

Carolina And Wake Forest Fight It Out In ACC Game Here This Afternoon At 3

By RUSTY HAMMOND
A pair of possible ACC pennant contenders, Carolina and Wake Forest, lock horns here this afternoon in Emerson Stadium at 3 as the Tar Heels open their Big Four season. These two hopefuls have so far in the season succeeded in completely scrambling the ACC pennant race. The Tar Heels knocked off top-dog Clemson in their first conference game, then played dead while South Carolina had a field day, winning 8-3.

face, whipping South Carolina easily. The Deacs did an exact about but bowing to Clemson. To further complicate matters, N.C. State went down south and blasted the Tigers once more.

Wake Forest smashed Duke 4-1 Thursday with soph Roger Plemons chalking up the win in going the route. The Deacons have a 5-3 overall record, the Tar Heels are 7-2.

But the records do not tell the story at all, for Wake has a big edge in the statistics department. Before the Duke contest, the Deac team batting average was .304 compared to Carolina's meager .248. The Wake pitchers allowed only three runs per game while Tar Heel moundsmen were giving up four per try.

The expected starting pitchers today are a couple of sleepers with mediocre records who could blossom into two of the league's best. Captain Ben Harding, a lefthander, is expected to get the call for Carolina. Harding has as 1-1 record. For Wake it should be Bobby Lawrence, another southpaw, who has a poor 0-1 record but a fine 2.7 earned run average.

Other starters for the Heels, with batting averages in parentheses are: Dave Dale (.300) at first, Larry Craver (.235) at second, Ferg Norton (.294) at third, Harold Workman (.250) at shortstop, John Burgwyn (.409), Russ Hollers (.316) and Gerald Griffin (.189) in the outfield and Carroll Bolick (.304) behind the plate.

Wake Forest will probably go with Ron Guthrie (.500) at first, Bobby Brown (.265) at second, Charlie Forte (.296) at third, Bill Barr (.286) at short, Jay Franklin (.478), Byron Bullard (.300) and Buster Ledford (.259) in the outfield, and John Tyner (.308) catching.

Last year the Deacs finished fourth in the ACC with a 7-6 league record and a 12-9 overall mark.

Carolina will be gunning for its 18th consecutive win at home. The Tar Heels haven't lost in Emerson Stadium in over two years.

Tennis Team Whitewashes Wildcats, 9-0

Carolina's tennis team achieved its first shutout of the season here yesterday at the expense of Davidson College.

For the Tar Heel netters the 9-0 victory marks their fourth straight win and their fifth of the season against three defeats. The loss left the Wildcats with a 5-3 mark for the year.

Don Skakle's courtmen were in complete charge of the match as the visitors could take but one set off the winners. The only match to go the three set limit was the number three doubles which Phil Causey and Ben Keys won 3-6, 6-2, 6-3.

The best individual performance of the day was turned in by Carolina's Geoff Black who whipped Semi Mintz 6-0, 6-1. Black turned his big service to his own advantage as he repeatedly followed it to the net and put away Mintz's return on the volley.

In the longest match of the afternoon Marshall Happer and Dick Hodez played 26 games in the opening set before the Carolina junior pulled it out 14-12. Once this was over, however, Happer made quick work of his opponent in the second set as he won 6-1.

Monday afternoon the Carolina courtmen take on Clemson in what figures to be the Tar Heels' toughest conference battle. Coach Leslie Longshore's Tigers will be led by returning veterans Sunny Sumner and Mohammad Nasim. A year ago when the Tar Heels beat Clemson 8-1 Nasim defeated Steve Bank in the only match which a Carolina player lost in conference competition.

THE SUMMARY

Singles — 1. Black (C) defeated Mintz 6-0, 6-1. 2. Sylvia (C) defeated Poindexter 6-2, 6-3. 3. Keys (C) defeated McCutchen 6-2, 6-4. 4. Happer (C) defeated Hodez 14-12, 6-1. 5. Lockett (C) defeated Orr 6-4, 6-0. 6. Ricks (C) defeated Broome 6-3, 6-3.

Tracksters Face Gamecocks

A blond and boyish miler named Billy Latham and a hulking shot putter named Dave Coates lead the Gamecocks of South Carolina in a dual track meet against Carolina this afternoon at Felzer Field with the field events beginning at 2:00 p.m. and the running events getting under way at 3. The Tar Heels will be after their third straight win, having previously defeated N. C. State and Clemson.

Latham, winner of the ACC Indoor Mile and the Florida Relays two mile, will be set to continue his distance feud with Tar Heel ace Wayne Bishop, who at present holds a 6-3 advantage over him. Both runners are expected to go both the mile and the two mile.

Coates, who has heaved the 16 pound weight over 54 feet on occasion, is the ACC indoor champion and should completely dominate that event this year. Others on the South Carolina squad bearing mention are sprinters King Dixon and Jim Cathcart (edged Dave Sime in a 220 last year) and quarter-miler Buddy Mayfield.

lina, South Carolina, and N. C. State. This year's Tar Babies are one of the strongest, deepest freshmen squads that UNC has ever had. They have previously slaughtered State 102-29 at Raleigh and their sprint medley and mile relay teams took gold medals at the Florida Relays at Gainesville two weeks ago.

They will be led by pole vaulter Barry Tiedemann, who has already broken the 13 foot freshman record; quarter-miler Dennis Rash and half-

Fetchick Holds GGO Golf Lead

By KEN ALYTA
GREENSBORO — Mike Fetchick, who says he's getting too old for the pressures of tournament golf, added a second round of 67 Friday to his opening 66 for a 133 total and a three-stroke lead at the halfway mark of the $15,000 Greater Greensboro Open Tournament.

The 36-year-old Yonkers, N. Y., professional, birdied three of the last five holes to add two strokes to the lead he carried into the round.

Sharing second place at 136, three shots away, were Art Wall, the still-sharp Masters champion from Pocono Manor, Pa.; Stan Leonard of Vancouver, and PGA champion Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla.

Wall shot a four-under par 67. Leonard and Finsterwald each posted 68.

In fifth place, five shots down at 138, were Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex., and Tony Lema of San Leandro, Calif. Maxwell, in second place one shot back of Fetchick to start the round, shot a par 71. Lema had a 70.

Muscling into the picture with 139 totals for a seventh place tie were Dick Knight of San Diego, Calif.; Thorne Wood of nearby Asheboro; and Dave Thomas, young husky from London, Wood, Carolinas PGA champion and a southpaw swinger, and Knight each shot 66, the day's best score. Thomas closed with a five-under par 31 for a 70.

Braves Blank Pirates
PITTSBURGH — Pitching and power, the twin keys to a pennant last year, got the Milwaukee Braves off to a running start Friday with a 8-0 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates in their National League opener.

Left-hander Warren Spahn choked off two early Pittsburgh threats and breezed to the finish with his 44th major league shutout. In the second, the Pirates loaded the bases but Spahn got Bob Friend on a fly to short center and then fanned Bill Virdon. In the third, Bob Clemente led off with a double, but was unable to score when Ed Mathews made a great stop on a single by Don Hoak and Spahn struck out Bill Mazeroski.

Big Eddie Mathews was the power man, booming a solid homer into the upper right field stands for two runs that broke a scoreless deadlock in the sixth. From that point the Braves won handily, adding two more runs in the seventh, four in a long eighth inning rally.

Indians Nick A's
KANSAS CITY — Fireman Dick Brodowski came to the ninth inning rescue of young Gary Bell and veteran Herb Score Friday and Cleveland defeated Kansas City 6-4 in an American League opener before 22,630 top-coated fans.

Bell, who had suffered only 1 bad inning, went into the 9th with a 4-run lead. With one out he gave up three straight singles and one run before being relieved by Score.

The left-hander, on whose comeback this season the Indians are pinning their hopes, walked the first man he faced on four straight balls, allowed a run on a wild pitch, walked his second batter and was removed in favor of Brodowski after the first two pitches to the third man Score faced also were called balls.

Brodowski forced Bill Tuttle to pop up and Roger Maris to line out to short to end the game.
