Gray Refuses To Sign; No Reporter At Trial

By Ron Shumate

In a dramatic last-minute act, the Student Legislature last night passed a bill "to require the men's, women's and student councils to allow any defendant who desires a public

The action came following an earlier request by Steve Gershenson that the press be present at his Honor Council trial, which was still in session when the Daily Tar Heel went to press last night. Gershenson is on trial for allegedly cheating on a chemistry test on Tues day, April 27. Gershenson was reported by Ed Sugarman to the professor, Dr. J. P. Collman, who made a report to Hugh Patterson, chairman of the Men's Honor Council. Gershenson is pleading not guilty to the Gershenson's request that the press be present was made in writing to Patterson, who told this reporter that all Honor Council trials were closed to the public, and that members are sworn to secrecy. However, he admitted that Gershenson-or any other defenda ants-are still free to make any statements about their own trials

The bill was written by Jim Crownover (SP) after the session of legislature had already begun; the bill was also typed while legislature was in session. It was then introduced by Crownover under new business. Special orders were moved by Bill Miller so that immediate action could be taken on

Reasons listed for the enactment of the bill were: That there "have been occasions in the past when certain defendants before the three major councils have desired public trials and all civil and criminal court trials are open to the public and it is a violation of the Bill of Rights and of man's inalienable rights for him not to have a public trial if he so de-

Gershenson's' trial may be appealed and may be retried.

When the news that the legislature had passed the bill reached the "waiting room" on the second floor of Carroll Hall, a near-bedlam immediately broke loose. And as those directly and indirectly concerned with the trial waited for some word from Charlie Gray the tension and anxiety grew.

In the absence of Patterson, who had to leave, Howard Holderness, vice-chairman of the council, stated that if the trial began before the bill reached the council, the press would not be allowed to enter the council room.

The bill never made it.
