers and their dates gathered to celebrate UNC's great victory over Navy and to honor their new pledge class.

And the weekend was no sooner over when the brothers again swung the spotlight on the Carolina Inn, where a banquet Monday night honored their pledges. Dr. Harry K. Russell, a St. A on the English faculty was the speaker.

Chi Psis And Combos

No quiet prevailed at the Chi Psi Lodge Saturday as brothers and their dates came in after the game for a party and music by the Three Duces from Raleigh in their unique style.

Later in the evening the Joe Harper Combo provided music for dancing after dinner.

Over At The KA House

The Down Beats from Burlington supplied music when KAs and their dates arrived after the UNC-Navy game for a party at the House.

On Monday night the pledge ceremony was held, followed by a beer party for the brothers and pledges.

KA Bob Fuller of Gastonia is pinned to Doris Morris of Dead Horse Creek, S. C., and KA Tom McIver has pinned Lisa Anderson of his hometown, Greensboro.

Sigma Nu Dixieland

After the football team had conquered the invaders from the North, Sigma Nus and their dates arrived at the House for an evening of Dixieland jazz to celebrate the rise of the South again, you all!

An aftermath was the pledge ceremonies Monday night when the brothers welcomed the pledges into the fraternity. Following the serious aspects of the evening was a beer blast.

This coming weekend the Sigma Nus are planning a "quiet evening at home" with dancing to the jukebox.

Phi Kap—A La Miami

Sunglasses, Bermudas, etc. will be the order of the day Friday night when the Phi Kaps stage a "Miami Party" at the House with the Stray Greeks as their special guests. After listening to the UNC-Miami game the Les Sutorius Combo will present music for dancing.

The past weekend Bill Byers and his combo played at a party honoring the pledges, and Monday night pledges were again entertained at a beer party.

Phi Kap Jerry Aman of Jacksonville is pinned to Totie Brown, who attends Meredith in Raleigh.

Phi Delt Doins

After such a big time Saturday night when the Doug Clark Combo played, the Phi Delt's have planned an informal jukebox party for this Saturday.

Phi Delt Baxter Culler of Martinsville, Va. is engaged to Alice Burroughs, also of Martinsville, who is in school at Hollins. Phi Delt Wilson Cooper of Chattanooga, Tenn. has pinned Pi Phi Susie Fagan of Miami, Fla.

At The Phi Gam House

Alums and pledges joined the Phi Gams Saturday evening for a dinner at the House while a combo furnished background music.

Phi Gam Bob Exum and Tri Delt Judy Lou Garrou, both of Snow Hill were married this past summer, as were Phi Gam John Blount and former WC student Mary Howard Bowen, both of Washington.

SAE

A combo provided entertainment when the SAEs and Sigma Chis partied out at Beulah's Cabin Saturday night.

SAE Buster Brown of Burlington is pinned to Sara McMillan, St. Mary's belle from Winston-Salem. ... Center Smith of Martinsville have given his SAE pin to Susan Burton of Randolph Macon College. ... SAE Jim McGee of Raleigh is pinned to Dona Davidson.

A Saturday Night With The DUs

The spotlight shone on the Sentimentalist Combo Saturday at the DU when the brothers, several KDs and alums honored the pledges at a party.

DU Don Howard of Shelby has pinned Ann Johnson, also of Shelby, who is a student at Meredith in Raleigh.

ATO News

Saturday when the ATOs partied at the House the Jack Victory combo played.

ATO Rivers Upchurch of Smithfield is pinned to WC student Mary Ann Bass of Durham.

Maid Of Cotton Search Brings Many Applicants

MEMPHIS, Tenn. — Hundreds of applications have been sent to girls interested in becoming the 1958 Maid of Cotton, the National Cotton Council reports.

The search for the young beauty who will serve as the 20th fashion and good will envoy for the cotton industry began Sept. 1.

Applications, with two recent photographs, should be returned to the Council postmarked not later than Sunday midnight, Dec. 1.

Twenty girls will be selected as finalists and invited to come to Memphis for two days of judging in early January. Each finalist will receive $100 toward defraying expenses in connection with the trip to Memphis.

The girl who wins the title of 1958 Maid of Cotton will travel more than 35,000 miles on an international tour. Her travels in behalf of the cotton industry will take her to 25 major cities in the United States and to three in Canada.

In early June, a luxury liner of the British Overseas Airways Corp. will carry her to leading fashion centers abroad. She will be presented with an all-cotton wardrobe created for her by 42 outstanding American designers, and a new car will be waiting for her at the end of her journey.

To be eligible to be Maid of Cotton, a girl must have been born in a cotton-producing state. She must be between the ages of 19 and 25, at least five feet, five inches tall, and must never have been married.

Applications may be obtained from the National Cotton Council, P. O. Box 9905, Memphis 12, Tenn. The Maid of Cotton tour is sponsored annually by the Council, the Memphis Cotton Carnival Association, and the Cotton Exchange of

Nursing Group To Meet Today

Dr. Esther Luefle Brown, director of university and community relations for the School of Nursing at Boston University, will be the speaker at a meeting of the 11th district of the North Carolina State Nurses Association, to be held today at 8 p. m. in the amphitheater of the UNC School of Nursing.

Dr. Brown is well known for the work she has done in the area of research into the role of professions. Her studies on nursing were reported in 1948 in "Nursing for the Future," a book that has attracted widespread interest among nurses, doctors, hospital administrators, and persons interested in the providing of adequate health facilities.

Miss Mary Cheek, president of the 11th district group, extends a cordial invitation to all nurses and interested persons to attend this meeting.

Extension Office Publishes Issue

The UNC Extension Division has recently published the October issue of the University Extension Bulletin on this year's subject of "The United Nations in the Search for World Peace."

This bulletin was published for use of high schools participating in the High School World Peace Study and Speaking Program of 1957-58.
