25th Session's Last Meeting Starting Early

By STAN FISHER

The Student Legislature, convening tonight for the last meeting its 25th session, will act on Gary Greer's amended proposal to put Honor Council juror selection on a campus-wide basis.

The meeting will be at 7 p.m. in the Phi Hall, fourth floor New East. This meeting is a half hour earlier than the body usually as-

Bills to be acted upon tonight other than Greer's jury selection proposal are as follows:

(1) A proposal to provide any student organization with an ophow anyone can think of himself as portunity to consider and voice a crusader and keep a straight face- an openion on legislation affecting the organization.

(5) A bill to submit for ratification by the Student Body an amendment to the Student Constitution calling for a single annual spring campus election.

If passed, the bill provides that appropriate legislation be instituted to correctly modify all existing applicable by-laws and statutes.

The bill to put Honor Council juror selection on a campus-wide basis will be making its third appearence before the legislators tenight. Last Thursday night the controversial proposal was temporaily tabulated so legislators might look over amendments proposed Brooks (SP).

The proposed amendments put 'teeth" in the jury slection bill. They provided that any juror called who fails to show may be decampus elections and to hold student government offices, unless excused by the attorney generall.
