

Tar Heels Defeat Canisius With Two Big Innings, 10-5

By RUSTY HAMMOND

Carolina exploded for nine runs in two big innings yesterday to trounce Canisius College 10-5, giving them their eighth win of the year against five losses.

The opening frame saw every Tar Heel in the line-up go to the plate, and four runs poured across before and flood and halted. Gerald Griffin reached first on a fielder's choice and stole second, then came in on Al Pons' ringing triple. Pons romped in on John Burgwyn's single. Vaughn Bryson then added another single, moving Pons to third. Captain Rog Honeycutt then cleared the sacks with another single.

The Tar Heels added five more in the third on four hits and an error. Carson Oldham, Bryson, Tommy Saintings, Bruce Crump, and starting hurler Ben Hammett crossed the plate for Carolina.

Hammett was very effective over the first four frames, allowing only one hit. But the fifth brought woe to Big Ben as five Canisius runs score on only one base hit. An error and five walks provided most of the fireworks. Dave Floyd, who was the winning moundman, came on in the fifth with the bases full and nobody out. Floyd struck out two and got a third on a grounder in a good clutch performance.

One For Good Measure

Carolina added one for good measure in the eighth on a one-man show by Gerald Griffin. Griffin singled, stole second, went to third a tremendous slide, and tagged up and scored on a short fly to center.

Floyd allowed only three hits over his five inning stint, and two of them came in the ninth. The Tar Heel infield pitched in with two double plays to add to the occasion.

Big Games Coming

Carolina has two big games coming up next week. The Tar Heels travel to Duke Tuesday, and meet tough State here next Thursday. The Heels haven't forgotten who beat them in the finals of the Dixie Classic.

Baldwin Leads After 36

GREENSBORO — Al Baldwin, professional of Markham, Ontario, birdied five of the last nine holes yesterday for his second 68 and the early 36-hole lead in the $15,000 Greensboro Open golf tournament.

Baldwin's 136 total at the half-way mark led Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., by three shots. Snead had a two under par 69 today, finishing with an eagle three on the 18th for a 139 total.

Track Team Overpowers Gamecocks

COLUMBIA — (AP) — Billy Latham, South Carolina's outstanding distance runner, smashed two school records Saturday but North Carolina came out on the big end of an Atlantic Coast Conference track meet, 72-59.

Latham won the one-mile in a sizzling 4:19.0, and the two-mile at 9:46.0. The times eclipsed the school 1954 records of 4:24.4 and 9:54.3 set by Garn McBride.

On both occasions Latham trailed Tar Heel ace Wayne Bishop going into the stretch but staged tremendous sprints to win by comfortable margins.

Teh Gamecocks won seven of the nine running events but fell back in the field events. North Carolina swept three places in the discus, javelin and half-mile run to establish superiority.

Old Time Track Reunion Set For Virginia Meet

Another reunion similar to those previously held in football and basketball, is planned for old time Carolina athletic stars.

On this occasion it will be the trackmen of some of the earliest distinguished teams who will come back to their alma mater, renew old acquaintances and see the modern version of their sport.

Carolina track coach Dale Ranson announced today that the reunion will be for the Tar Heel track teams of 1910-1914, coached by Nat Cartmell and which won a string of state championships.

The two-day reunion will be on April 23-24, and on the second day the old timers, most of them highly prominent citizens in this and other areas, will witness the Virginia-Carolina track meet on Fetzner Field.

FROSH TENNIS

The freshman tennis match against State yesterday was cancelled and will be rescheduled either Wednesday or Friday. The frosh netters meet the Chapel Hill Tennis Club on the home courts this afternoon.

PETE BRENNAN Honored At Banquet . . .

Basketball Team Feted At Banquet

Tribute was paid to the 1957-58 Carolina basketball squad last night at the team's annual banquet sponsored by the Athletic Association and the Chapel Hill Athletic Club.

Both varsity and freshman squads were honored at the elaborate fete in Lenoir Hall, but the big moment came when Tommy Kearns was named the recipient of the coveted Fay Roverson Medal for contributing the most for the morale of the team. Selected for the honor by his team mates, Kearns was given the award by University Chancellor William Aycock. Kearns was also presented a certificate for being named on the district three all-star team.

In addition Brennan was presented two special awards, the Flucie Stewart award of the Atlantic Coast Sports Writers Association for being selected as the ACC "basketball player of the year" and an inscribed gold watch from Look Magazine for being picked on the All-American team by the United States basketball writers association. Jake Wade, University sports public director, made the presentations.

School and athletic officials, CAC members and guests, approximately 200 in all, attended the elaborate fete. Athletic Director Chuck Erickson presented monograms to eleven members of the squad; Brennan, John Crotty, Bob Cunningham, Tommy Kearns, Dick Kepley, Danny Lotz, Grey Poole, Harvey Salz, Roy Searcey, Lee Shaffer, Ray Stanley, and Manager Jim McDavid.

The senior members were presented Chapel Hill Athletic Club plaques by club president Victor Huggins, who was chairman for the banquet.

Tommy Kearns was presented a certificate for being named on the NCAA district three all-star team. Coach Frank McGuire praised the team for its fine play and determination during the season and said it did an excellent job in compiling a 19-7 record and winning the Dixie Classic. Freshman Coach Ken Rosemond paid tribute to his freshman team.

Roy Armstrong, University dean of admissions, was toastmaster, and spoke seriously and in a humorous vein.

Movie highlights of the 1957's national championship win over Kansas were shown and a combo played for dancing after the banquet.

Golf, Tennis Monday

Monday afternoon the varsity tennis and golf teams return to action by meeting State and Davidson respectively. Both of the matches are away; the netters travel to Raleigh while the golfers journey to Charlotte.

Vladimir Cernik's tennis team will be gunning for its fifth win of the season and Atlantic Coast Conference victory number two. In their last outing the netters whipped Wake Forest 9-0.

IN THE TWENTIES, up-to-date college gals wore raccoon coats, danced the Charleston and smoked Luckies. What's the rage on campus today? Raccoon coats. The Charleston. And Luckies! The conclusions are obvious. 1. Luckies were tops for taste in the Twenties and still are. 2. Smart smokers knew it and still do. So any gal who takes Luckies to a Roaring 20's party is a Dapper Flapper! And by George, the boy friend who sports 'em, too, is a Couth Youth! Prediction: In the 1980's, raccoon coats, the Charleston and light, good-tasting tobacco will still be in style!
