Graduates: Need Jobs?

There are a few vacancies left to be filled in the Resident Counseling program for the 1959-60 year according to Dean of Student Affairs, Sam Magill.

The vacancies apply to the Lower Quad composed of Everett, Stacy, Lewis, Graham, and Aycock Dorms.

Each resident counselor is responsible for one floor of his assigned dorm and oversees 30 students, the majority of which are freshmen.

Duties entail counseling for the most part and in some instances, academic tutoring. Applicants must be graduate students and single.

A total of 15 resident counselors compose the Lower Quadthree in each dorm. The yearly salary for the post is $1,250.

Any persons interested in applying for jobs are urged to pick up application forms in the office of Sam Magill, 206 South

Gold To Speak

North Carolina's Insurance Commissioner, Charles F. Gold of Raleigh, will speak at a special insurance law session here during the annual Institute of Insurance Aug. 2-7.

Gold's lecture, scheduled for next Wednesday night, will be a required event for institute participants who have not taken the course in previous years.

The N. C. Assn. of Insurance Agents will sponsor the 10th annual institute in cooperation with the University and the National Assn. of Insurance Agents.

Attending will be NAIA members and their employees, members of the N. C. Assn. of Insurance Women, stock company representatives and their employees.

Patterson Appoints 8

Hank Patterson made eight apponitments at the two meetings of the Student Government Board last week.

Filling the slot on the Student Government Board left vacant by Don Dotson, who resigned, Hank appointed Ann Terry who will also serve as a member of the Finance Committee.

Lawrence Madry was appointed to the Attorney General's Staff; Garrett Folger as Clerk of Men's Honor Council; Harriet Zimmerman, Marge Clendenin, Muff Greason and Jane Parks to the Woman's Honor Council and Elaine Elden as clerk of Woman's Honor Council.

Jury Trial Referendum Passed By 63-9 Vote

A vote of 63 to 9 passed the referendum for trial by jury at summer school Honor Council trials.

Dewey Sheffield, chairman of the elections board, said, "We were very disappointed in last Wednesday's voting. Only 72 of the 3,000 ballots we had printed up were used. It shows a very lackadaisical attitude on the part of the students."

The Student Government Board met Thursday afternoon in a special session to enact a bill covering the referendum.

Mr. Sheffield's amendment to the bill providing for non-jury trials if so desired by the defendant to "save time" brought a tie vote of 3-3 with two members absent.

President Patterson, breaking the tie, voted against the amend-

The original bill, exclusive of Mr. Sheffield's amendment, was then voted on, passed and will go into effect at the next honor council trial.

Members of the summer student body make up the juries at the honor councils trials, Students are welcome to volunteer for jury duty by contacting Hank Patterson in his office on the second floor of Graham Memor-

CLASSIFIEDS

FOR SALE - AIR-CONDITIONed 1955 Ford with Fordomatic, power steering, power windows, power seat, radio and heater. Under 33,000 miles, one family car . . . leaving country for a year, must sell . . . Call 88236 evenings and Sundays or see 4:30 to 5:15 p.m. and Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, 3 to 5 p.m.

CAMPUS SEEN

Two coeds, caught in Monday afternoon's downpour without an umbrella, scampering up town. Both of them soaked to the skin and not helping the situation any as they splashed peti-meti through the pubbles.

> Snap Some Pictures This Week

FOISTER'S

Camera Store

161 E. FRANKLIN ST.

ial, on Monday and Wednesday,

Science Courses For Adults Begins At Planetarium The Morehead Planetarium is interest or consistent with cur- phone number and remittance of offering to all adults a public ser- rent events. vice three-week summer science course, beginning Monday, Man- sulation with the science counseager A. F. Jenzano announced to- lor, James W. Batten, and tele- service adult summer science day.

7 to 8 p.m., Monday, Wednesday mitting. and Thursday.

es, such as astrophysics and geo- Planetarium until Monday. Reg. omy and related sciences. physics. The topics, however, may istrations may be made by mail, be modified according to group or in person. Name, address, tele-

P. O. Box 615

There will also be personal con-

The course will be completely a fee of $7.50 to cover actual ex-

the fee are the only requirements.

Jenzano said that the public scopic viewing sessions after sev- course is being offered because The meetings wil be held from eral of the classes, weather per- of the interest evidenced by parents and other adults when the Registrations, accompanied by basic science course for children was offered a month ago. It drew informal, and will include topics penses for the three weeks, are more than 180 children who were in astronomy and related scienc- being accepted by the Morehead given basic instruction in astron-

The adult program will include such tentative topics as Earth, Space Travel, Moon, Sun, Solar System, Celestial Mechanics, Romance of the Cosmos, Vagabonds of Space, and Beyond the Solar System.

Father Of UNC Vice-President Dies Saturday

William Donald Carmichael, 86year-old father of Consolidated University Vice President and Finance Officer William D. Carmichael, Jr., died in Chapel Hill at 7 p.m. Saturday after a heart attack.

Requiem mass was held for Mr. Carmichael, who was the late Coach Jim Tatum's uncle, Monday at St. Thomas More Catholic Church. He was buried at the Chapel Hill Cemetery.

Mr. Carmichael made his home here since his retirement in 1943, but he filled the preceding 70 years with a wide variety of energetically undertaken and consistently successful activities.

He was the former Vice President of Liggett and Myers in charge of advertising in New York. He took an active interest in University projects in his early days as well as after retirement,

. He is survived by four sons: William D. Carmichael, Jr., Cartwright Carmichael of Durham and Robert H. and H. Martin Carmichael, both of New York City.

Mike Pincus, Bingham x 2.

EUBANKS Drug Co. Free Phone

5656

Delivery!

Contemporary STUDIO CARDS

If you need

Inquire Now About Fall Schedule

Day & Evening Classes

Secretarial College

Chapel Hill, North Carolina

(Over Sutton's)

TOWN CLASSES

TYPEWRITING?

SHORTHAND?

SECRETARIAL COURSE?

Phone 9-2681

REMEMBER YOUR FRIENDS WITH HILARIOUS STUDIO CARDS - CHOOSE FROM HUNDREDS

Birthdays — Friendships — Illness

BROWSE-

IN AIR CONDITIONED COMFORT IN A BOOKSTORE THAT

A BOOKSTORE

THE BOOK EXCHANGE

Durham, N. C. Five Points "THE SOUTH'S FINEST BOOKSTORE"

THREE LETTERS MISSING -- WHAT ARE THEY ?

Smokey Says:

REVENT OREST IRES

"Edge on Fashion"

The House of Fashion in Chapel Hill for the Carolinas Women's Apparel, Millinary, Shoes and Accessories

Fashions right out of the pages of your favorite Fashion Magazine

Guaranteed Merchandise Guaranteed Prices