Cause Of Death Of Grad Student

UNC graduate student Mary Frances Kangley, 24, of Goshen, N.Y., died at 8:30 Saturday morning in North Carolina Memorial Hospital. The cause of death has not yet been determined, according to the hospital staff. She arrived unconscious at the hospital Friday night. Police said yesterday that she had been taking sleeping pills. The coroner's report is pending results of an autopsy.

An economics major in the graduate School of Business Administration, Miss Kangley held a Julian Price fellowship last year. Her local address was 307 Rosemary Street.

Funeral services will be held in Goshen, N.Y.

The body returned there last weekend.

WONDERFULLY DIFFERENT FEATURES OF THE NEW LOW-BACK CRISS-CROSS sarong bra

The new Sarong bra fits nine out of ten women—fits them better more comfortably

Tension-free shoulder straps designed with parva buckles for easy, daily adjustment.

Cups create rounded, natural look, give you a lift all day, every day. Low cut design achieves flattering separation.

Nylon lace cups, lined with nylon taffeta, are semi-detached for complete, unrestrained freedom of movement.

Patented, elasticized criss-cross expands as you do, adjusts with every breath you take. Eliminates binding, shoulder strap strain.

Bias cut, low back curves to fit body, never rides up. It is perfect for new low-back styles.

Light spiral support guarantees controlled shaping, "no-gap" snug fit.

Sheer, all-Dacron leno elastic assures perfect, permanent fit—with cool comfort.

Sarong Bra style #400 White only. $3⁹⁵
