UNC Library Serials Dept. Box 870 "America's Voters Go To The Polls Today

America goes to the polls today.

The long months of campaigning have run their course. Politicians are quiet and the future of a nation is in the hands of its people.

Record turnouts are predicted for most parts of the nation and Orange County is no exception. Some 13,800 Orange County voters are expected to cast ballots at the county's 25 polling places. Polls open at 6:30 a.m. and close at 6:30 p.m.

Foreign students are urged by Dean A. C. Howell to observe halloting today in Woollen Gym and Graham Memorial, and to watch the counting later.

Chapel Hill voters will mark five ballots to choose a president, governor, heads of state agencies, Sixth District Congressman, state senator, county officers and Chapel Hill Township constable. Also to be decided is the proposed $100 million State School Bond Issue.

Orange County Board of Election figures put total registration at 18,913-16,390 Democrats, 2,145 Republicans and 379 independents.

With a more than 6 to 1 majority, Democrats are predicted to on Chapel Hill ballots follows: carry Orange in much the same CONGRESSMAN manner as in the 1960 election.

John Kennedy carried the county Horace R. Kornegay, Demothen with 7,180 votes to Richard cratic-Greensboro lawyer, Sixth Nixon's 5.231. Orange went for District Congressman for the past Terry Sanford over Robert Gav-3½ years. He is past president in by a count of 7,442 to 4,838. of the Guilford County and state-Horace Kornegay topped Col. wide Young Democratic Club and Holland L. Robb by 6,902 to 3,402

Officials of both parties, however, have predicted sweeping victories for their candidates. Estimates differ on just how much President Johnson will carry the county. Predictions range from 1,200 to 2,000 votes. Dan Moore, who carried the county by 700 votes in the Democratic runoff primary against Richardson Preyer, is expected to win handily over Gavin who makes his second bid for governor after totaling over 46 per cent of the state's total vote in 1960. One factor which cannot be predicted is the size of the writein vote for Frank Porter Graham. former UNC president and now a UN mediator. Efforts for a Graham write-in have continued despite his disapproval of the movement. A rundown of other candidates

here.

Walter G. Green, Republican-President of Glencoe Mills in Burlington. He has been a mem-. ber of the bar for more than 30 years with wide legal experi- years as Orange County Agriculence. A 1926 Phi Beta Kappa ture Agent. He has a B.S from graduate of UNC, he has a B.A. N. C. State and Master's degree a former member of the State in Honor School Jurisprudence in rural economics from UNC and Democratic Advisory Committee. from Oxford University.

STATE SENATE

Denald S. Matheson, Democrat -Retired in June, 1963 after 35 Loan Association. He holds LIB.

For Voters: Decision Of A Big Question

CHAPEL HILL, NORTH CAROLINA, TUESDAY NOVEMBER 3, 1964

The Natily Tar Heel

was director of the Research Triangle Planning Commission. Claude Currie, Democrat-Has served 19 terms in the State Senate, nine of them from Durham County. He is president of Durham's Security Savings and and A.B. degrees from UNC. Alexander Barnes, Republican -Veteran Negro newspaperman, now working with the Carolinian in Raleigh He has been a field representative for the Republican Party since 1936 and public relations director of the 25,000 member Omega Psi Phi fraternity.

STATE HOUSE

of Orange Savings and Loan Association and past president of the Merchants Association and the Retail Credit Association.

T. S. (Ted) Coile, Republican-Former professor of forestry at Duke University. He is now a consultant to pulp and paper companies throughout the South. He holds a Ph.D. from the University of Michigan.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Donald M. Stanford, Democrat W. Glen Caruthers, Jr., Demo--Unopposed. Director of North Carolina Association of County crat-Resident of Cedar Grove township. He operates a 240-Commissioners and chairman of the Orange County Board of Comacre dairy farm, has been active missioners since 1960. He is a in school affairs and has held offices in several state-wide farm Chapel Hill dairy farmer and president of the North Carolina organizations. Robert James Page, Republic-

Hills.

COUNTY COMMISSIONER

William C. Ray, Democrat-He is a beef and dairy cattle farmer of Cedar Grove, vice president of the Orange County Farm Bureau, community director of the Central Carolina Farmers and Democratic Committeeman of the Cedar Grove precinct.

Dairy Federation.

Harvey D. Bennett, Democrat -Now ending his first four-year term on the board. He is co-owner of Bennett and Blocksidge UNOPPOSED Roger L. Marshall, Democrathas no opposition for a short term on the Board of Education. and incumbent Democrat Vernon Fuel and Appliance Sore, director G. Burch is unopposed for constable.

an-Practicing attorney in Chapel

Hill. He is a former staff member of the UNC Institute of Government, is now treasurer of the Orange County Cancer Society and precinct chairman for Estes

Pumpkin The Great Pumpkin didn't show up Halloween night, but informed sources say he might make an appearance for election night, Look for him in sincere pumpkin patches in Phoenix and Johnson City. Good luck on finding one.

Associated Press Wire Service

Both Sides Claim Victory As Long Campaign Closes

oi and Alabama, a state where Johnson's name isn't even on the Beginning at one minute after midnight in some New England towns an estimated 71 million

Americans-a record number - will deliver their verdict in the Presidential race - and also members and 35 senators.

choose 25 governors, 435 house

Founded Feb. 23, 1893

Vote

Nothing else need he

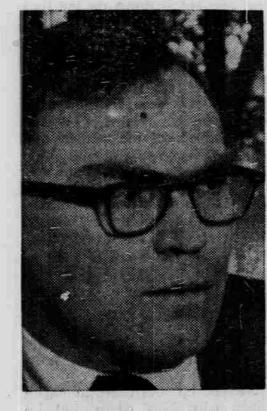

For Writer McKenna

Richard McKenna, who retired from a 22-year career in the author of the novel "Sand Pebbles," died Sunday of a heart attack.

The 51-year-old native of Mountain Home, Idaho, had lived in Chapel Hill since 1953 when left the Navy to enroll in UNC.

Graveside funeral services will be held at 3 p.m. today at the New Chapel Hill Cemetery near Eastgate.

McKenna rose to overnight success in 1962 when his first novel "Sand Pebbles" was published. A story based on his Navy service in the Far East waters, the book became a Book-of-the-Month Club selection. It won the $10,000 Harper's Prize for 1962 and has been translated into eight languages. Movie rights were purchased for more than $200,000.

RICHARD McKENNA

Author Manly Wade Wellman, probably McKenna's closest friend here, said, "Mac came) as close as you can get to becoming a major literary figure with one novel."

At the time of his death, Mc-Kenna was working on a second novel, also concerned with Navy life.

During his years in the Navy he read wilsey and completed always ready to encourage as- to make speeches. He rarely repiring young writers. novel, a book compared with

Services Are Today

"From Here To Eternity" and other major war novels, success kept McKenna busy. "'Sand Pebbies' made him so popular," English Department Chairman George Harper said, "that everyone was after him fused and had trouble staying at After the publication of his home long enough to write on that second novel."

Funeral arrangements will be conducted by Rev. Charles M. Jones of the Community Church of Chapel Hill. It was McKenna's custom, on the death of a friend, to send a donation to a child welfare agency.

OOPS! The Cuban Visitors Were Scheduled For Duke

ings.

The committee, started last month, plans "to bring the views of the liberal camp to Duke," organize public discussions and study groups, according to Blum.

Mondays at 204 Flowers.

Trouble Charged

today they were up against intimidation that included two

FBI agents were assisting in the investigation of the church fires - some 200 miles apart.

in the past few months.

church burnings and 23 arrests.

In Negro Vote

By ALAN BANOV DTH News Editor

sponsored by the Liberal Action Committee there, was postponed What was thought to be a test from last night to 8 p.m. Thursof the Speaker Ban last night at day. Committee chairman Shel-130 Alumni was actually a proley Blum, Duke graduate stugram at Duke, which has been dent, said Monday the trio would postponed until Thursday night. speak at 136 Social Science Bldg., However, the three speakers, under the auspices of the Southwho violated the State Departern Education Leadership Conment ban on travel to Cuba last ference. summer, are scheduled to appear Blum, 24, of New York, said his here Wednesday night, tentativenewly-formed group has not comly at 8 p.m. in 111 Murphy. They pleted registration with the Duke spoke in Chapel Hill and in Dur-Dean of Student Affairs to use ham several weeks ago. school buildings for public meet-

The Student Peace Union will sponsor speeches by Allen Lowe, Steve Newman and Mary Mayer on their Cuban trip. They will not test the Speaker Ban, since they are not covered by its provisions, according to SPU head Dick Doble.

Larry Phelps, UNC graduate who also went to Cuba, said Sunday night he would not speak then. He would be barred by the Speaker Ban, since he has pleaded the Fifth Amendment be-

Un-American Activities. The Speaker Ban, passed by the 1963 General Assembly, bans from speaking on state-supported campuses persons who have taken the Fifth Amendment in answer to questions about Communist activities. Known members of the Communist Party and advocates of the overthrow of the state or local government are also prohibited from speaking.

Spearman Issues Election Plea

Student Body President Bob Spearman issued this statement Monday to students regarding today's elections:

PRESIDENT JOHNSON WON UNC's mock election yesterday by a 1,254 to 1,078 vote. Johnson emerged with a 53.7 per cent victory over Senator Goldwater. A DTH Presidential preference poll recently gave Johnson 57 per cent. The Graham Memorial Current Affairs Committee was in charge of the mock election.

-Photo by Jock Lauterer

Ragan Condemns Criticism Of Assassination Coverage

By ERNIE McCRARY

Sam Ragan, president of the Associated Press Managing Editors Association, has called criticism of the press by the Warren Commission report "as a whole,

Leaders of a mock election in future major news eents. among Mississippi Negroes said

Mr. Ragvan, executive editor of the Raleigh Times and the News and Observer, told members o! Sigma Delta Chi journalism fraternity here Sunday that he appointed a special committee of editors to study the report.

Over 30 Negro churches have gone up in smoke or explosions James Farmer, head of the Congress of Racial Equality, said the church fires were among "at least 40 separate instances of harassment, in addition to campaign workers ar-fusion in Dallas but he blamed the Dallas police for the "great tragedy that the legal guilt of Harvey Oswald will never be known." "The Dallas police felt this event to be of major importance and wanted to cooperate with the press. The whole key is that they brought Oswald out to be photographed, even though no reporter asked for this.

"They did not have to move him in public. They had no obligation to parade him and shouldn't have done it."

Mr. Ragan denied the charge that the operation of the press in Dallas interefered with the are as concerned as the bar association with fair trials. A free press and fair trial are not incompatible; in fact, one is necessary for the other."

Explaining the rejection of the code of conduct suggestion, Mr.

WASHINGTON - (AP) - The cut, Rhode Island, Alaska and sound and jury of what has been Hawaii.

called the most bitter Presidential campaign in modern times ended Monday night with a final burst of oratory-and with all polls forecasting a victory today ballot for President Johnson,

Many of the polls estimate it will be a Johnson landslide rivaling Franklin D. Roosevelt's victory in 1936. But the President's Republican rival, Sen. Barry Goldwater, says he doesn't believe the polls and is predicting the "upset of the century."

Many of these lesser candidates His lieutenants say they see a will rise or fall with the futures chance of carrying every state of the No. 1 man on their ticket except Massachusetts; Connectialthough widespread ticket-split-

SL Names Today In Honor Of John Motley Morehead

The Student Legislature has His numerous gifts to the Unidesignated today as John Motley versity include the Morehead Morehead Day. Building, containing the Planetarium and Art Gallery; the Morehead, celebrating his 94th birthday, is being honored for his contributions to the University.

The Carolina graduate, scientist, statesman and philanthropist is at his home in Rye, N. Y.

He is now the oldest employee of the Union Carbide Corporation, serving as engineer and chemical consultant

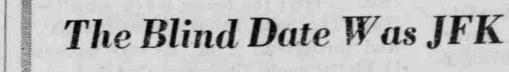

"Uncle Mot" was born in Spray, and graduated from UNC with a B.S. degree in 1891. He was a member of SAE Fraternity and the Golden Fleece.

In 1892, he discovered a commercial process for manufacturing calcium carbide which is used today.

Morehead later devised a methcd to analyze gases that was accepted as the cheapest and most efficient procedure.

He also worked in the diplomatic field. In 1929, he accepted President Hoover's appointment as Envoy-Extraordinary and Minister-Plenopotentiary to Sweden. He became the only foreigner to ever receive the Gold Medal Kungl from the Swedish government.

"Uncle Mot" is probably best science, engineering and diploknown to North Carolinians and UNC students as a philanthropist. macy.

ting is forecast-by Republicans who don't go along with Goldwater's Conservative views and Johnson's aides, however, have given up nope only on Mississip-by Southerners and others who reject Johnson's civil rights stand.

But even with ticket-splitting, if Johnson wins on the massive scale predicted by some pollsters many Democrats may ride into congress and statehouses on the President's coat-tails

And some of these see-saw races have won almost as much national attention as the Johnson-Goldwater battle.

For instance, former Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy is in a tight, tough battle in New York in his effort to oust Republican Kenneth R. Keating from his Senate seat.

And in California, Sen. Pierre Salinger, the late President John F. Kennedy's press secretary, is in just as tough a battle to keep his appointive Senate seat against a challenge by former song-anddance man George Murphy.

With the deadline only hours away the smoke of battle still hung over the campaign trail as Goldwater, Johnson and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, the President's running mate, tried to corral a few more votes.

Getting in his last shot at California, one of the states he figures he must have to win, Goldwater summed up his campaign arguments before a San Francisco audience.

"Tomorrow," he declared, "we can take the first step toward ending in our time the erosion of individual worth by a growing federal bureaucracy."

He drummed on his theme that he offers a "choice, not an echo." and said the choice in this election is between "far more than political programs, far more than political promises. It is a choice of what sort of future we want to pass on to our children."

To choose the present administration, he said, will lead to a regimented society, unilateral disarmament and appeasement

"Choose the way of this present administration and you have the way of mobs in the streets. restrained only by the plea that they wait until after the election to ignite violence once again. With the other big three still on the hunt for votes. Miller returned to Washington to rest before (Continued on Page 3)

Intern Application Deadline Is Nov. 14

JOHN M. MOREHEAD

Stand and a state

process of free trial. "We are not advocates of blatant pre-trial publicity," he said. "As professional newsmen we

It meets at 8 p.m. on alternate The DTH learned of the Monday night program by a flyer unjustified." The Sept. 27 report to the public criticized the "mob" press coverage of the assassination of President Kennedy and suggested that a "code of conduct" be adopted to preent this confusion

He said the study committee concluded that "news media would like to avoid madhouse coverage, but also want to avoid a code of conduct. A pool arrangement appears to be the ideal solution, but almost impossible to effect. A committee of editors to listing the site as "130 Psychology-Sociology." fore the House Committee on

correspondence courses in litera- ture, mathematics and the sciences. He came to Chapel Hill at the advice of a former naval officer who told him the town was " a good place for a man with purpose." Determined to become a writer, McKenna chose a variety of University courses which he felt would help him accomplish his purpose. He became a bril- liant student in English litera- ture, philosophy and psychology and graduated Phi Beta Kappa in three years. After graduation he married Eva Grice, a UNC librarian he met while a student. He was known around the campus as a modest, self-assur- ed man more concerned with his work than recognition. He was	 will go to the polls to select their leaders at local, state and national levels. I strongly urge all eligible students to exercise their right and to fulfill their public responsibility by voting for the candidate of their choice. Today North Carolinians will also vote on a $100 million school bond issue. A sound and adequate system of public schools is essential for the economic and cultural well-being of our state. High quality primary and secondary education is a prerequisite to academic excellence in our colleges and universities. North Carolina now has a shortage of over 10,000 public 	INSURANCE The National Student Associa- tion's $10.000 life insurance pol- icy is now available to all stu- dents of UNC at Chapel Hill, ac- cording to Student Government- NSA Coordinator Neal Jackson. The policy, underwritten by a Baltimore, Md. insurance firm, charges the student $20 per year if he is under age 24, $25 per year if he is between 25-28 years old, and $30 per year if he is between 29-33 years old. ABSENTEE BALLOTS	who have said the Warren re- port proves that the press lives up to its duty and responsibility. It is regrettable, he said, that this unprocedented fast, accurate a n d comprehensive coverage should be condemned. He said non-print reporters, such as cameramen with a crew of helpers, contributed to the con- INTERVIEWS Interviews for Orientation Committee Chairman for next year will be held from 2 to 4	Ragan said, "There is no need for further codes. The most im- portant code is for newspaper- men to conduct themselves as civilized people. We must always remember that we are not in business to satisfy our own cu- rosities The people's right to know is the only right we should resignize." Mr. Ragan said he personally considered the pool arrangement for news coverage "plausible and possible." "The only solution I see as to the make-up of the pool would be a representative from each of the two major news cervices, one from the broadcasting networks, one from the local papers where the event is taking place and a certain number of others chosen by the 'name in the pot' method."	 PHOENIX, AFIZ. (AP) — Betty Rockwen of Phoenix had a "blind date" on election day 1944 with a young man from the East who was in the Arizona city recuperating. She said she called for the young man, John Fitzgerald Kennedy, and took him to a small party at a Phoenix home. They decided to listen to election returns in the race between Franklin D. Roosevelt and Thomas E. Dewey, she said, so they went to the den. Already seated next to the radio was another man—Barry Goldwater. The story was told Monday by local columnist Jack Williams in the Phoenix Gazette. 	Applications for the Depart ment of State intern program will be accepted until Nov. 14 according to Denn of Studen Afairs C. O. Cathey. One UNC student from the applicants will serve as a sum mer intern in the State Depart ment, and will be allotted a liberal salary and the opportu- nity to become acquainted will top policy makers. Juniors, seniors and graduate students are eligible for the program, and must have at lease an over-all B average and plant for a career in the foreign ser- vice. Application forms may be secured from the office of the Dean of Student Affairs in 10 South Building.
--	---	---	--	--	--	--