Members of the council, of dormitory committees and of the Chapel Hill Club will be on duty in Graham Memorial, Monday through Friday from 10 a.m. until 4 p.m. and Saturday 9-11 a.m.

As well as showing visitors the campus, these students will be able to give the visitors a student's viewpoint of the University and the campus life. Several organizations, the Carolina Inn and South Building have been contacted about the guide service and have been asked to send visitors to Graham Memorial for the tours.

Helen House is the chairman of the guide service.

STUDIES GETTING RUGGED?

VENT YOUR RAGE—Al Walter, UNC sophomore, vents his rage on an old automobile at the IFC Carnival Wednesday. The gimmick was a take off on a recent hearse burning and gave students with a grudge a chance to take it out on something.

SP Slate Summed Up

State Affairs Committee and chairman of the Judicial Review Committee.

"I believe that his qualifications are without doubt the best of any presidential candidate."

"Jim Crowover's record," he continued, "would fill up the front page of the Daily Tar Heel, therefore I can mention only a few of the things he's done: floor leader for the Student Party in the Student Legislature, chairman of the Drinking Rules Committee, dorm president and manager, a member of the SP Advisory Board, the judicial review committee, and State Affairs Committee."

"Crowover's record in the Student Legislature is a campaign platform within itself, for it shows that a student who works his way through school can still devote himself to the betterment of the University of North Carolina."

"Anne Lucas is currently serving in the Student Legislature and is chairman of the Rules Committee in the legislature. Her position in the Student Legislature is unmatched by any woman on this campus. She will be a valuable asset to the student government."

"Erwin Fuller has served on the Audit Board and in the Student Legislature. He has also served the Student Party as its treasurer. He is a business major and member of Delta Sigma Pi fraternity. "I feel without a doubt that Erwin Fuller is the most informed student on financial affairs in the University."

"With such a qualified and capable team as the Student Party has nominated for the big four offices, I believe the Student Party will be given an unexcelled vote of confidence on April 7."

"I urge my fellow students," Sheffield concluded, "to examine and compare the records of these candidates with the other candidates and I am sure that their decision will not be a hard one."

AIR FORCE AWARD—Webb F. Evans, head of the Purchasing Department of the University, was presented the Tar Heel Air Force Award at a special ceremony during drill period Thursday. Evans, a 1938 graduate of the University and a former Lt. Col. in the Air Force, returned to the University in 1950 after serving in the 9th Troop Carrier Command in the European Theater of Operations during World War II. The award presented to Mr. Evans was in recognition of his helpful and continuous support and understanding of the AFROTC program.

New Deal

the opposition has now, at long last, decided to join us. If the opposition does this listening job as conscientiously as we have, then they will be shocked by the accumulated bitterness, contempt and derision directed at student government."

Minter branded the fraternity issue as "a phony."

The U. P. chairman said, "Every year we get slugged with this thing. It is the Student Party's equivalent of red-baiting, or, to put the matter in Southern terms, it's the waving of the bloody shirt."

"The Student Party has nothing else to talk about so they cover up their own intellectual bankruptcy once a year by yelling about the fraternity menace."

"U. P. candidates," said Minter, "will provide sober, responsible leadership. These candidates are painfully aware of the limitations in student government. They know about the gulf between students and student leaders."

"They will bridge this gulf by concentrating on campus problems, not the future of the world. U.P. candidates do not believe in a crusade a day to keep reality away. All the armoured knights on white horses belong to the opposition."

"We are happy to concede the supremacy of the Student Party when it comes to riding some pet horse off to the crusades. But genuine political leadership, firmly anchored in reality, can only be found in the University Party."

Mr. A. H. Bogart, Director of Camp Tomahaw for boys in New Hampshire and Camp Wicosupa for girls in New Hampshire will be at the Placement Service, 204 Gardner Hall, Wednesday March 18, to interview counselors, men and women, age 19 years and over.

Delta Kappa Epsilon Wins Best Pledge Class Award

Delta Kappa Epsilon was honored as winner of the best pledge award at the Greek Week Convocation Thursday night in Memorial Hall.

The award is presented to the best pledge class as determined by scholarship, athletic abilities, and participation in Greek Week work day and carnival day.

Beta Theta Pi received the scholastics award as the group with the highest first semester average, while Alpha Tau Omega received the award for the best carnival booth on Carnival Day. Sigma Alpha Epsilon collected the most points on field day to win the athletic award.

Bryon Latham, chairman of Greek Week, emphasized that the week "is a project of the Interfraternity Council for the benefit of school and community as well as fraternity."

The first day of the annual week featured field day, with competition in the following relays: up-down; shuttle dash; jump stick; obstacle; and a tug-of-war. Points were awarded for success in the several events.

Work Day, Tuesday, stressed community service with each fraternity assigned to various sites chosen for improvement. Among the areas where work was conducted were the Negro Home Day nursery, the Community Church, the Negro Recreation Center, the Forest Theater, Battle Park, and Memorial Hospital. Each class was required to work for three hours.

Wednesday the groups matched wits on intramural field with numerous carnival booths, such as ATO's winning mock burlesque exhibition and Sigma Chi's second place donkey race.

Two exchange dinners were arranged to promote interfraternity good-will.
