PRETTYING UP THE GLEE CLUB—Above are the young ladies of the Hollins College Women's Chorus from Hollins, Va. They will appear tonight at 8 in Hill Hall in conjunction with the UNC Men's Glee Club for a performance of Gilbert and Sullivan's "Mikado."

Spring Germans Get Underway This Evening With Les Brown

By BILL THOMPSON
Spring Germans will swing into action tonight from 9 till 1 at Woolen Gym with Les Brown and his Band of Renown providing the downbeat to start the big weekend festivities.

"The dance should be the best yet," stated Mark Cherry, president of the Germans Club, when commenting on the appearance of the Les Brown Band.

The band has been featured on the Bob Hope television show for several years in California where it spends nine months of the year. The other three months are spent

Late Permission

A joint decision by the WRC and the Dean of Women has given Carolina coeds two o'clock permission after the Germans dance Friday night, Lillian Shannonhouse, WRC chairman, disclosed Wednesday.

in engagements around the country, usually playing for college dances. The Band of Renown has played for more college dances than any other band in America.

Brown holds the record at the Hollywood Palladium for the number of engagements. He also holds the attendance record for this famous Hollywood ballroom.

This is the second appearance of Les Brown in the last several years. He was featured in the Germans here two years ago.

Along with the band will be comedian vocalist Butch Stone; trombonist Stumpy Brown, and vocalist Laurie Johnson, a new singer with the Band of Renown.

All those men planning to attend the dance have been reminded that dinner jackets will be required.

Memorial Hill will be the scene tomorrow afternoon, when the Third Herd, Woody Herman's famous jazz orchestra, presents the German's concert at 3 p.m.

Featured in the concert will be the Al Belletto Sextet, trombonist Bill Harris, and vocalist Jerri Winters.

Fans of the Belletto Sextet's phonograph records will be pleased to hear a number of these selections play at intervals throughout the concert. One of the top ranking small combos in the music business, the Sextet will be playing on its own expressing themselves in the special instrumental and vocal arrangements that have made them famous. Singer Jerri Winters, formerly with Stan Kenton, will be featured with the group.

It May Not Appear Again in YOUR Lifetime. May 5.

GM SLATE

The following activities have been scheduled for today at Graham Memorial:

Glee Club Party, Rendezvous Room; Musical Program, 8-10 p.m., Main Lounge.

Bill Harris, for ten years winner of the Down Beat poll as top jazz trombonist, will be one of the featured instrumentalists with the Ferman band. In recent years,

Glee Club And Girls Offer 'Mikado' Tonight

Hill Hall will witness the oriental harmony of Gilbert and Sullivan's Mikado when the combined voices of the UNC Men's Glee Club and their weekend guests, Hollins College Chorus, present the operetta tonight at 8.

The 30-piece ensemble, under the direction of Dr. Joel Carter, Glee Club director, will also offer separate programs of song following the 40-minute presentation of Mikado.

The cast of performers includes: Donald Nance as The Mikado; Richard Petterson as Nanki-Poo; James Tyndall as Poo-bah; Dr. Carter as Ko-ko; and Richard Gerish as Pish-Tush. The part of Katishawa will be portrayed by Jo Jurgensen of Chapel Hill. Clara Lewis of Hollins Chorus will portray the part of Yum-Yum.

Glee Club President Charles Shoe remarked yesterday that, "We hope that many of the students planning to attend the Germans Dance tonight will drop by Hill Hall from 8 till 9 and watch our joint performance. The fee is nominal and will go only to defray the expenses

Student Gov't Appointments Are Still Open

Student body President Don Furtado has urged all persons interested in student government appointments to sign up for interviews in the Student Government office in Graham Memorial.

Appointments to be made include an Attorney General and two assistants plus a staff of eight men and six women; three members of the Consolidated University Council; a seventeen member elections board; a six member NSA committee; Campus Chest co-chairmen; a seven member library committee; a three member campus stores committee; a committee to pick the editor of the campus humor magazine and a traffic advisory commission and committee.

Other appointments include: ten cabinet members; the membership of the dance committee; the audit board; three seats, one year, two year and three year, on the Graham Memorial board of directors; a student council member; a campus traffic board; a Victory Village Veterans Affairs Commission; and the Honor System Commission.

The Carolina Forum, the high school honor system, the summer school student government, the NSA delegation to the national convention in August and the clerks of the Men's and Women's council are also on the list of appointments to be made.

Harris has been one of the featured stars with jazz at the Philharmonic and has toured the United States, Europe and the Far East with that group.

Sunday Set For Wesley Weekend

"Who Is My Neighbor" will be the theme of the Wesley Weekend to be held Sunday at the University Methodist Church.

Dr. Waldo Beach, professor of Christian Ethics at Duke Divinity School, will deliver a sermon "And Who is My Neighbor?" Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Church.

Other activities scheduled include a discussion on "What Does the Bible Say About Race?" at 9:30 a.m. in the Church basement, lunch and discussion in Lenoir Hall at 12:30 p. m., and a student panel on "What Can Be Done To Better Race Relations in the South?" in the Church basement at 5:45 p.m.

Dr. Waldo Beach, professor of Christian Ethics at Duke Divinity School, will deliver a sermon "And Who is My Neighbor?" Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Church.

J-School Softball Game Has Gun-Toting Umps

By ANN FRYE
Gun-totin' umpires kept order Wednesday when the senior journalism majors beat the juniors 34-9 in a nine-inning softball game on the Camp New Hope field.

Behind-the-plate umpire Stuart Sechrist fired caps repeatedly at players and spectators who flung wild bats, had tantrums and shot firecrackers.

The seniors led all the way, with pitcher Buzz Merritt allowing only nine hits. Senior coach Ray Smith said the game was so successful, he hopes the tradition will continue.

Junior coach George Hord had no comment.

Before the game started, players and spectators were told Dean Luxon (of J-School) sent his regrets that he was unable to be present to throw out the first ball. Shades of Hollywood prevailed as players sported sun glasses, burmuda shorts, golf caps and unfilled pipes. Umpire Sechrist performed the almost impossible task of smoking a cigar through his mask.

Major leagueless scouts commented favorably on the game. The most promising player, they agreed, was four-year-old Lynnie Sullivan, pinch-hitter for the juniors and son of senior slugger,

IFC Asks Upper Quad Cellars As Social Areas

Rudy Edwards, new president of the Interdormitory Council, outlined the main objectives of the IDC in the year to come in a speech before the body Wednesday night.

The IDC would like to have the basements of the dorms in the upper quad, which are now used as storage space by the University, turned into game rooms with space for pingpong tables and vending machines. Signs indicating the location of the various dorms should also be put up to guide visitors to the campus.

Edwards noted that Dean Fred Weaver was speaking to the body later in the evening on the proposed counselor system, which he thought the IDC should support. In a later vote the IDC postponed decision on this matter until next meeting.

The Dorm Sweetheart Contest should be upgraded into an important beauty contest, Edwards said.

He stated that the IDC should work for a better-coordinated social program, possibly including the purchase of a cabin for parties. The present 75c social fee should be raised to $1.00 per man. The IDC would like to buy a piano for Cobb Basement for dances to be held there, so that a piano will not have to be rented from Graham Memorial every time one is needed.

The intramural program could possibly be revitalized by placing Phys. Ed. majors in the dorms to direct dorm teams. Also the new dormitories near the hospital will need to be integrated into the campus, with a responsible student administration in charge. (See SOCIAL Page Three)

Jaycees Invite Students To Join Road-E-O

Chapel Hill Jaycees have invited Carolina students between the ages of 16 and 19 who hold drivers' licenses to take part in a driving Road-E-O tomorrow.

There will be two parts to the contest. The first part will be a written test in Woolen Gym at 10:45 a.m. The second part, which is driving skill, will be held at 2 p.m.

The driving skill test will be held on The Intramural field. Cars to be used will be furnished. The official will be Judge William Stewart.

The winners of the Chapel Hill contest will be sent to the state contest. The winner of the state contest will be sent to a national meet in Washington, D. C. First prize at the national meet is a $2,000 scholarship.

The contest is open to women as well as men in the 1 to 19 year age group.

For information concerning the contest interested persons may contact Jaycee Peter Vanstoy or Darwin Bell, chairman of the Road-E-O committee.

Solons Pass 4 Bills, Fill Board Seats

By DAVE JONES

Last night the student legislature passed four bills. Dennis Rinzier's (SP) Bill to ask for the paving of the walk from the corner of Raleigh Road and Raleigh Street to the steps behind Lenoir Hall was passed by unanimous vote. A resolution commending the immediate past student body executive officers was also passed by a unanimous vote when its author, Rep Roger Foushee (SP), asked for special orders. The third bill passed was one changing the manner of appointing the selections board which chooses the UNC delegates to the State Student Legislature. The two committee members previously appointed by the interim committee are now to be chosen by the Speaker of the legislature. And the fourth, was a bill to amend the Honor Council law requiring the chairman of the Honor Council Commission to sit in on jury selections and requiring a seven member selections committee. The committee was reduced in size to four, the chairman was relieved of the requirement of sitting on it, and was allowed to set up more than one committee to expedite selections.

A statement of policy introduced jointly by Speaker Ralph Cummings, SP floor leader Rudy Edwards and UP floor leader Dave Eiren was adopted by the body.

Dorm Counselor System Revamped For Next Semester

By AL RESCH

An experiment in improvement of residence hall living will be tried out on the University campus next fall.

The purpose of this program is to provide counseling assistance to freshman and sophomore students in the University.

The experimental program will start next year in the Lower Quad. In each of the lower quad dormitories, there will be a graduate counselor on each floor whose responsibility will be the improvement of dormitory life on each floor.

The plan was approved by Chancellor William Aycock about two weeks ago.

APO's Parents' Day To Have Full Schedule

The eighth annual Parent's Day celebration will be May 4. Appearing as a highlight at the event will be the internationally known U.S. Air Force Drill Team.

Other activities planned for the affair are to include special demonstrations and exhibits in various departments of the University. Visiting parents will be guided to points of interest on the campus.

The Alpha Phi Omega service fraternity is sponsoring the affair. A faculty reception during afternoon will be entertained by songs from the visitors.

A concert by the University band will conclude the day's activities.

According to Dean Weaver, dean of student affairs, the new plan of counseling is aimed at improving the general atmosphere of residence halls. "It is hoped that the counselor plan will be an aid to assist entering students and to extend advising services of the General College," he said.

Dean Weaver pointed out that of the entering freshmen at UNC, approximately 40 per cent graduate. He then added that it was hoped that the counselor system would increase the percentage of those entering as freshmen actually graduating.

In order to stress his point Dean Weaver gave the following facts concerning those students entering Carolina: 900 students entered the freshman class at UNC in 1953; out of that number 30 graduated prior to June 1957 and 294 students graduated in June 1957. In August 1957 or January 1958 some 57 students of the class graduated. In the spring of 1957, 144 were still enrolled.

From the 1953 class 133 were lost by scholastic ineligibility, 79 by withdrawal, 13 suspended, 3 to the Armed Forces and 147 dropped out.

In commenting on how the new counseling program would be financed, Weaver stated, "Dormitories must be self-sustaining out of (See LOWER QUAD, Page 3)

New 'Ram And Ewe' On Streets; Man On Street Is On Its Cover

By WYNDHAM HEWITT

The second issue of the University's humor magazine, Ram and Ewe, hit the news stands last Tuesday. The magazine is available at most of the news stands in Chapel Hill.

The Daily Tar Heel Staff regretfully declines the invitation to the dawn meeting of the University of North Carolina's Doubling and Shouting Club as announced in The Ram and Ewe. Instead we give an open invitation to anyone interested to join our staff of wheelers and dealers.

Ruth Hoffman, secretary of the Ram and Ewe said there will probably be one more issue this year.

The magazine has such features as "Expose of Russian Frat Party" and Eunice Euphoria's love lorn column. In the Russian Expose a reporter "tells all concerning evil Red orgy."

To add spice to the magazine many cartoons and jokes have been included. For the movie goer there is a column publicizing all the new flicks. The magazine also has a complete selection of ads. They range from those of the local merchants to those of a drunk rental service.

The cover of the publication has a picture of America's number one man on the street, Gordon Hathaway. Seeing this esteemed man's picture on the cover of the magazine has inspired a poll of the man on the street in Chapel Hill.

It is his opinion that the recent copy of Ram and Ewe is excellent. The magazine has been praised for its comedy, illustrations and stories. The only thing that seems to be a little confusing is, who is the man on the cover and why?

Some questions have arisen as to, "which professor was that on the cover?"

Some quotations from the Man On The Street in Chapel Hill include:

"The old Tarnation was better but this issue of Ram and Ewe begins to look more like a real humor magazine."

"Looks much more like a real magazine than the first one—Great improvement in quality and material."

"Art work excellent."

"This issue is thicker, the last one looked like two pieces of paper stapled together."

"Jokes are terrific."

No Squares Allowed

Sound and Fury will present "No Squares Allowed," directed by Cecil Hartsoe, May 2 and 3 at 8 p.m. in Memorial Hall.

The play, produced by G. C. Pridgen, will star Hannah Kirby, Hoke Simpson, Oliver Bloomer, Hope Sparger, Pete Flahive, and Larry Anderson.

The story centers around a sophisticated 20-year-old girl living in New York. Her father, a big time lawyer interested in advancing politically in the state, is hot on the trail of a crooked union boss named Ulysses Muffa who is in love with his daughter.

To complicate things Muffa has an ex-wife much larger than he who interferes with his passes at young Dorothy.

Dorothy, however, doesn't love Muffa but a musician named Harry.

The outcome of the play is very entertaining, according to Sound and Fury officials.

Music will be by Michael Dunn and Cecil Hartsoe.

The play was written by UNC students Jonathan Yardley and Michael Dunn. Tickets will 50c each.

Grad Club Supper Meet

The Graduate Club will have a supper meeting Monday, April 28. The speaker will be Tom Donnelly, a recent Ph.D. from the UNC Statistics Department, and now a research associate professor in the School of Public Health.

He will lead a discussion on the topic "Social Science—an art or a science."

All interested persons have been invited to attend the meeting.

Pi Lams Initiate Seven New Members

Seven new men have been initiated by Pi Lambda Phi Social Fraternity.

The new Pi Lams are Neil Lehman, Chevy Chase, Md.; Harvey Fleishman, Fayetteville; Bob Mogue, Roslyn Harbor, N. Y.; Josh Sirkin, Miami Beach, Fla.; Arthur Sandman, Asheville; Gerry Sher, Asheville and Danny Sharf, Great Neck, N. Y.

LAUGHING IT UP WITH SOUND AND FURY—Hannah Kirby and Hoke Simpson, who play leading roles in the all-student production, seem to be enjoying themselves in their parts.
