

Tar Heels Top Terps By 64-57

Carolina wound up with a 42% accuracy mark for the night, but they had a 48% average in the first half. The rebounding was about even as possible with the Terps getting 46 and Carolina 45.

Harvey Salz got exactly half as many points as Larese (16), and Dick Kepley was third with half as many again (8).

High man for the Terrapins was big Al Bunge who collected 17. He was followed by Jim Halleck with 12 and Charlie McNeil with 10.

McNeil was hitting well until he collected his fourth personal early in the second half. He then left the contest and didn't return until the final stages, thus robbing his mates of their biggest gun.

New Tar Heel

NEW YORK — (AP)—Another New York high school basketball star has decided to enroll at the University of North Carolina.

He is Billy Galantal, 6-5 Brooklyn boy, who has been sought by many other college coaches.

However, UNC Coach Frank McGuire, who formerly coached at St. John's College in Brooklyn, landed him.

Galantal said he wants to be a sports announcer and plans to take the radio-TV course at UNC.

The probable starting line-up for Sam Barnes' varsity crew is:

Curt Champina, Henry Rhyne, Perrin Henderson, Joe Perrin or Ron Purdy, Ray Russel, David Atkinson, John Mainey and Larry Hayes.

Plans are underway for a frosh meet between the Tar Babies, who have a 3-2 season mark, and Fort Bragg, but the issue is not decided as yet.

WALSH POURS IN 33

Tar Babies Swamp Wilmington 99-85

By ELLIOTT COOPER

The Carolina freshman got a 33 point effort from guard Donnie Walsh to lead them to a 99-85 victory over Wilmington Junior College last night in Woollen Gym.

The win boosted the Tar Babies season record to 7-3 and gave them their third victory in the last six days. The Tar Heel frosh looked like a different team from the one that got mauled 79-64 by the State College Wolflets Tuesday evening in Nashville.

In addition to Walsh's 33 points, Yogi Potet had 24 and big Jim Hudock had 23 so that this trio contributed more than four fifths of the Tar Babies total output.

53-37 At Half

Dean Smith's frosh were in command all the way and by the half owned a 53-37 lead. Wilmington managed to shave this margin to 3 points midway in the final half by outscoring the Tar Babies nine to one during one stretch. At this point, however, Walsh and Hudock began to hit and the big lead was quickly regained.

The Tar Babies had an excellent night from the floor as they hit on 27 of 71 attempts for a 52.1 percentage. On the foul line the frosh were equally hot and dropped in 25 of 31 charity tosses.

The victory for the Tar Babies was also highlighted by the fact that neither Hudock or Ken McComb fouled out. As has been the case many times his season both of these big starters have fouled out leaving the Tar Babies virtually without any superior height. In both contests against State the loss of the big men severely hampered Tar Baby efforts.

For the losers from Wilmington their offense was led by Ed Miastkowski who had 19 points. Behind Miastkowski were Ed Williams with 16, Larry Lindsey with 13, and Dick Brennan with 12.

Smith Clears Bench

Smith cleared his bench for the second night in a row as eight of the Carolina freshmen got into the scoring column. With the Tar Babies leading 96-77 and 2:02 left on the clock an entire new team came in, but they were unable to get the necessary four points to tie their 24; Hudock, 23; Walsh, 33; Hubbard, 1; Callahan, 2; O'Bannon, 1; Engel, 3.

The Tar Babies had their chance to hit 100 with only seconds left in the contest. John Laws had the chance on a foul but missed the shot and when a follow-up didn't drop the Carolina frosh had to settle for 99.

Grapplers To Meet West Va.

Carolina's varsity wrestling team will be seeking to climb above the 500 mark Saturday night when it entertains always-tough West Virginia in Woollen Gym at 8:00 p.m.

The Tar Heels own an even 3-3 season record so far, having beaten Davidson, Wake Forest and N. C. State while losing to Washington and Lee, Virginia and VMI.

West Virginia, perennial runner-up in the Southern Conference wrestling group, is a team that Carolina has not met for five years, but is also a squad the Tar Heels have never defeated.

The probable starting line-up for Sam Barnes' varsity crew is:

Curt Champina, Henry Rhyne, Perrin Henderson, Joe Perrin or Ron Purdy, Ray Russel, David Atkinson, John Mainey and Larry Hayes.
