General Joseph Moore Of Spartanburg Sets Record

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A 45-year-old Air Force general Saturday claimed a new world speed record for jet planes—1216 miles an hour.

Brig. Gen. Joseph Moore set the new mark yesterday on a closed-circuit course over Edwards Air Force Base, Calif., 100 miles north of Los Angeles.

Announcing the new record at a press conference today, Moore said his F105 Thunderchief topped 1400 miles an hour on a straight run before entering the circle. Then, he said, he had to slow down a bit to keep the plane on course.

Moore's speed was more than 100 miles an hour faster than the old record of 1100-426, set last June 18 by Gerard Muselli of the French Air Force.

The Air Force disclosed yesterday that he had broken the record, but withheld the actual figure until it could be confirmed by officials of the National Aeronautics Assn.

The Air Force said that should the new record fail to win NAA approval by Dec. 20, Moore will try again.

Moore disclosed a new method was used to keep the plane on the tight course yesterday.

"Instruments aren't much good at that speed and altitude—about 36,000 feet, he said. "Heretofore pilots have had to rely pretty much on markers they could see.

"This time we used radar, and it worked fine."

On the ground was Republic Aviation test pilot Russell Roth, who "talked" Moore around the circle.

Watching the plane on a radar scope, Roth radioed to Moore such advice as: "Tighten her up. That's good. Now you're hanging right in there."

An Air Force officer said every tenth of a mile the plane drifted from course took 12 miles an hour off the top speed.

Moore, of Spartanburg, S. C., is commander of the 4th Tactical Fighter Wing at Seymour Johnson.

His son, 1st Lt. Joseph David Moore, 25, a gunnery instructor at Williams AFB, Ariz., was at International Airport when the General flew in from Edwards. Lt. Moore flies an F86 and says he "hopes to graduate" to an F105 someday.

The facade is a square grillwork in white marble with tall, gilded posts of modernistic design at either side. The main lobby where Eisenhower will enter has towering walls faced with highly polished, deep green marble. The corridors are faced with white marble. A deep carpet in royal blue covers the floor.

Within the chamber red leather chairs for the senators and deputies stand in a semi-circle on the blue carpet. The walls are covered with light brown leather. The doorways are faced with brightly polished copper.

A glass tile roof makes the chamber well lighted. Interlacing beams faced with small gold tiles fan out to support the glass tiles. A huge glass chandelier of modernistic design hangs from the center.

Eisenhower's speech will be heard by the full Cabinet, all 60 senators and the 134 members of the Majlis or lower house.

The marble palace where Eisenhower and the Shah will lunch is a square white structure with an exquisite Persian dome covered in cream colored in the midst of a garden of trees and shrubs.

3 Still Loose

(Continued from page 1) old escape artist described as the mastermind of the prison break, pleaded guilty to a federal charge of auto theft. He was held in lieu of $50,000 bond for the February term of Federal court at Danville.

"I'll plead guilty because I want to go to a Federal court," Stewart told U. S. Commissioner English Ford.

"They treat you good in a Federal penitentiary."

Stewart, who is not related to Woodrow Stewart, has broken jail six times during a criminal career that began after North Carolina executed his father and brother in 1925 for murdering a probation officer.

Yank Stewart complained to newsmen about conditions at the Ivy Bluff camp, a rock quarry where discipline is rigid and living conditions Spartan. He said he had been two years in solitary confinement there and added:

"I didn't do nothing. They're just mean."

DIARY OF A COED

MONDAY: Prof. Pomfritt sprang quiz in English lit this morning. If Shakespeare didn't write Canterbury Tales I'm a dead duck... Lunch at the house—turkey hash. Question: how can we have turkey hash when we never had turkey? ... Smoked a Marlboro after lunch. I dig those better makin' the most! ... Played bridge with sorors in afternoon. When game was over, my partner stabbed me several times with hatpin. Must learn weak club bid... Dinner at house—lamb hash. Question: how can we have lamb hash when we never had lamb? ... Smoked a Marlboro after dinner. What filter! What flavor! What pack or box! ... Chapter meeting at night. Motion made to abolish capital punishment for pledges. Motion defeated... Smoked more Marlboros. Quelle joie! ... And so to bed.

TUESDAY: Faculty tea at the house. Spilled pot of oolong on Dean of Women. She very surly. Offered her a Marlboro. Still surly. Offered skin graft. No help... Dinner at Kozzy Kampus Kafe—24 hamburgers. But no dessert. Have to watch waistline... And so to bed.

WEDNESDAY: Got our marks in English lit quiz. Lucky for me Shakespeare wrote Canterbury Tales! ... Afternoon date with Ralph Feldspar. Purely platonic. Ralph wanted to consult me about love trouble he's having with his girl Nymphet Calloway. I assured him things would get better. Ralph said he certainly hopes so because last four times he called on Nymphet, she dumped vacuum cleaner bag on him... Smoked several Marlboros. Wonderful cigarette. No confusion about which end to light. Saves loads of time... Dinner at house—bread. That's all; just bread... And so to bed.

THURSDAY: Three packages from home—laundry, cookies, records. So hungry I ate all three... Quiz in American history. If Millard Fillmore didn't invent cotton gin, I'm in big trouble... Dinner at house. Big excitement—Nymphet Calloway announced her engagement to Ralph Feldspar. While sorors flocked around to congratulate Nymphet, I ate everybody's side meat... Then smoked Marlboro. Oh, what a piece of work is Marlboro! ... And so to bed.

FRIDAY: Got our marks in American history quiz. Was shattered to learn that Millard Fillmore did not invent cotton gin. He wrote Canterbury Tales... How very odd! ... Lunch at the house—bread hash... Marlboro after lunch. Great smoke. Must send valentine to manufacturers... Spent entire afternoon getting dressed for date tonight with Norman Twonkey. Norman is tall, dark, loaded—a perfect doll! Only thing wrong is he never tells a girl where he's going to take her. So I put on a bathing suit, on top of that an evening gown, and on top of that a snowsuit. Thus I was ready for a splash party, a dance, or a toboggan slide... So what do you think happened? He entered me in a steeplechase, that's what! ... Would have taken first prize easily if I hadn't pulled up lame in the last furlong... And so to bed.

Yes, the college life is a busy one and you may be having trouble choosing the cigarette that's right for you. Here's a handy guide: For filter plus flavor—Marlboro. For flavor without filter—Philip Morris. For filter plus flavor plus coolness—Alpine... All made by the sponsors of this column.
