

A long trip into the far north, 60 minutes of bone-breaking football, and Notre Dame had effectively burst the Carolina dream bubble. The Tar Heels bit the dust to the tune of 34-24 against the best team they've played all year.

Even against this fine Irish team, the Tar Heels had a chance up until 5 minutes to go in the game. At that point the Irish marched for their final TD to sew it up.

THE IRON CURTAIN FALLS

The Carolina defense, which had been given the name "The Iron Curtain," was ripped to shreds by the fast Irish halfbacks and the passing of George Izo kept the defense honest.

The bowls have turned their backs. There is still a chance but it is a slim one indeed. The Sugar Bowl is probably out for sure, with the Gator, Cotton, and Orange left.

IT WASN'T CAROLINA'S DAY

The Tar Heels have absolutely nothing to be ashamed of. They played their hearts out, but just couldn't make it. Every man played as well as he knew how, and they made a great game of it, but it just wasn't Carolina's day.

Notre Dame coaches and writers freely admitted they had played their best game of the entire season against the Tar Heels. The Irish, after a slow start, couldn't do anything wrong.

THE DIFFERENCE — SPEED

The biggest difference between the two teams was speed. The Irish had it, the Tar Heels didn't. Red Mack and Jim Crotty skirted the ends for long gains and slanted off tackle with equal success. A North Carolina boy, Greensboro's Norm Odnicyec, played the finest game of his career, getting off one 56 yard run.

The Irish even somehow figured a way to stop Don Kiochak. True, they didn't keep him from making short gains, but the Bull just couldn't get loose for a long run. Terry Brennan said after the contest was over that the Irish defense was geared to stop Kiochak. It did.

CUMMINGS, KOES WERE GREAT

Jack Cummings was one of the bright spots in a losing cause. Cummings passed with his usual skill in addition to pulling some good offensive plays. In the line, Ronnie Koes was simply great. We've never seen any one make a greater effort than did Koes. He would get blocked, get up, get knocked down again, and climb to his feet and make a tackle.

Al Goldstein continued his fine play at end. The transplanted Brooklynite sparked on many catches, but one in particular on which he simply took the ball away from two Notre Dame defenders at the enemy one. Wade Smith and Emil DeCantis tried hard, very hard, but just couldn't make any headway through the tough Irish line. With two 235-pound ends going for them, the Notre Damers didn't have to worry about end sweeps either.

GUILTY AS CHARGED . . .

There has been a lot of criticism against Carolina on two particular counts. One is that the second unit was put in too soon and stayed in too long, and the other that the wrong play was run when the Heels had 4th and 1 at their own 29. To both counts, under the circumstances, they must plead guilty. Everyone should realize, however, that under such terrific pressure things go wrong. One should also realize that if the strategy had worked, the Tar Heels would have been heroes instead of goats.

So, they did their damndest but it didn't work out. On another day the story could read a different way. But football games have been lost before, and the team certainly take it in stride if the students can't. There is another game to go, and the season isn't over yet.

LAST GAME SATURDAY

This Saturday is the final game of the season. Most students probably haven't heard of the school we are to play. It's a place over in Durham, called Dook. We played them last year, but it was just to fill up the schedule.

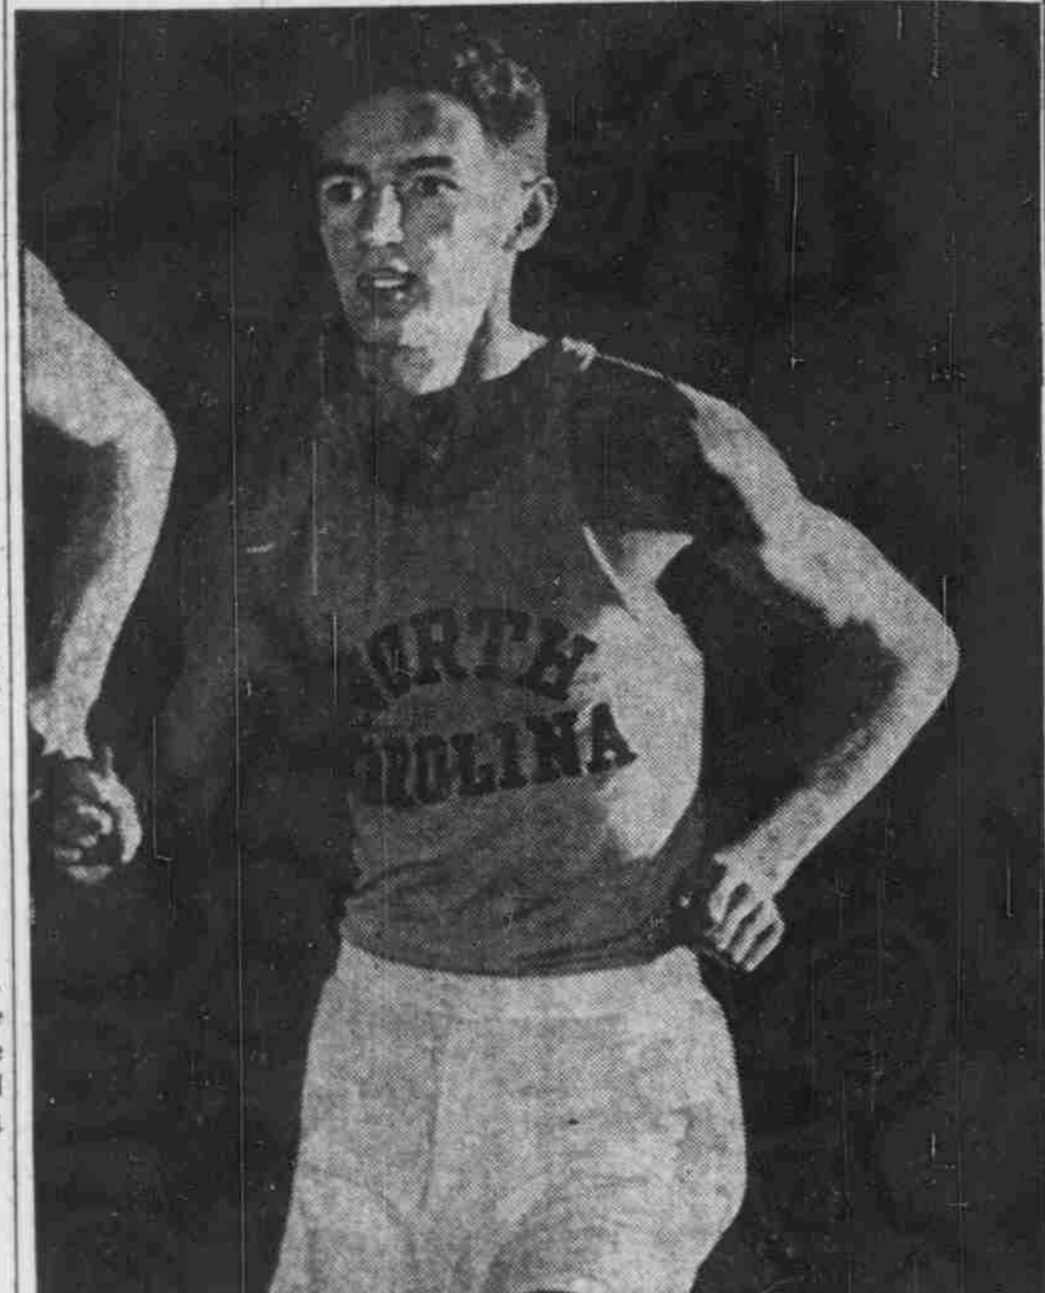

Seriously though, the Devils won't be a pushover, not for Carolina or anyone. The Tar Heels can show what they're made of by whipping Duke Saturday. They have bounced back before, and they can do it again.

NAMED ATHLETE OF WEEK

Wayne Bishop Wins ACC Championship; Duke Team First

Carolina's Wayne Bishop, running for the first time in a month in competition, nosed out South Carolina's Bill Latham here yesterday with a brilliant finishing kick to gain the individual championship of the Atlantic Coast Conference's cross-country division. His great comeback made him Daily Tar Heel Athlete of the week.

Bishop, who led most of the way, finished up with a time of 18:40. He was injured earlier in the year in a meet against South Carolina and has not run since that time. The championship which has eluded the all-time UNC great finally came this year after many disappointments.

ATHLETE OF THE WEEK—Wayne Bishop, who finally realized the ACC cross-country championship yesterday, is Daily Tar Heel Athlete of the Week. Bishop shot past USC's Bill Latham in the last 100 yards to clinch the honors.

Last year Bishop went into this same event undefeated in regular season meets, but suffered an injury along the route and had to drop out. This year the recurring knee injury struck again, but Bishop stuck in there and kept working out. It payed off handsomely yesterday.

Bishop ran his last race for Dale Ranson's cross-country team yesterday. He has been the team stalwart since his arrival at Carolina and will be sorely missed.

Bishop is also an outstanding man in the track season, running the mile and two-mile for the Tar Heels.

Duke Team First
Duke rolled to first place as team champions with their 1-2-3 punch of Jerry Nourse, Cary Weisiger and Dave Pithkethly sweeping 3rd, 4th, and 5th places. The Devil score was

Terps Hand Booters First Conference Loss By 2-1

COLLEGE PARK, MD. — Maryland's powerful soccer team clinched another conference title here yesterday with a 2-1 victory over a fired up Carolina squad.

Carolina played four quarters of good soccer, but the Terps were too much for them and thus continued their dominance as soccer champion in the ACC.

The Tar Heels, playing hustling ball from the start, jumped into a one-goal lead with 10 minutes gone in the first quarter on a goal by left forward Joe Perkins, who scored after taking a setup pass from John Ghanim.

Maryland retaliated about three minutes later on a goal by Pete Liaris, his tally tying the game up at 1-1. For the remainder of the half, both teams waged a defensive battle.

Mural Volleyball

At 4:00 Kap Sig vs Theta Chi (W), Pi Kap Phi vs Sig Chi (W), Phi Delt vs TEP (W), KA 1 vs DKE 2 (W), DKE 1 vs Chi Phi (W), Chi Psi vs Pi Kap Phi.
At 5:00 Zeta Psi vs Phi Gam (W), Phi Delt vs DU.

Weisiger (Duke), 5 — Pithkethly (Duke), 6 — Colavita (Md.), 7 — Medlin (WF), 8 — Scurlock (UNC), 9 — Tyler (Clem.), 10 — Liipfert (UNC).

Carolina's offensive unit, passing beautifully, could not hit paydirt as Maryland's defense tightened up just as the Tar Heels seemed on the verge of scoring.

In the third quarter, Maryland forward Dick Romie dealt what proved to be the death blow for the Tar Heels when his shot went into the Carolina goal after being deflected off the foot of a Carolina defenseman.

Carolina threatened several times to tie the score up, but were thwarted by some miraculous saves on the part of Maryland's goalie, Al Lehman.

In the last 10 minutes of the fourth quarter, Maryland gained the upper hand and threatened to increase the lead, but Carolina's defense, bolstered by the fine playing of goalie Marvin Blunt, held firm and the game ended with Maryland victorious, 2-1.

After the game, a Maryland player praised the Tar Heels' defense, stating that the team had been accustomed to getting an average of 20 to 30 shots per game against its opponents.

Yesterday's game marked the closest a Carolina team has come to beating Maryland in four years. Maryland, since three years ago, has beaten Carolina by scores of 3-1, 4-0, and 4-2.

Do You Agree?

"The typical professor is in continual dread of antagonizing, irritating or disturbing 'the administration'." From SOME OF MY BEST FRIENDS ARE PROFESSORS by George Williams. On display at Chapel Hill's famous Intimate Bookshop.

This mellow brew is made to satisfy the discriminating taste. You'll enjoy each golden drop, because it holds its rich flavor the world over, regardless of climate or season. Relax with OB and see!

ORANJEBOOM
Imported By State Distributing Corporation
P.O. Box 2717
Raleigh, North Carolina

Buy 'N' Sell

Your books where the supply and demand are greatest, our huge stock includes:

- ★ College Texts
- ★ Fiction and Nonfiction
- ★ Fine Sets
- ★ Reference Books
- ★ Rare and Out of Print

PHONE 2-4662
THE BOOK EXCHANGE
FIVE POINTS
DURHAM
"The South's Great Book Store"

BEER - WINE
CHAMPAGNE
SANDWICHES OF ALL KINDS

Franklin St. Luncheonette
401 W. Franklin
Next To Bus Station
Phone 9-2846

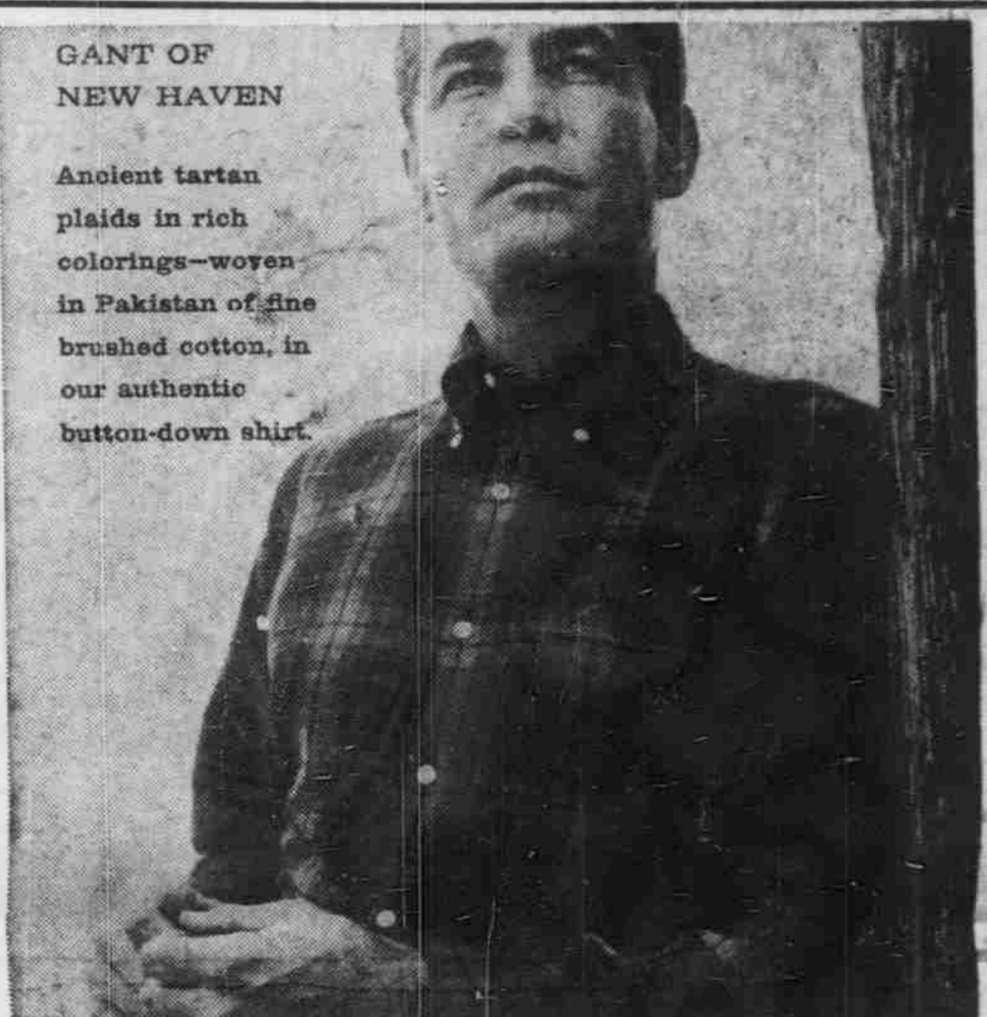

TIME PRECIOUS?

And how! Every year you postpone the start on a planned life insurance program, it's costing you cold cash in higher premiums.

It's smart business to check the advantage of the Personal Planning Service with your campus representative—now, while you are insurable.

PETER V. VANSTORY
HENRY McPHERSON
LARRY THORP
119 N. Columbia St.
Smith Bldg. Phone 9-9071
PROVIDENT MUTUAL
Life Insurance Company of Philadelphia

$10.95 Julian's Shop

Frosh Booters Beat Dook 4-1

Carolina's freshman soccer team played its final game of the season with an impressive 4-1 victory over Duke here yesterday.

Kingman Brown scored two goals for the Tar Babies, while left wing Tom Sprinkle scored one goal, setting his total for the season at six goals. Also scoring was Jorge Belmont.

OPEN 24 HOURS
7 DAYS PER WEEK
"YOU'RE NEVER TOO LATE FOR BREAKFAST"
The Chapel Ark Restaurant
NEXT TO WESTERN UNION

BOOKS IN GERMAN
We have just put on display a rather nice library of books in German. Mostly literary, this is a well-cared-for collection, many in handsome bindings.
If your collecting interest lies in the field, it will pay you to look this lot over.
THE INTIMATE BOOKSHOP
205 E. Franklin St.
Open Till 10 P.M.

a Swingline Stapler no bigger than a pack of gum!
98¢ (including 1000 staples)
SWINGLINE "TOT"
Millions now in use. Unconditionally guaranteed. Makes book covers, fastens papers, arts and crafts, mends, tacks, etc. Available at your college bookstore.
SWINGLINE "Cub" Stapler $1.29
Swingline INC.
LONG ISLAND CITY, NEW YORK, N. Y.

By SCHULZ
PEANUTS
I JUST CAN'T READ WITH A VULTURE WATCHING ME!
By KELLY
POGO
THE FELLOW I WORKED FOR DURING PROHIBITION WAS A WINE TENDER. O'REILLY WHO ENJOYED THE FAMOUS "LONG TOAD" BRANDY.
MR. O'REILLY RAN A DAMP DUGOUT KNOWING AS THE INK PIT AN' ALONG TOAD BRANDY. AS HE PUT IT, HE'D START A REPTILE RACE... THE PLACE WOULD BE ALIVE WITH ROACHES, FISH, LIZARDS, CHICKENS, PIGS, TURTLES AN' OTHER REPTILES.
YEP, HE CLAIMED I WAS THE LONGEST TOAD IN THE WORLD AN' HE WATCHED ME AGAINST OTHER TOADS—ONE DAY A FELLOW BROUGHT IN THE FRONT END OF A ELEPHANT.
O'REILLY PULLED ME OUT TO THREE QUARTERS OF A YARD BUT THE OTHER FELLOW HAD US... THEN WE NOTICED THE REST OF THE BEHEMOTH... TEX SAID THAT WAS STRETCHING THINGS TOO FAR... AN' I AGREED.

CHESTERFIELD
NEW CAREERS FOR MEN OF AMERICA: NUCLEAR PHYSICIST
Coming: a world run more and more by nuclear power. Experts predict atomic plants will produce 38% of all electrical energy required by the U. S. in 1980. Wanted: more physicists for research and development.
CHESTERFIELD KING goes forward with the Men of America as they plan and build for the future.
Top Length, Top Value, Top-Tobacco Filter Action...
NOTHING SATISFIES LIKE CHESTERFIELD KING
© Liggett & Myers Tobacco Co.