

Glacken, Piccolo Pace Victories

Duke, Wake Romp To Wins

Devils Romp Over Virginia

DURHAM, N. C. (AP)—Quarterback Scotty Glacken threw two touchdown passes as Duke exploded for 21 points in the second period and rolled to a 30-0 Atlantic Coast Conference football victory over Virginia Saturday.

A crowd of 20,000 saw Duke turn two intercepted passes into second period touchdowns after a scoreless first quarter. Glacken, 182-pound junior of Bethesda, Md., fired a touchdown pass to end Jim Scott early in the second period on a play covering 65 yards.

Shortly before the half, Glacken threw a three-yard scorer to end Chuck Drulis. Duke halfback John Carlo had set it up with a pass interception on Virginia's eight.

The Blue Devils, who tied South Carolina 9-9 in the season opener, scored again shortly before intermission when guard Bill Simpson intercepted Tom Hodge's pass on the Virginia one and raced over.

Hodges had drifted back into the end zone and flipped the ball which was deflected into the air. Rod Stewart kicked three extra points.

In the third period, Duke end Dave Burdette scored a safety when Drulis blocked Tom Shuman's punt. The ball rolled out of the end zone and Burdette fell on it.

The Blue Devils scored their final touchdown in the last quarter when fullback Mike Curtis dived over from the Virginia three to cap a 37-yard drive.

Virginia, which lost to Wake Forest in its opener, mustered two serious threats. The Cavaliers drove to Duke's eight in the third period and were on the Blue Devils' seven when the game ended.

Wake Stuns V.P.I., 38-21

ROANOKE, Va.—(AP)—Amazing Wake Forest over-powered Virginia Tech for three quarters with a sturdy defensive rush and the running of fullback Brian Piccolo, then matched the Techmen's comeback efforts for a stunning 38-21 Harvest Bowl football victory Saturday.

Piccolo, who scored three touchdowns in the Deacons' 31-21 upset last Saturday over Virginia, bulled his way for 154 yards on 28 carries and scored twice in the second period to move Wake Forest from a 7-3 deficit to a 17-7 lead at intermission.

At the same time, the Deacons put such a terrific rush on Tech quarterback Bob Schwickert in the first half that the third-team All-America ace gained only 44 yards on the ground and failed to hit a pass.

Having beaten the Techmen into submission up the middle, Wake Forest turned to the flanks in the second half and sent halfbacks Wayne Welborn and Don Davis for huge chunks of yardage time after time. Welborn scored the last three Wake Forest touchdowns, one on a 42-yard run.

Down by 24-7, Tech came to life late in the third period on a 47-yard run by sophomore halfback Tommy Francisco on a no-huddle center snap from Schwickert, sent Sonny Utz over from a yard out and pulled to within nine points at 24-15.

FIND
$200.00 CASH

in the

TREASURE HUNT

Hear new clues to its location everyday on

WCHL 1360 - Chapel Hill

Hear the first clue Monday