

Terps Host To ACC Rassel Tournament

By PETE GAMMONS
This afternoon the Tar Heel Wrestlers will be squared off against the other seven ACC schools in the annual ACC Tournament at College Park, Md. Carolina, 6-6 during the regular season, is seeded second behind defending champion Maryland. Maryland, who has never lost the tourney, shouldn't have too much of a problem with anyone except the Heels, and they drubbed them 22-6 February 22 at College Park. Last year the Terps grabbed off nine of the ten individual trophies, and copped the team prize with an astounding 103 points. Returning to defend their individual crowns are Dave Ott (137), Bob Kopinsky (157), Amando Soto (167), Marshall Daurberman (177), Tim Geiger (191), and Gary Wilkander (hw). Kopinsky was voted the outstanding wrestler of last year's tourney. Other lettermen entries are Nelson Around (123) and Capt. Fred Sentner (147).

State, who defeated Carolina in a four-way match at Blacksburg, Va., January 11, and was tripped here last Friday 16-15, is the main roadblock in UNC's runner-up finish. They are led by three well renowned stars, all of whom placed last year. Pete Fountain (191), who beat Jerry Cabe Friday after being clobbered by him earlier this year, is seeded second behind Geiger. Pete Sawhill (177) also is seeded second, since he only lost at Maryland. The other State star is Steve Barnes (137).

To match three State veterans Sam Barnes puts up Cabe, Steve Lister, and Russ Simmons. Barnes feels all three can get second. Cabe was only defeated by one point by Fountain, and was considered to have a bad night. Lister, whose weight was up due to football, was forced to forfeit. Simmons, who has come on very strong lately, easily pinned Barnes. Despite his speed he has an excellent chance of winning, for he also defeated Maryland's Ott at College Park. He has been erratic throughout the season, but certainly has the capabilities to all the way. Paul Wellstone (123) is seeded first and is a heavy favorite to win his class. Kenny Furr (130), also a winner at Maryland, has an excellent chance in his class, mainly on the basis of his remarkable progress during the season. Dick Blackman (147) will be closing out his career, and joins other Carolina starters Jack Saunders (115), Elliott Dworin (157), Bill Cook (167), and Bill Warren (hw).
The opening round and semifinals will be played today, the first round at 2 and the semis at 8. Tomorrow afternoon the consolation and that night the finals will round out the tourney.

ATO Cops Blue Intramural Championship Easily, 36-22

By PETE GAMMONS
ATO broke into a hot streak early in the second half and went on to defeat Phi Kap Sig 36-22 in the Fraternity Blue Finals. Leading 18-10 at the half, the ATO's outscored the Phi Kaps 11-2 to break the game wide open and coast to the championship. They were aided greatly by both the frequency of fouls and the horrendous shooting of the Phi Kaps. Sammy Simpson, as usual, was top scorer with 15, followed by Jim Corbett of ATO and Gordon Wood of Phi Kappa Sig with 9.

In the Dormitory White Championship, it was a similar second half burst that enabled the Ehringhaus B Kings to run away from the Winston Skitchasers 46-31. Leading only 18-16 at the half, the Kings scored ten straight points to coast to the title. George Boutsell (16) and Sandy Kinney (9) led the victors, while the losers were paced by Glenn Cuthrell with 11. The Ehringhaus B Blue team, also comprised mainly of football players, won the Blue Division earlier this week.

Soccer results have started to trickle in, and already some teams are looking like the ones to beat. Aycock slaughtered Pi Kappa Phi 6-0, highlighted by Sam Hunt's three goals. Chi Psi defeated Avery, 4-1, led by varsity star Marty Krumming's two goals. Sandy Loudon scored late in the fourth quarter to give the Air Force a 1-0 win over Craigie B. Other games saw SAE win over Chi Phi 2-1, and DU top Beta 3-1. St. Anthony Hall, Aycock, the Peacocks, the Town Boarders, and Chi Psi appear to be the favorites as of right now.

Pick, Career Cut Classes

"Careers for Carolina," a program designed to acquaint students with careers in public service will be presented here March 6.

The program is sponsored by Student Government and the Institute of Government.

A two hour luncheon at the Carolina Inn is part of the all-day program scheduled from 9 a.m. until 5:30 p.m.

All students who attend the program will be excused from classes for the day.

Persons interested in attending the program may sign up at the Information Desk at Graham Memorial. There will be a $2.15 charge for those attending the luncheon.

Since space is allotted for only 100 persons, those interested are urged to sign up early.

Among the speakers scheduled to appear are Joel Fleishman, legal assistant to the Governor; Chancellor William Aycock; and William Veeder, Charlotte city manager.

German Lefty Battles Terrell Tonight
NEW YORK (UPI)—Tall southpaw Gerhard Zech, heavyweight champion of Germany, launches his American campaign for a shot at the world crown Friday night in a fight with third-ranking contender Ernie Terrell, of Chicago.
Their scheduled 10-rounder at Madison Square Garden brings together the two tallest boxers ever to meet in a nationally televised fight.
Terrell, seeking his ninth straight victory, stretches up six-foot-six but is streamlined at about 205 pounds. Blond Zech appears an inch shorter when he and Terrell stand back-to-back, but weighs 212.
Twenty-five-year-old Gerhard, who has the reputation of an aggressive slugger, seeks his seventh straight knockout. He also hopes to stretch his unbeaten string to 13 bouts, including one draw. His 26 fights show but one defeat. He scored 17 knockouts.
