

WEATHER

Mottly cloudy with occasional drizzle today, getting colder tonight. Partly cloudy Saturday.

The Daily Tar Heel

TOO HIGH
The Ed extemporizes on the rent raises necessitated by construction costs on page 2.

N. C. State Wolfpack Edges Carolina, 58-57, In Overtime

Kearns Scores 17 To Pace Tar Heels

By BILL KING

The ice machine was out, the fans were perplexed, the refs didn't agree and the coaches were confused. And out of all this came a 58-57 victory over Carolina for N. C. State in an overtime thriller in Woollen Gym last night.

Yep, it was another of those chaotic Carolina-State battles that left the fans goggle-eyed and asking what happened. And it was State forward, Don Gallagher and three missed foul shots for Carolina which supplied the answer.

The regulation game ended in a 46-46 tie after Carolina had battled from behind to grab the lead then relinquished it right back to the West Raleigh club.

State Gets Lead

In the overtime, State built up a 53-49 lead, but two free throws by Carolina reserve Danny Lotz made it 53-51. With only 59 seconds to go, Carolina guard Tommy Kearns, who played a great ball game, missed two free throws and State got possession.

The Wolfpack's Gallagher then canned a couple of charity tosses with 50 seconds to go to make it 55-51. Sophomore forward Lee Shaffer had a chance to make things closer but missed a free

Rebound activity under the Carolina basket with Brennan (35) Bell (11), and Cunningham (32) fighting for the ball as Richter and Gallagher of State look on. (Buddy Spoon Photo)

Orientation Post Open For '58-'59

Student Body President Sonny Evans today announced interviews for selection of an Orientation Committee Chairman to succeed Jerry Oppenheimer in that post for next year.

At the same time, he said a 10-member budget committee also will soon be appointed to work on student finances for fiscal 1958-59. The committee will include chairman of the Student Audit Board, one legislator and eight other members—at-large.

Interviews for Orientation Committee Chairman will be held in student government offices from 2 to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday, Evans said. The chairman will be appointed by Feb. 15.

The new chairman will work out plans for fall orientation, 1958, while Oppenheimer, the current chairman, will conduct the orientation program for new and transfer students coming here next semester, Evans said.

The president said the budget committee, slated to get to work in February, will hold public and private meetings with student organizations getting legislative appropriations.

The legislature will have the final word on appropriations for next year, expected to total about $118,000, Evans said.

Officials Chart Plans For Use Of Whitehead

Necessary modifications for converting Whitehead Men's Dorm into a residence hall for coeds in fall, 1958, were planned at a meeting of seven administration officials this week.

They agreed upon the following modifications: installation of laundry facilities, cooking facilities, arrangements for the hostess such as office, adjacent pullman kitchenette, bathroom and bedroom, and living room; furniture, curtains, and draperies for social rooms; a check on the condition of the floors and closets and security of screens on first floor.

They also agreed to install telephones on each floor with intercom phones and buzzer.

Whitehead Dorm will be reserved for use by the Extension Division for the summers of 1958, 1959, it was decided.

Present at the meeting were: Roy Armstrong, director of admissions; J. S. Bennett, director of operations; Miss Katherine Carmichael, dean of women; Sam Magill, director of student activities; Charles Milner, acting director of the Extension Division; J. E. Wadsworth, director of the Housing office; and Fred Weaver, dean of student affairs.

IN THE INFIRMARY

Students in the infirmary yesterday included: Misses Kit Whitehurst, Linda Moore and Eleanor Barksdale, and George Forre-t, Walter Neville, William Brigman, Roland Hodges, William Davis, George Elmore, Sam Barodoy, Joe Quigg, Richard Nichols, Valentine Rupeika, and Julian Smith.

Chancellor's Cabinet Studies Rising Room Rent Problems

By DOUG EISELE

University officials expressed concern Wednesday over "the trend of increasing costs" for dormitory room rent which is likely to jump another $30 beginning next year.

At the same time, however, they predicted a leveling-off of room rentals after next year if they can convince the legislature that dormitories should be "financed by means other than on a self-liquidating basis."

Chancellor William B. Aycock, at a Cabinet meeting held jointly with student leaders, pledged full support of the administration in efforts to get legislative appropriations for future construction of new dormitories here.

"The administration will do all it can," he said, "to get better dormitories and to get them financed by means other than on a self-liquidating basis."

Rental Hike

Business Manager J. A. Branch pointed out that room rent of every student is now increased about $15 per one million dollars spent for new dormitories on the campus. On that basis, room rent next year will jump $132 to approximately $162.

"We are very concerned—all of us in this room—over the trend of increasing costs in dormitory rentals," declared Dean of Student Affairs Fred Weaver.

The broad discussion of room rentals followed a statement by Student Body President Sonny Evans that the student's cost for education is increasing "commensurate with the growth of the University."

Almost Up With Dook

Evans said the assessment for room rent here next year will be near that of Duke University, although this is a state institution and construction costs for dormitories here are held below those of the Durham institution.

The student body president also suggested that allotments for dormitory construction be more liberal than the system now used, declaring that residence buildings should incorporate facilities "to implement the educational process at the University."

Turning to dormitory counseling, Dean Weaver asserted a need for expanding the current program and said funds for that program possibly would be available "if the state would relieve us of our residence expenses."

Funds For Counseling

Some money now going toward room rental, which pays for new dormitories, could be used for a broad program of dormitory counseling, he said. Other funds might also be available, he added.

Dean Weaver said that he and student leaders "are in complete agreement" concerning a need for residence counseling, and he also agreed with Evans that new dormitories here "must be more conducive to studying."

Among other business at the Chancellor's Cabinet meeting was a notation by Evans that the office of the dean of student affairs is "so overburdened by the traffic problem that it cannot do other work associated with the office."

It was suggested by Dean Weaver that a "security office or something of that nature" be created to work closely with the local police department to administrate the car registration and violations program.

Exam Schedule

The Central Office of Records has announced the following examination schedule for the fall semester:

All 9 a.m. Classes on MWF	Mon., Jan. 20, 8:30 a.m.
All 9 a.m. Classes on TTTHS	Mon., Jan. 20, 2:00 p.m.
All 8 a.m. Classes on MWF	Tues., Jan. 21, 8:30 a.m.
All 10 a.m. Classes on MWF	Tues., Jan. 21, 2:00 p.m.
All *French, *German, and *Spanish courses number 1, 2, 3, 3x, and 4, *Pharm. Ec. 34, and *BA 177A	Wed., Jan. 22, 8:30 a.m.
All 11 a.m. Classes on TTTHS	Wed., Jan. 22, 2:00 p.m.
All 10 a.m. Classes on TTTHS	Thurs., Jan. 23, 8:30 a.m.
All 11 a.m. Classes on MWF	Thurs., Jan. 23, 2:00 p.m.
All 3 p.m. Classes, *Chem. 11, *BA 71 & 72, *Chem. 43, and all classes not otherwise provided for in the schedule	Fri., Jan. 24, 8:30 a.m.
All 8 a.m. Classes on TTTHS	Fri., Jan. 24, 2:00 p.m.
All 2 p.m. Classes on MWF, *BA 130, *Pharm. 15	Sat., Jan. 25, 8:30 a.m.
All 12 Noon Classes on MWF	Sat., Jan. 25, 2:00 p.m.
All 2 p.m. Classes on TTTHS, *Pharm. 10, *Econ. 31, 32, 61 & 70	Mon., Jan. 27, 8:30 a.m.
All 12 Noon Classes on TTTHS, all Naval Science and Air Science	Mon., Jan. 27, 2:00 p.m.
All 1 p.m. Classes on MWF, *Pol. Sci. 41, *Econ. 81	Tues., Jan. 28, 8:30 a.m.
All Exams resulting in conflicts from Common Exam scheduled above	Tues., Jan. 28, 2:00 p.m.

*In case of any conflict, the regularly scheduled exam will take precedence over the common exam. (Common exams are indicated by an asterisk.)

Grad Club Heads Dr. W. S. Newman In First Meeting Of Cultural Series

By ROBERT HOCUTT

"In any large philosophical sense, music is not the product of its times, but it may be considered to be so in the immediate practical sense," members of the Graduate Club were told this week.

The speaker was Dr. William S. Newman, professor of music. Dr. Newman's speech was the first of a series arranged by the Graduate Club. The series will cover all phases of graduate study.

Dr. Newman's topic was, "Is Music Really A Product of Its Times?"

Newman praised the Graduate Club for offering students the opportunity to gain knowledge about several arts.

"Few persons are able to cut across the boundaries of art and speak with any degree of knowledge about a number of them. We in music can profit from an exchange of ideas," Newman said.

Music-Art Tie

Newman pointed out that many unsuccessful attempts have been made by historians to find a common tie between music and the other arts in order to prove that music is a product of its times.

Explaining that some historians

NO NEW NEWS

The rash of fires that have swept the campus recently, have brought no new developments today in the suspected arson cases.

Captain Blake of the Chapel Hill police force said that he is hoping something will turn up soon to throw a light on the matter. He reported that the two suspects rounded up last week were still under surveillance.

Meanwhile, the campus has returned to normal after a hectic week in which eight fires were reported, and one unsuccessful attempt.

The two fires that occurred Monday night were not connected with the arson case now under investigation.

Looking For What???

By WHIT WHITFIELD

She gazed at the sign, "Steele Dormitory. This must be the place," she mused. She entered the center door, was gone for a few moments, and then reappeared holding the hand of one of the dormitory residents.

Her guide pointed sympathetically to the corner of the building, "Right around the corner," he said. "You'll find the Book X in the basement." She smiled, thanked him, and walked to the corner of the building, made a sharp left turn, read the sign, and disappeared into the Book "X".

Grant Of $61,560 Given Dr. John K. Spitznagel

A Senior Research Fellowship grant of $61,560 from the U. S. Public Health Service has been made to Dr. John K. Spitznagel of the Department of Bacteriology and Immunology of the UNC Schools of Dentistry and Medicine.

The grant will cover a five-year study of "Metabolic Aspects of Bacterial Ecology in Host Tissues." This is the fourth Senior Research Fellowship to be awarded to faculty members in the School of Medicine within a year by the Public Health Service.

The other three grants, totaling $164,000, went to Dr. R. D. Langdell, assistant professor of pathology; Dr. Billy Baggett, assistant professor of pharmacology and Dr. Ira Fowler, assistant professor of anatomy.

Columbia Graduate

Dr. Spitznagel did his undergraduate work at Columbia University and received his M.D. degree from the Columbia University College of Physicians and Surgeons in 1946. His internship was served at Johns Hopkins and he received his residency training at Barnes Hospital, Washington University, St. Louis.

During his internship and resident training, Dr. Spitznagel served two years as assistant instructor and investigator at the Army Medical Department Research and Graduate School of Washington, D. C. During 1950-51 he served 30 months in Japan as assistant chief of medical service of the 141st General Hospital.

During 1952-53 Dr. Spitznagel was visiting investigator with Dr. Rene Dubos of the Rockefeller Institute for Medical Research in New York City. Prior to joining the UNC faculty this past fall, he was chief of medical service at the U. S. Army Hospital, Fort Bragg.

Author

Dr. Spitznagel is the author of a number of articles that have been published in scientific journals. These deal with his work in immunogenic properties of typhoid Bacillus, the production of experimental kidney infection and hypertension in rats, a chemical fraction of the tubercle Bacillus possessing primary toxicity and the treatment of the nervous complications of mumps with adrenal hormones.

Carolina fan driving around the campus with black mourning bows decorating his UNC No. 1 license plate.

Coed coming to an abrupt halt at the door of one of the rooms of Wilson Library and gasping aloud: "Oh, no!" only to discover that the smoke filling the room was not the work of a firebug but from students' cigarettes.

Student emerging from local eating establishment, raising his umbrella on seeing the wet street, only to realize that the street washing truck had just passed by.

Sign on Y-Court bulletin board: "Going out of business sale. Moving to cooler climate. This one's too hot! For sale cheap; class excuses (prices listed); with every 15 excuses, you get a free rubber stamp."

Tonight, Friday

Cast Named For Three Productions Carolina Playmakers Are Presenting

Three new one-act plays by student authors will be presented tonight and tomorrow night in the Playmakers Theatre at 7:30. The plays are the work of graduate students in the Department of Dramatic Art and are a student function of the department.

The first of the plays is entitled "Fairy Beauty," and is written by George H. Hill Jr. of Robbinville.

Directed by Rose Cristoff of Newark, N. J., the play features Donna Hastings, Colin Ferguson, Lew Hardee, Margaret Starnes, Kay Rogers, Bob Keller, Judy Rosenzweig, Ken Collender, Harvey Knox and Barbara Battle.

It is a comedy, set in the Almola Cafe in Tennessee. Settings have been designed by Taylor Williams.

The second play is "The Eternal Thread," set in a hut just north of the 38th parallel in Korea, early in the autumn of 1955. Its author, Gun-sam Lee is a native of Seoul, Korea.

The play is directed by Albert Gordon, of Greensboro, with a set design by John Sneden, Tenafly, N. J. In the cast are Carl Hinrichs, Sodsai Vanij-Vadhana, John William Hannah, Dorothy Walters, Mary Vann Finley and James Tyndall.

The final show on the bill is "A White Butterfly," written by Gabriela Roepke of Santiago, Chile, with an English translation by Thomas Patterson, associate professor of dramatic art.

Directed by James Heldman, Durham, the cast includes Amanda Meiggs, Anthony Harvey, Keen O'Sullivan, Taylor Williams, Lucy Ann Dunlap and Oliver Bloomer. The setting, the Lost and Found office of Bimbleburger's Department Store, is designed by John Whitty, New Bern.

Admission to the plays is fr.e.

news in brief

Missile Program

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—The United States has geared its long range missile program to the idea that Russia is ahead in the field, Secretary of Defense McElroy told Congress today.

While the Defense Department does not have positive evidence that Russia is out in front, McElroy informed the House Armed Services Committee. It is taking no chances in such a critical area.

At another congressional inquiry into the defense effort, David Sarnoff, board chairman of the Radio Corporation of America, said billions more must be spent under unified military leadership to meet the Soviet space age challenge.

Robbery Attempt

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif., Jan. 15 (AP)—A man identified as Melvin Russell Blair, 42, a retired Army lieutenant colonel from Alexandria, Va., attempted to take at gunpoint an estimated $100,000 in Bing Crosby Golf Tournament receipts early today, Sheriff's Capt. D. V. Smith said.

The officer added that Sheriff's Deputy Tom Martin, who was guarding two safes containing the receipts, across the street from the Del Monte Lodge, grappled with the gunman and disarmed him. Martin, however, suffered powder burns from the pistol flashes as the weapon discharged during the man-to-man combat.

Camera

BERLIN, Jan. 15 (AP)—A Communist court in East Berlin today sentenced Dr. Walter Steinberg, of Alhambra, Calif., to 10 months imprisonment on charges of illegally buying a camera in the soviet-run sector.

The 35-year-old chiropodist, who has been in jail since last September, was given seven days to appeal the verdict.

Steinberg, pale and looking shocked, shook his head as the Communist judge handed down the sentence. He wore a rumpled grey suit. His guards had taken away his necktie and shoelaces, a routine precaution to prevent any suicide attempt.

Race

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla., Jan. 15 (AP)—The Army-Navy race to shoot the first American "spatnik" aloft is believed to be nearing a decision tonight behind the iron curtain of security that surrounds the missile test center here.

Best guess seemed to be that the Navy would be the first to fire, sending its Vanguard "moon" rocket up near the end of next week.

The Army's satellite-packing Jupiter-C missile is expected to trail the Vanguard into distant space by several days.

'Knock Heads'

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15 (AP)—Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson (D-Tex.) said today that action to "knock some heads together" at the Pentagon might produce more missiles.

The Democratic leader of the Senate said such firm action might be more effective than a reorganization of the defense department.

Johnson, who heads the Senate Preparedness Subcommittee investigating the missile program, told reporters he foresees "considerable difficulty" ahead in President Eisenhower's announced plans to reshuffle the military system.

GM SLATE

The following activities are scheduled for Graham Memorial today: Election Board, 4-5 p. m., Grail Room; Student Council, 7-11 p. m., Grail Room; Rules Committee, 4-5 p. m., Roland Parker 1; SP Caucus, 7-7:30 p. m., Roland Parker 1; Audit Board, 4-6 p. m., Woodhouse Conference Room; UP, 6:30-7:30 p. m., Woodhouse Conference Room; Tri la'a, 9:30-11 p. m., Woodhouse Conference Room; Women's Honor Council, 8:45-10 p. m., Council Room.