Valleyries Tap Eight In Pre-Dawn Ceremony This Morning

JUDGE SUSIE SHARP

MARY McGARVAN

SOPHIE MARTIN

CAROLYN MEYERS

MELISSA OSBORNE

ANNE SELPH

JEAN SUTHERLAND

of the Valkyries, in a secret pre- erland, Greensboro, dawn ceremony this morning.

Katherine McGavran, Chapel Hill; sonal integrity through the cause of anhood."

THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1959

were:

Marshall Sharp, Reidsville; Mary life has exemplified honor and per- high level of achievement for wom- Party.

Seven undergraduate women and ingtin, D. C., Carolyn Madden My- she has become the only woman to ner, and tireless efforts in all her the sense of a University commun- her years. As a participant in stu- and which is an inspiration to her with Orientation she has helped a scholar, lawyer, judge and admin- has served diligently and efficiently dents." istrator, Judge Sharp and her uni- in the YWCA, on the Carolina Wom- MISS MAGNUSON . . . "One who school of nursing.

one honorary member were tapped ers, Raleigh; Melissa Blanche Os- bold a special Superior Court responsibilities, have brought her ity, Miss McGavran has given will- dent affairs and student murse acti- classmates." into Carolina's highest honorary or borne, Canton; Anne Taylor Selph, Judge's post in North Carolina. recognition from many. While main- ingly of her time and service to the vitie on the state and national level, MISS MARTIN . . . "One whose olina. Through her active concern, gamization for women, the Order Ocala, Fla., and Jean Marie Suth- Recognized throughout the state as taining scholastic excellence, she University and to her fellow stu- she has represented in an efficient interest in people has contributed to she has stimulated wider interest in Recognized were Judge Susie JUDGE SHARP . . "one whose que accomplishments represent a en's Council and in the Student has shown in her dedication to high highest standards of scholarship, to grace combine with a spirit of her. "Her personal interest in helping the profession of nursing, and to the thoughtfulness and warmth to radi- "She has worked continuously and MISS MYERS . . . "One whose Sophie Myers Martin, Chapel Hill; justice. Since she received her Law MISS McGAVRAN . . . "One whose of her fellow students, an ate in a personality which endears effectively in helping to establish love for the art of drama has en-manner her university and her the growth of her fellow students, the program of the YWCA. Her

Karen Margaret Magnuson, Wash- Degree from this University in 1927, quiet leadership, unassuming man- part of Carolina has strengthened understanding and maturity beyond her to those with whom she works her sorority on campus. In her work (See VALKYRIES Page 3) and whose enthusiastic spirit has spirit in her relationships with othideals warrant recognition."

UNC BUDGET

WEATHER

The Dailu Tar Heel

Complete & Wire Service

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, THURSDAY, APRIL 30, 1959

FOUR PAGES THIS ISSUE

TV Director To Speak Here

JOHN FRANKENHEIMER

Philanthropics

By HOBART STEELE

from all money, documents and Hall, ceremonies of the government and

of those holding religious beliefs.

was defeated as Rep. Warren Jackson rose in opposition to the bill in Matthews stated in rebuttal that because something is; traditional there is no reason that it cannot

Defeat Bill

meeting.

ence to God.

tained therein.

been set."

be done away with.

John Frankenheimer, noted direc- and only presentation of the Forum tor of "Playhouse 90" productions this semester. and other television shows, will After his speech in Hill Hall, a peak on "Popular Misconceptions reception honoring him and his wife

The sponsoring Carolina Forum Mass, brings significant speakers from Frankenheimer will be the first

Building and at the Old Well.

the Air Science lounge.

overwhelmingly defeated a resolu- review on Fetzer Field at 2 p.m.

ion at its regular Tuesday night ceive their parents in a reception in

The resolution was based on the At the Naval Armory the NROTC first amendment to the Constitution will be displaying arms and equip-of the United States, which states; ment. There will be a Zoology

"Congress shall make no law re- Museum exhibit in Wilson Hall and specting an establishment of relig- a Geology-Anthropology Exhibit at ion, or prohibiting the free exer- Person Hall, The Usual exhibits will

The resolution contended that re- sion-Motion Pictures Department ferences to God should be stricken will be open for inspection in Swain that eaths should contain no refer- chemistry and physics buildings. The ternities and sororities will be open

be in the library. The Radio-Televi-

Exhibits will also be held in the Playmakers Museum will be open in

"Color in the Sky."

of Television" here Thursday, May will be held in the Main Lounge 14, at 8 p.m. in Hill Hall of Graham Memorial Frankenheimer, who is being The 29-year-old director staged brought here under the auspices of television's biggest dramatic show, the Carolina Forum, has been nom- Hemingway's "For Whom the Bell inated for an "emmy" award for Tolls," on March 12 and 19. The his direction of two separate shows two-part, three-hours Hemingway on "Playhouse 90." The emmies," presentation is one high point in a which are television's equivalent to career which included acting and the "Oscars," will be presented May direction in the stock company of Frankenheimer was in the cast of every field of endeavor to the cam- the American Theater Wing's Wash pus in an effort to present new ington production of "The Moon Is ideas to the student and Univer- Blue." He later joined the CBS television network in 1953 as assist-Parents' Day Sunday; After directing a "Mama" series, "You Are There" and "Danger," he became co-director for "Climax! For his direction of "Deal a Big Turnout Expected Blow," he won the Christopher

For "Playhouse 90" Frankenheim-Carolina's ninth annual Parent's will be celebrated at 10:45 at the er has directed "Forbidden Area," Day, Sunday, will be filled with Catholic Church) will be followed "The Comedian," "The Ninth Day," activities for the campus visitors. by lunch from 12 until 2 p.m. Alpha "The Last Tycoon," "The Fabulous Church services at 11 a.m. (mass Phi Omega, UNC's service fraterbooths in front of the Morehead Drummers," "A Town Has Turned To Dust," "Days of Wine and Roses" and "Old Man." From 2 to 4 all dormitories, fra-

Last Thursday, he directed "The to visitors. The parents may also of Terence Rattigan's play on the campus. The Philanthropic Literary Society see the Air Force ROTC pass in Dupont Show of the Month. tion advocating freedom from relig- After the review the cadets will re-

G. M. SLATE

Activities in Graham Memorial to-

Senior Class, 2-4 p.m., Woodhouse; Finance Committee, 4-6 p.m. Woodhouse; UP Caucus, 6:30-7:30 p.m., Roland Council, 6:45-9 p.m. Roland Parker 3; GMAB, 7-9 p.m. Main Lounge; Dance Lessons, 7-9 p.m., Roland Parker 2: Student Ccuncil, 7:30-11 p.m., Grail

Covering The Campus

It further stated that "Blue Laws" 101 Saunders. Consolidated Univer-All members are required to atbe abolished and there be no defer- sity offices will be open for inspecence from the military draft be- tion and the Morehead Planetarium tend the Alpha Epsilon Delta initiation meeting today at 7:15 p.m. cause of religious beliefs and that will present three shows during the no discrimination be held in favor afternoon of their present feature, Rep. Dave Matthews, chairman At 3:30 there will be a faculty reof the Ways and Means Committee, ception and a glee club concert unintroduced the bill and spoke in der Davie Poplar, Refreshments will elect officers. favor of the several articles con- be served. In the event of rain the reception will be held in Graham A proposed amendment to the bill Memorial Vice President William Carmichael will give an address after the re-its entirety. Jackson said that the ception at 4:30 p.m. A band Coninscription on money "in God we cert will follow his address. If it trust" is a statement of faith rather rains, this will be held in Hill Hall, than that of religious discrimina-Students may have their parents attend the Supper Forums held at "America." said Jackson, "was the Chapel Hill Churches with them. founded on an ancient religious eri-The last event of the evening will tage and we should continue in the be a presentation of "Oh, Hellas! ways of the precident which has at 8 p.m.

The event is the major yearly service project of APO.

Seniors! It's Next Week, and Franklin Jones.

the Highland Playhouse, Falmouth, at 7:30 in AFROTC Classroom 4 to Friday for a two day run.

for the annual individual fencing night. or the Information desk at GM.

INFIRMARY

day included:

Dorothy Pitman, Nancy Harrill, working play.

ant director of "Person To Person." Alderman Dorm Hostess Is Mother Of The Year

Mrs. J. C. Clamp, hostess in Alder- The local Merchants Association. man Dormitory, is the Campus which holds the three contests an-Mother of the Year for 1959.

panel of judges, who revealed their the Carolina Inn May 4. Each womchoice this week. The letter nomin- an will receive a silver tray with nity, will maintain information Irishman," "A Sound of Different ating Mrs. Clamp commented that her name and "Mother of 1959" "her time is unceasingly devoted to engraved on it. the best interest of her girls."

Browning Version," an adaptation lected as the outstading mother on Mrs. Clamp has been hostess in year are being honored this week House. She is a widow and has one by civic clubs in the community. son, Year, and Mrs. Clamp were guests Elementary School.

nually, will hold a banquet in honor She was selected Saturday by a of the new mothers of the year at

They will also be presented with Last year Mrs. Bessie Buchanan, a portrait by Lavergne Studio, silhostess in Spencer Dorm, was se- ver medallions and theater tickets. Alderman for eight years. Before, Two other local mothers of the she was hostess in the Chi Omega

Mrs. Jessie Gouger, Chapel Hill Mrs. Gouger, a widow and the Mother of the Year; Mrs. Lloyd mother of two children is a third Senter, Carrboro Mother of the grade teacher in the Chapel Hill of the Kiwanis Club Tuesday night, Mrs. Senter, the mother of three the Rotary Club Wednesday night sons, is a den mother and leader of p.m., Grail; SP Caucus, 6:30-7:30 and will be honored by the Lions a training group at the Carrboro Baptist Church

Sound & Fury Presents Rolicking 'Oh Hellas'

topped last year for Sound and Athens hear Dr. A. V. Masket speak on Due to the increased interest in making the play stand up through the "Single Side Band" and to the production it is currently ru- the ages. mored that the play will be held But others have made a major Entries close tonight at 7 o'clock over an extra day through Sunday contribution to the general frame-these is Joel Fleishman, the play's credit for the technical success.

ry Wells, James Foster, Ned Har- pointed out its durability. The ori- field, kin, Hugh Causey, Rufus Russell, ginal Aristophanes version, from Another important job was costum-William Smith, Hilary Daugherty, which Lew Hardee and Carl Brid- ing the production so that the cos-Wesley Smithman, Lewis Hawley gers derived the idea for their tumes would reflect to the audience script, was first produced 25 cen- something of 5th century Athens.

Advance ticket sales have already turies ago in the Lenean Festival in content had the greatest bearing on

Warner, who worked with John

Students in the Infirmary yester- has been working for approximately a touch of humor, is a Phi Delta a month in molding a script into a Theta, and did the job on a twelve hour a day basis, assisted only in Tallulah Smith, Mary Ramson, Har- Fleishman, in discussing the play, any real degree by Leslie Crutch-

Legislature To Introduce Twelve New Bills Tonight

Twelve bills, and the possible rein- retain their seats. troduction of a defeated one, will Further revision to the by-laws $110 to the senior class, respectivebe before the Student Legislature is proposed in another Jones' bill ly. Another by Crownover would

There is a possibility that the Jim review presidential appointments Crownover (SP) bill to make meet- failing to pass Legislature or apings of legislators with constituents pointments referred to it by a majorcompulsory will be reintroduced and ity of the governing body. reconsidered.

They will meet at 7:30 in Phi Hall, by Jack Lawing (UP) in a bill to

A bill to amend the by-laws of Legislature members present to the Legislature, introduced by Dave have a roll call vote. Jones (SP), will be on the agenda. Three bills for appropriations cil by-laws and a Traffic Safety to permit the Rules committee to give $75 to the junior class.

Another revision was suggested require the request of 1/5 of the move from their districts and still thored by Jones call for allocation da

The bill will allow legislators to will be considered tonight. Too au- Committee will also be on the agen-

of $85 to the NSA delegation and

The solons will hear a bill, by Crownover, to appropriate funds for the purchase of a new typewriter for the student government

Bills concerning a Motor Vehicle Advisory Board, the Professional Interfraternity Council, a Student Traffic Investigation staff, the Consolidated University Student Coun-

MISS MODERN VENUS - The shapely coed chosen as Miss Modern Venus during the Sigma Chi Derby this afternoon will be presented this bathing suit, which has caught the attention of these Sigma Chis: (left to right) Kent Walker and Jack Thompson, chairmen of the Derby, Dennis McCord, Sigma Chi president, and Bill Underwood, publicity chairman. Photo by Bill Brinkhous

tion meeting today at 7:15 p.m. The Radio Club will meet tonight opening in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. The Radio Club will meet tonight opening in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. The director pointed out that perhaps the universality of its thematic tonight opening in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. The director pointed out that perhaps the universality of its thematic tonight opening in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. The director pointed out that perhaps the universality of its thematic tonight opening in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. The director pointed out that perhaps the universality of its thematic tonight opening in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. The director pointed out that perhaps the universality of its thematic tonight opening in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. The director pointed out that perhaps the universality of its thematic tonight opening in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. The director pointed out that perhaps the universality of its thematic tonight opening in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. The director pointed out that perhaps the universality of its thematic tonight opening in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. The director pointed out that perhaps the universality of its thematic tonight opening in Memorial Hall at 8 p.m. The director pointed out that perhaps the universality of its thematic tonight opening on the perhaps the universality of its thematic tonight opening on the perhaps th To Be Held In Kenan tournament sabre event which will If the production is a dramatic as Doug Warner, who almost single by gets underway today with a Dean Smith basketball coach; Joe the hit the Geek contest. be in Graham Memorial Friday at success, several people will share handedly built all the sets for the parade through downtown Chapel Augustine of Stevens-Shepherd and 7 p.m. Fencers may sign up at in- the most important part of the play, which are replicas of Grecian Hill at 2 p.m. Immediately after the Claude George of the Business Ad- Dorm will be declared the winner tramurals office in Woollen Gym credit, and perhaps tops among architecture, are deserving of major parade, six Derby events will be ministration School. held in Kenan Stadium.

Doug Clark's Combo will lead the compete in a race to the flesh, the events, First, second and third Fleishman, a law student and a Sneden's design to bring a certain parade of convertibles transporting Eight more will participate in a se- place winners will get five, three graduate student in dramatic arts, authentic Greek flavor as well as the Derby participants who rep- cret event which will be revealed and one points for their sorority resent the seven UNC sororities and this afternoon at the Derby. Each sorority and the Nurses was ADPi sorority,

A major attraction of the Derby Dorm will present skits during the Master of ceremonies will be Fred will be the Miss Modern Venus con- Derby. Another event will be the Swearingen, Derby chairman are test. A bathing suit and trophy will Grand National, a relay race. Sigma Chis Jack Thompson and be presented the coed selected to One of the Sigma Chis, selected Kent Walker, Sigma Chi president succeed Gail Willingham, 1ast year's last night by his fraternity, will be is Dennis McCoy.

work of the production, Such people | The 15th Annual Sigma Chi Der- winner, Judging this contest will be the target of eight coeds entered in or dorm. Last year's Derby winner

Angel Flight Interviews Moved To Friday