

Clemson Beaten, 83 1/2-47 1/2

Scurlock And Bishop Take Two Wins Each

Led by steady Wayne Bishop and galloping Dave Scurlock, the Carolina track team won an easy 83 1/2-47 1/2 duel meet over Clemson College here yesterday.

Bishop and Scurlock each captured two events, and Scurlock anchored the victorious mile relay team. Scurlock romped in with a school record in the 440, his specialty. His time of 47.9 eclipsed his own record of 48.1 set in 1957. Scurlock also captured the 880.

Bishop loped around for wins in both the mile and the 2-mile. He was virtually unchallenged in both events.

Versatile Ray Stanley came in for his share of the honors, nailing down first place in his specialty, the broad jump, and adding a second in the javelin and a third in the discus.

Clemson's big gun, John Dunkelberg, won the 220 but was beaten by Scurlock in the 440. Paul Snider grabbed off first in the javelin and the shot put.

Wally Graham of Carolina captured the 100-yard dash and Lyndon De Borde took first in the high hurdles and second in the low hurdles.

Carolina's Ward Sims won the pole vault.

The Summary:

Pole Vault - 1-Sims (UNC), 2-Simmons (CL), 3-Carver (CL) 11'6"

Golfers Nip Davidson 15-12 Score

The undefeated golfers of Carolina made it four in a row here yesterday when they edged out stubborn Davidson 15-12.

The Tar Heels and Wildcats split the six individual matches 3-3 but Carolina ran up its winning total in the best ball department.

Number one man Ed Justa remained undefeated by whipping Gary Heeseman 3-0, but the big honors went to number four man Bob Galloway. Galloway fired a one-under par 71 for medalist honors.

Carolina now owns wins over Indiana, Cornell, Michigan, and Davidson. Their next week meet is with Princeton here next Wednesday.

The summary:

MEET SOUTH CAROLINA TOMORROW

Netters Top Virginia, 8-1

Carolina's tennis team humbled Virginia 8-1 yesterday to pick up its second straight ACC victory. The win gives the Tar Heels a 3-3 season record to take into Monday's match with South Carolina.

For the second consecutive match, the only Carolina loss was suffered by Geoff Black in the number one singles. Friday the Tar Heel captain lost to Maryland's Chuck Abelson in three sets, and yesterday Ray York defeated him 6-4, 6-3.

The match, moved up to a 2 o'clock starting time because of windy playing conditions, was completed in quick time as none of the matches went to three and only one took more than six games to decide.

Bruce Sylvia, playing in the number two position for Carolina, whipped Bob Guggenheim 6-2, 6-2 in his singles match and then combined with Marshall Happer to defeat York and Guggenheim in the top doubles match.

Baseball Clinic Held At UNC

Approximately 30 high school coaches and members of their teams attended the first annual North Carolina high school baseball clinic here Friday.

Morning and afternoon sessions were held at the school, sponsored by the University of North Carolina Athletic Association and held in Emerson Stadium. In addition to the classes, a social hour was on the program and door prizes were awarded.

North Carolina head coach Walter Rabb, assistant coach Harry Lee Lloyd, freshman coach Pat Earey and former coach Henry House gave the lectures with members of the North Carolina team demonstrating.

Tar Heels Battle Unbeaten Clemson College Tomorrow

By RUSTY HAMMOND

The once-beaten Tar Heels of Carolina get their first major test of the young season tomorrow when they journey southward to collide with the league-leading and undefeated Clemson Tigers.

Carolina will enter the fray with a 6-1 season record. All these games were against outside competition; today's game is the first ACC contest of the season for the Heels.

Clemson, who last year defeated Carolina 4-1 in a special play-off game for the ACC pennant, is undefeated both in the ACC and in all games played. The talented Tigers have a 9-0 overall record and a 4-0 ACC mark.

Carolina's only loss was at the hands of Illinois, in Florida. The Tar Heels have whipped Dartmouth, Connecticut, Florida, Florida State, Ithaca and East Carolina.

Clemson has beaten Virginia, Maryland, Wake Forest and South Carolina in the conference. The Bengals have also defeated the Citadel, Massachusetts, Adelphi and Furman. Clemson's biggest scare came last week when a stubborn Wake Forest team forced the Tigers to the wire before bowing 4-3 at Clemson. Carolina had a close call of its own last week, edging Ithaca 4-3.

Stowe To Pitch

The Tar Heels are sure to face the scourge of the ACC last year from the mound, lefty Harold Stowe.

Stowe finished last season with an exceptional 14-4 won-lost mark and it was he who beat the Tar Heels in the regular season game at Clemson and again in the play-off game.

Carolina is expected to counter with its ace, Wayne Young. Young beat the Tigers in Chapel Hill last season. He finished the campaign with a 7-3 record and a phenomenal 0.9 earned run average. Young is 2-0 on the year, while Stowe is 4-0.

Clemson's power packed bats will be paced by outfielder Bally Hendley. Hendley was the league's eighth leading hitter last season with a .333 mark. Clemson finished last season with a 22-8 overall record. The Tigers are coached by Bill Wilhelm, a former assistant to Walter Rabb at Carolina. This is Wilhelm's second season as coach at Clemson.

Burgwyns Big Stick

Carolina's big stick in the battle will be outfielder John Burgwyn. Captain John is currently hitting well above .500. A lot of help should be forthcoming from sophomore catcher Carroll Bolick, who clouted two doubles against East Carolina.

Practically all of the Carolinaills should be mended for this big one. Tommy Sainting was the only player out of the lineup for the East Carolina game, but there were three more on the bench due to sickness for the Ithaca match.

The conference pennant race may not be decided by this one, but the Thinklish translation: The appropriate word for this gent is Crassanova! Main reasons: 1. He's the only guy we know who sends mimeographed love letters. 2. He's the only guy who doesn't make advances when he runs out of gas (the gal's too busy pushing his car). Too thoughtless to buy his own cigarettes, this bird only dates girls who appreciate the honest taste of fine tobacco. "We always have something in common," he says. "Her Luckies!"
