

Student Union Means Summer Fun For You

By KEN YOUNG

Many interesting activities will take place this summer in Graham Memorial Student Union according to Director Tom Lambeth.

He stated that GM will remain open throughout the summer with the exception of the short period between the end of the second session and the start of Orientation Week.

Probably the most newsworthy event taking place this summer in GM will be the arrival of Howard Henry from the University of Wisconsin, who will succeed Lambeth as Director.

He is currently assistant director of the College Union at the Wisconsin school and holds both a B.A. degree and a Masters. He is an officer in the National Association of Student Union Directors and will arrive in Chapel Hill around the first of July.

The Summer School Activities Board working out of GM will sponsor a free flick every Thursday night during both sessions.

There is also a good chance that a topflight entertainer will be here some time in the first session to present a program to interested students. Present plans call for someone along the lines of pianist and "funny man" Victor Borge.

New students will be particularly interested in the many facilities found in GM and will want to make use of them, as will veterans of Chapel Hill.

GM is the heart of the campus and provides each student an opportunity to enjoy his or her personal interests. Here we find a plush lounge on the first floor featuring the finest in high-fi sounds and all of the latest magazines. At the far end of the first level is a television lounge and a machine for dispensing coffee and cigarettes.

In the basement are a series of pool and ping pong tables providing the sportsman with an outlet for his energies. Here we also find the dark room available to all students and a barbershop. And let's not leave out the Rendezvous Room, where boy meets girl.

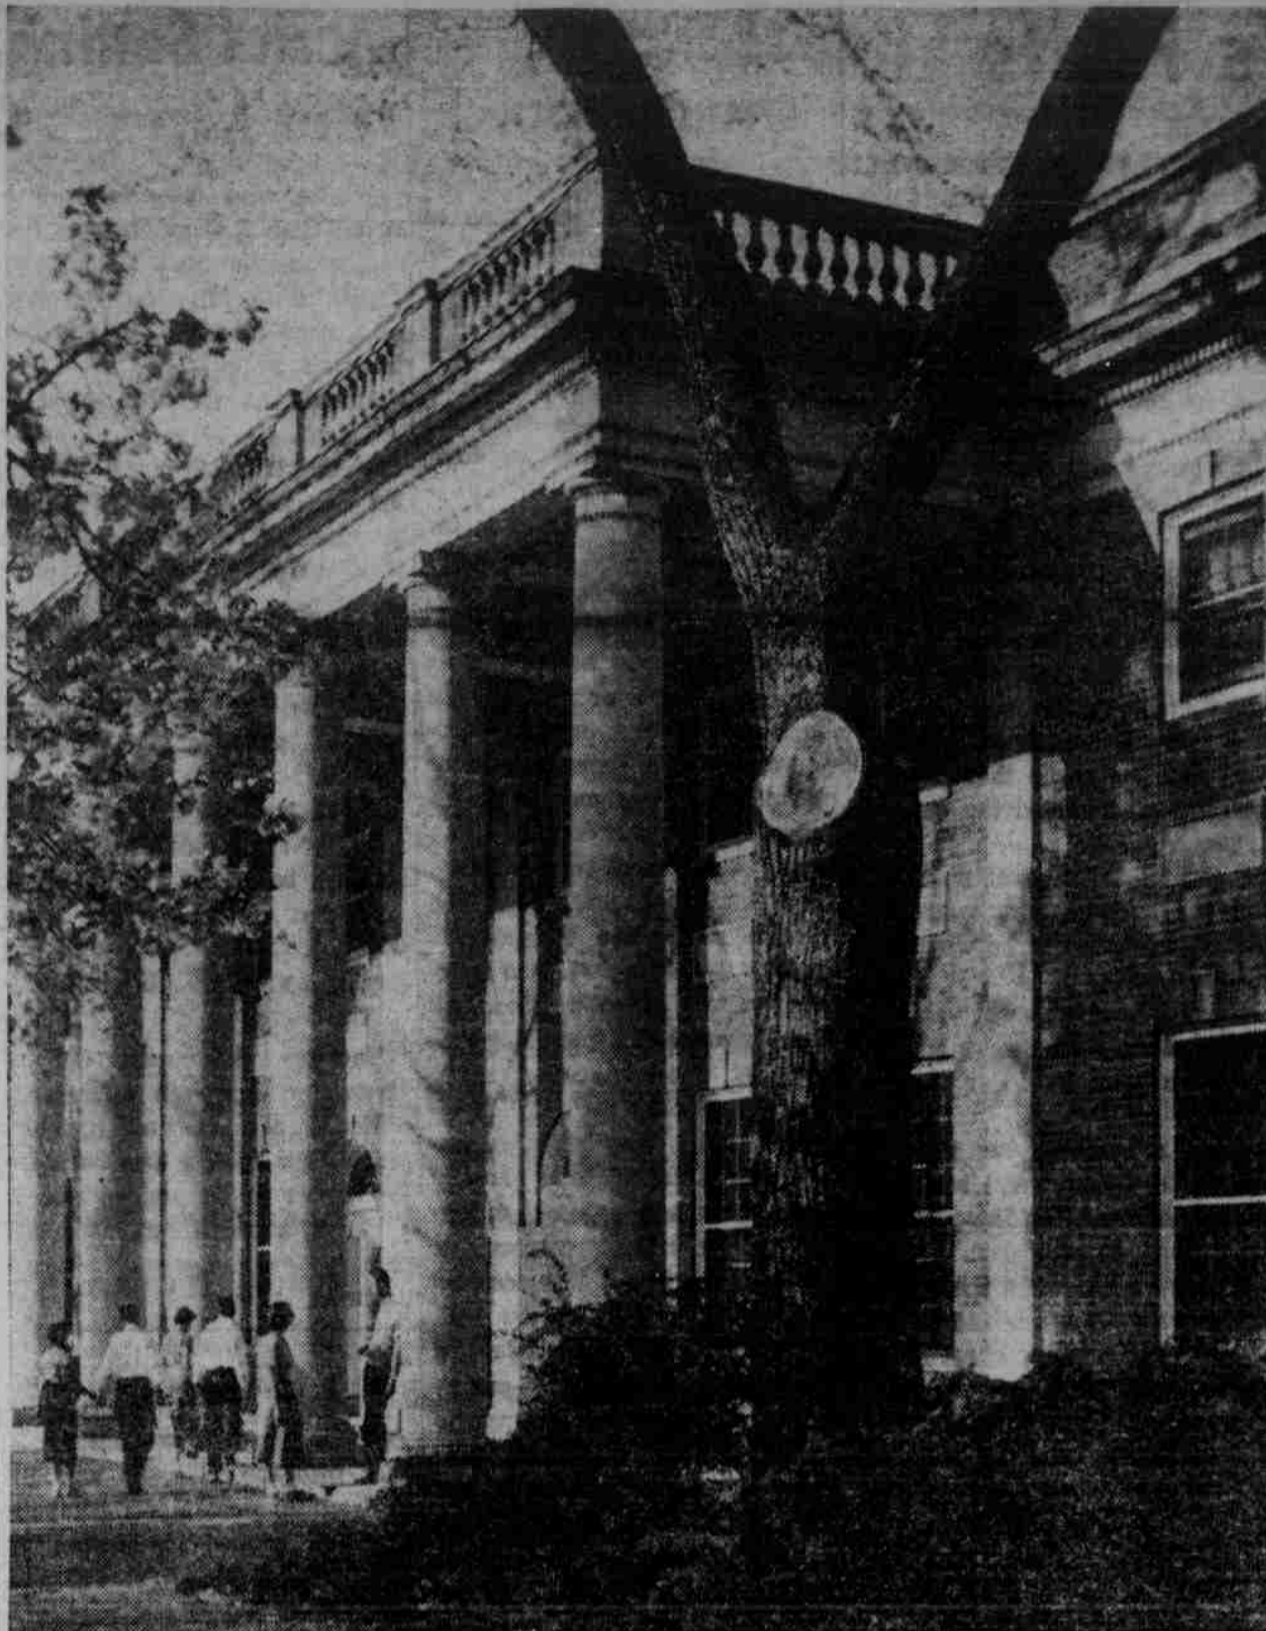

The second floor is the hub of campus power with all student government offices located here. Graham Memorial Activities Board, the President of the Student Body, Carolina Symposium, Orientation Committee, Honor Council, Order of the Grail and newspaper all have office space here. There are also the very convenient and pleasant Roland Parker Lounges and Woodhouse Conference Room, available for various meetings.

Whatever your interests, we'll look forward to seeing you in GM this summer.

Newspaper Is Looking For Summer Staff

"The Summer School Weekly is currently seeking staffers to serve for the first session. Many interesting and challenging positions are open for interested students," commented Editor Davis Young.

This summer the paper is to be printed on Fridays following the first issue today. It will consist of four pages most of the time, but one eight page extravaganza issue is now in the planning stage.

GRAHAM MEMORIAL—Scene of many campus activities. New students will find it a favorite rendezvous spot, whether for ping pong or Summer School student government work. With its varied recreation, it is the "hang out" of many.

Your Executives

Carolina Student Leaders

CURTIS B. GANS

Curtis B. Gans is currently serving as President of the Student Body at Carolina. The 21-year-old junior has long been a leader in the affairs of the campus.

Prior to his present summer job, Gans was elected editor of The Daily Tar Heel this spring. He has been in a variety of activities aside from this serving as a member of the Carolina Quarterly, Graham Memorial Activities Board, the Free Film Committee, the Foreign Film Committee, the Forum Committee, Petite Dramatique, the Newspaper Research Committee and the Young Democrats Club.

Gans stated: "Student Government implies a responsibility on the part of all students at the University. It is a responsibility that has been gladly taken by students in the past in order to obtain the measure of student autonomy that is now present on the campus.

In order to preserve this freedom and extend it to more students in the future, the aid of all of you is a necessary factor.

DOUG BAYLIFF

Doug Bayliff is the summer president of the Interdormitory Council, which will be working in close conjunction with the Summer School Activities Board.

Bayliff is a 20-year-old rising senior whose major is Business Administration. Since coming to Carolina three years ago, he has compiled an outstanding record in a wide variety of campus activities. He is a member of Delta Sigma Pi business fraternity and was recently inducted into the Interdormitory Council Honorary Society.

This spring he was elected vice president of the IDC and will serve in this office throughout next year.

He served this year as president of Mangum Dorm and has been a Freshmen Camp counselor and a member of the Bell Tower Parking Lot Committee, the Student Budget Committee and a dorm intramural manager. He will be an orientation counselor in the fall.

Bayliff's office is in New East Annex and he can be reached there during the day. Students who have problems pertaining to dormitory life are encouraged to see him there.

DAVIS YOUNG

Davis Young is currently serving as editor of the University paper here at Carolina. He is now a first semester sophomore and a journalism major.

The 19-year-old resident of Princeton, N. J., entered the University last fall and since that time has worked in several capacities for The Daily Tar Heel before being named editor of The Summer School Weekly. For the DTH Young has worked as a reporter, feature writer and columnist before taking over this spring as feature editor.

He has also been active in other fields, serving as a member of the Honor Council Jury, the Student Legislature Student Party, and Carolina Symposium Interim Committee.

This winter he worked for five months as newspaper publicity director for the Carolina Symposium. He served as editor of their Special Symposium Issue. In the fall he will be an orientation counselor. He is a member of the Chi Phi social fraternity.

His office is on the second floor of Graham Memorial and he can be reached there daily from 1 to 6 p.m. by calling 9-3361.

The Y.M.C.A. Is Planning Busy Summer

"The YMCA and the YWCA will be open throughout both sessions of summer school," says Anne Queen of the Y's staff.

The Y is planning a busy summer and will attempt to bring several outstanding personalities to the campus for appearances. Among them will be Michael Harrington of the Fund for the Republic. Harrington spoke here during Symposium Week in March and made a hit with the students.

Present plans call for him to arrive in Chapel Hill on July 4, and to stay for several days. While he is here students will have an opportunity to hear him on several occasions.

Another plan of the Y is to lead a trip to Manteo to see the "lost colony." This trip will probably be at some later date.

A series of three Y-nites, similar to the one recently held in early May, are also in the planning stage. They will feature musical entertainment and speakers, as well as food.

In the last part of July, ten Russian students will be here for a four-day visit. The visit is under the sponsorship of our Y. In preparation for it, a series of study seminars will be held to better acquaint the students with the background and heritage of the guests.

And if the student just wants a pencil, a check cashed or a Coke, the Y is still the place to go. Students will find the same friendly service awaiting them in the summer as always.

For those who want the "sun in the morning and the moon at night," the Y-Court is, as always, the rendezvous spot for Carolina's men and women.

(The following is a list of all important dates that the student body should be acquainted with for both sessions. Ed.)

June 5 — Registration Day
June 6 — The first day of classes
June 7 — Regular classes in all departments

July 7 — Doctoral dissertations for candidates for the August Commencement must be filed in the Graduate Office by this date.

July 11 — Last day of classes for the first session.

July 14-15 — Final Examinations according to schedule.

July 16 — Registration of new students.

July 17 — First day of classes.

July 19 — Regular classes in all departments.

July 28 — Master's Theses for August Commencement candidates must be filed in the Graduate Office by this date.

August 4 — Written examinations for Master's candidates for August may not be taken after this date.

August 21 — Last day of classes.

August 22-23 — Final examinations according to schedule.

MEETING

There will be a meeting on Monday of all persons interested in serving on the Summer School Activities Board at 3 p.m. in Roland Parker No. 1 in Graham Memorial according to Chairman Nelson Lavergne.