Deferred Rush Defeated

It was revealed that the deferred rushing sub-committee of the committee on fraternities and sororities recommended that rush be deferred for one year, but this proposal was deleated when brought before the

Magill said the committee decided that rush was not the sole factor affecting scholarship and that the fraternities should have a chance to improve their grades.

One-Act Play Is Featured In Spectrum

A one-act play "Moselle and the Laurel Bush," by George Hill, a graduate student in the UNC drama department, is featured in the second issue of Spectrum which went en sale Monday.

On the whole the magazine includes a greater variety of full page art work and more illustrations than in the first issue

Editor Ted Crane, in commenting on Spectrum, said, "The magazine Spectrum is now well establihed and to judge from recent sales, well supported by the student body.

"At present we need staff members for the coming year, and persens interested in working with Spectrum should contact the editor or any member of the staff by next Thursday, May 14. Although the topics of sex and religion treated in the various poems of this issue have been severely criticized, I look forward to the continued success of the magazine in the years to come."

Passes Bills;

Supports NSA A resolution supporting the NSA

The resolution, introduced by Bill Norton, called for the support of all Student Party legislators when the bill comes up for a vote

The bill received bi-partisan support outside the Legislature; howday night. Student Body President Charlie Gray had spoken for it at the Finance Committee meeting. and Student Party Chairman Dewey Sheffield had expressed an interest in it. The Chairman of the University Party, Hank Patterson, voted for its passage.

Ten legislators had been absent from Thursday night's session, and the Student Party Advisory Board said that of the SP's among these members there would be enough support to insure passage of the measure should reconsideration be called for. In addition to calling for the extra delegate, the resolution ex-
