

Campus Chest Drive Ends Today—Needs $600 To Reach Goal

WEATHER

Mostly fair and cool today.
Thursday, mostly cloudy and cool with occasional rain likely.

The Daily Tar Heel

FORUM

Tonight is your opportunity to hear both sides on the honor council proposal says Ed on pg. 2.

VOL. LXV NO. 108

Offices in Graham Memorial

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 5, 1958

Complete Wire Service

FOUR PAGES THIS ISSUE

ARTHUR MILLER'S CONTROVERSIAL TRAGEDY
L to R, Page Williams & Margaret Starnes

news in brief

Disability Proposal

WASHINGTON, March 4 (AP) — A group of Democratic and Republican senators introduced today a constitutional amendment that would supplant the disability arrangement between President Eisenhower and Vice President Nixon.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif.) said the proposal is "generally acceptable" to the Eisenhower Administration. President Eisenhower called for an amendment two years ago after he suffered the first of three serious illnesses—his 1955 heart attack.

Wetzel Trial

SANFORD, March 4 (AP) — The second murder trial of convicted cop killer Frank Edward Wetzel recessed early today as lawyers exhausted a special list of prospective jurors.

Musicales Show Set Tonight

The program for tonight's Petites Musicales concert will include selections by Locatelli and Scarlatti for viola and harpsichord.

The concert will be held at 8 p.m. in Gerrard Hall and will feature Paul Doktor, concert violinist, and Rafael Puyana, harpsichordist. Admission to the concert is free.

The program includes the following: Sonata in G Minor by Locatelli; Andante in D Major by Tartini; Five French Dances by Marais. Those selections will be performed by Doktor and Puyana.

Harpsichord solos include: Ballo d'Amore by Pichchi; La Volta by William Byrd; Les Buffons by John Bull and Three Sonatas by Scarlatti. The viola solo will be Passacaille by Alfred Pochon.

Room Deadline For Coeds Near

March 12 is the final date when coeds can make reservations for rooms for the following summer sessions and fall semester.

The coed must go to the basement of South Building and pay a ten dollar deposit for each term. She then receives a receipt which she will take to the dormitory hostess or desk girl between 8 p. m. and closing time. She then completes her registration in her dormitory.

Room deposits for the fall term cannot be refunded after Aug. 15, but deposits for the summer terms are refundable until one week in advance of registration day of that term.

To cancel a reservation the student should go to the Dean of Women or submit a written request to the dean's office.

Playmakers To Present 'View From The Bridge'

Arthur Miller's controversial tragedy, "A View From The Bridge," is to be presented by the Carolina Playmakers in The Playmakers Theatre, March 12-16 at 8:30 p.m.

The play, unlicensed for public performance by London's Lord Chamberlain, nevertheless enjoyed a successful run in the English capital through the efforts of the New Watergate Theatre Club. In spite of its alleged sensationalism, the London critics were highly pleased with this presentation of a new slice of Americana.

Note Of Astonishment

In the words of playwright Miller, the story of Brooklyn longshoremen "is not designed primarily to draw tears or laughter from an audience but to strike a particular note of astonishment at the way in which a man will endanger and lose his very life."

The Playmaker presentation will feature Ken Callendar as Eddie, Page Williams as Beatrice, Margaret Starnes as Catherine, John Sneed as Alfieri, Albert C. Gordon as Marco and Harvey Knox as Rodolpho.

Cast

Also in the cast are George Manasse, Jim Potter, Bill Pfefferkorn, Bill White, Dan Linney, Ed Madden, Ann Brooke, Ross Baumstone, Carl Hinrichs.

Tickets for this production are now on sale in The Playmakers Business Office, 214 Abernethy Hall, and Ledbetter-Pickard. All seats are reserved at $1.50.

Class Rings

Members of the Order of the Grail will take orders for class rings from juniors and seniors today.

The sale will be held in Y Court today from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Morehead To Present Scholarships Today

The $3,000,000 Morehead Foundation will award an additional number of scholarships to high school students today with John Motley Morehead personally making the awards on WUNC-TV, the University's educational television station, at 5:30 p.m.

There will be a repeat telecast tonight at 9 o'clock.

The Morehead Scholarships, styled after the Rhodes Scholarships but adapted to the undergraduate level, are among the most generous scholarships awarded in American higher education today—$5,000 per student for four years at UNC in Chapel Hill.

Fifty-four outstanding high school and preparatory school seniors were in Chapel Hill Monday being interviewed by a screening committee of which Morehead is chairman.

At total of 144 scholars have been chosen since the Morehead Foundation began selecting scholars in 1951.

The scholarships are given with

Scholarship Deadline

Today at noon is the deadline for application of a 1958-59 Goettingen Scholarship.

Application blanks for this scholarship to study in Germany are available at the Student Government Office, the YMCA Information Office and the office of the Director of Student Activities in South Building.

out regard to financial need. However, some of the boys who are chosen actually are young men who would not otherwise be able to attend college without extra financial assistance. Scholars are chosen on a basis of scholarship, leadership, courage, truthfulness and qualities of manhood.

John Motley Morehead of Rye, N. Y., is a native North Carolinian who started Union Carbide and Carbon Company, gave the University the Morehead Building and Planetarium, Morehead Sun Dial and one half of the Morehead-Patterson Bell Tower.

By CHARLIE SLOAN

A statement, "brought out in an effort to get everyone to stop and reconsider the effects which a delayed rush system would have upon everyone concerned" was released yesterday by the Interfraternity Council.

Signed by the IFC Rush Committee and endorsed by the council, the statement contained several reasons against delayed rush.

"First and most important," said the report, is the economic factor involved in the problem. "The house bills of each fraternity man would have to be raised in order for the house to break even under such

Special Session Moves To Table Amendment To Honor Council Bill

Honor Court Open Forum Set Tonight

An open forum discussion on the proposed honor system court changes will be held tonight at 8 o'clock in Carroll Hall auditorium.

The forum is being sponsored by the Forum Committee of Graham Memorial Activities Board, headed by Bill Jones.

Sonny Evans, student body president, will present the views of the proponents of the proposed changes. George Ragsdale, chairman of the Men's Honor Council, will speak against the changes.

Sonny Hallford, student body attorney-general; Kit Whitehurst, chairman of the Women's Honor Council; and Dot Pressly, student body secretary, will be present on the stage to comment briefly on the proposed joint honor council and to answer any questions from persons attending the open discussion.

Urges Attendance

Benny Thomas, president of Graham Memorial Activities Board, yesterday urged students to attend the discussion.

He said, "There are many conflicts on this night, but I certainly hope the various organizations and individuals with conflicts will recognize the extreme and vital importance of the decision which is being placed before the student body, and that this is the only time that such a forum could be held."

Question Period

The discussion will begin with the two opposing viewpoints from Evans and Ragsdale. After comments from the three other students mentioned, the floor will be opened for questions and comment from the audience.

BILL REDDING
Outgoing IFC President

TUCKER YATES
New IFC President

IFC Names Tucker Yates President; Court Listed

Tucker Yates, an Alpha Tau Omega from Asheboro, was elected president of the Interfraternity Council Monday night.

Yates, a junior majoring in English, congratulated former president Bill Redding, Phi Gamma Delta from Asheboro, on the job he did with the IFC. He further declared his intention to seek a closer relationship among the member fraternities.

"The IFC is strongly aware of the responsibilities it must assume, and with the close cooperation of every member fraternity I feel sure that we will have a most successful and beneficial year."

In yielding the presidency to Yates, Redding commented, "I think the IFC has had an excellent year, and I wish to congratulate the members on their valuable contributions. We have made a definite step forward, and I am confident that Tucker Yates and the rest of the new executive committee will carry on and lead the IFC in a very successful year."

Other new officers elected Monday night were Vice President Walter Pitts; Kappa Alpha; Secretary Ben Keys; Sigma Alpha Epsilon; and Treasurer Ashe Exum, Sigma Nu.

The Interfraternity Court will consist of Bob Bender, Beta Theta Pi; Jerry Blumenthal, Zeta Beta Tau; Tom Rand, Delta Kappa Epsilon; and Grey Poole, Phi Delta Theta. The Court intends to elect a new chairman at its next meeting.

MARTHA PARSHLEY — Yesterday morning Martha Parshley was tapped by Valkyries, women's highest honorary organization at Carolina. Through a mix-up on the part of The Daily Tar Heel, another coed's picture was substituted for hers. The above picture is of Miss Parshley.

Y Meet Postponed

The open nomination meeting for YWCA executive nominations, originally scheduled for today at 4:30 p. m., has been postponed until Monday at 4:30 p.m., according to Belle Corey, president.

Point Of Legality Confutes Legislature

The Student Legislature voted last night to table an amendment to the Honor Council revision bill which stated, "alleged honor violations which shall arise from a case being tried in the Women's Council shall remain in this council."

The bill, which was introduced by Al Goldsmith (UP) and Pat Adams (SP), was to give clarification on cases where women violated the Honor Code during a social case trial.

Goldsmith made the motion to table the bill indefinitely. This action meant that the amendment could be taken off the table any time after this meeting.

Goldsmith's motion came after Jerry Oppenheimer (UP) questioned the legality of the amendment to the bill. Oppenheimer argued that the amendment was actually a matter of procedure to be determined by the procedure committee.

"I don't think there are more than three people who understand the question," he commented.

Leo Wardrup (UP) charged that the amendment was "strategically placed for a political purpose." He claimed that the amendment would sway the women voters.

Adams said that it was not right to charge expediency and that some Legislators were using every means possible against the amendment.

Student Body President Sonny Evans told the Legislators to charge the move as politically expedient if they liked, but that the real reason behind the amendment was for clarification.

He said that if the bill was tabled then the campus would remain confused.

Goldsmith said that questions had arisen which he did not foresee when writing the amendment. He explained that the meeting had reached "a legal impasse."

Before the discussion arose over the tabling of the amendment, the merits and faults of the bill were discussed.

If it becomes necessary to alter the amendments to the Student Constitution, now before the students for a campus wide vote on Tuesday, then the day of voting for the amendments can be changed until March 13. Bob Carter said.

"I think we are attempting to define every conceivable point and in attempting to do so we are losing sight of the general intent of the bill and becoming bogged down in legal questions," Don Furtado, Student Legislature Speaker, said.

Negro Gets Life For Assaulting Coach's Wife

WINSTON-SALEM, March 4 (AP) — A husky Negro service station attendant today pleaded guilty to raping the pretty wife of a Wake Forest College basketball coach and was sentenced to life imprisonment.

(See Assault Page Three)

Honor Council Suspends Two Coed Students

Two coeds have been suspended for violations of the Honor Code, according to the tri-monthly report of the Women's Honor Council released this week by Kit Whitehurst, chairman of the council.

During the past three months, the council tried 14 cases involving violations of social rules, seven cases involving Honor Code violations and one case involving a violation of the Campus Code.

The cases tried for social rule violations involved careless mistakes on sign-out slips, such as statement of date of return; lateness over one hour; and accumulation of six house council offenses. The cases tried for violation of the Honor Code were:

One dismissal because of lack of evidence on a charge of lying before Women's Honor Council during a trial for a social rules violation; One indefinite probation given to a coed charged with lying to her dormitory house president after having helped a girl enter the dorm illegally;

One six weeks social probation and official reprimand handed down on a charge of lying to the dormitory house president after having entered the dorm illegally;

One dismissal because of lack of evidence on charges of violations of the Honor Code and Campus Code;

Suspension of a coed charged with plagiarizing on an English paper; Suspension of a coed charged with lying in falsifying her sign-out slip, stating a destination where she did not go (this girl was on indefinite probation at the time of her trial); and

A sentence of 10 days campus and a council reprimand handed down to a coed charged with falsifying her sign-out slip such that while she allegedly stayed in Durham, returned to Chapel Hill and neglected to change her destination. No violation of the honor code was found in this case, but rather a violation of the social rules in that the coed did not obtain special permission to stay in a private home in Chapel Hill and did not observe closing hours during her visit.

IN THE INFIRMARY

Students in the infirmary yesterday included:

Misses Jean McCauley, Margaret Whitehurst, Jo Ann Mills, Mayne Porter, Marcia Wells, Hope Sparger and Robbie Cecile Martin and Edwin Cathell, PaKey Crist, Glenn Pickard, Richard De-tanna, Thomas Hunnicutt, Joseph Atkins, William Marsh, Lee Weinstein, Myron Snotherly, Joel Caldwell, James Early and Charles Ross.

IFC Endorses Measure Against Delayed Rushing

By CHARLIE SLOAN

A statement, "brought out in an effort to get everyone to stop and reconsider the effects which a delayed rush system would have upon everyone concerned" was released yesterday by the Interfraternity Council.

Signed by the IFC Rush Committee and endorsed by the council, the statement contained several reasons against delayed rush.

"First and most important," said the report, is the economic factor involved in the problem. "The house bills of each fraternity man would have to be raised in order for the house to break even under such a system. This would cause many men to drop out of fraternities."

According to the release, a more complete statement with supporting facts concerning this problem will be issued later.

Dirty Rushing

Dirty rushing "would be unstoppable" if the strict silence period were abolished, and active rushing would continue for an entire semester. The statement asked if this "would not greatly increase the frustration of the freshmen."

The statement pointed out that nearly every freshman entering the University has some knowledge of fraternities and fraternity life. Last year a majority of the fraternity interest cards turned in carried the names of fraternities. "Very few cards were left blank."

The possibilities of a three or four day rush period at the beginning of the second semester is being considered by the Rush Committee, the statement said. This period would enable fraternities to have "another look" at men interested in fraternities and would give the rushees another chance to visit the fraternities.

Under a delayed rush, the amount of time consumed by both fraternity men and rushees and the strain in each trying to impress the other would be detrimental to both sides. A second part of the statement was concerned with problems resulting after rushing has concluded.

Pledge Training

Much of the effect of pledge training, designed to train the pledges to work as a unit to make the fraternity more effective during the pledges' senior year, would be wasted if summer vacation interrupted the training period.

Since some fraternities require more than one semester of pledge training, delayed rush would force the pledge period to extend into the fall of the following year, and break up the program.

"We feel that fraternities help a freshman to 'settle down.' The most strict emphasis is placed upon a pledge's making good grades."

The statement pointed out that most fraternities have some sort of enforced study program and that the brothers help as tutors in courses giving pledges difficulty.

Big Brother System

Big brother system, a program of pledge counseling used in the fraternities, also helps the freshman in adjusting to University and fraternity life.

The statement also asked if "with the present crowded living conditions would the dormitories be able to hold for a whole semester all the freshmen plus the fraternity men who would move into the dorms to contact these rushees?"