Coaches Smith, Rupp Praise Gauntlett's Inspired Play

By PETE GAMMONS

Asst. Sports Editor Nervously fumbling with a pack of cigarettes UNC coach Dean Smith was at a loss for words immediately following his team's 82-67 win over Kentucky.

After taking almost a minute to get it lit, he finally calmed down enough to discuss what is thus far the highlight of the season.

"We played a really fine game out there tonight, certainly our best so far. Lewis finally got over his nervousness and broke loose and Cunningham and Gauntlett really came through."

"I let Billy stay in there after he got his fourth foul, which I didn't do Saturday against South Carolina. Kentucky tried to feed Adams inside and force Cunningham to foul, but Adams couldn't hit and ended up fouling out him-

"Gauntlett did a remarkable job on Conley. He played a strong defensive game." Conley, who averaged 13 points a game last year and was counted on for almost twenty this year was harassed all night by the aggressive sophomore, and was held to only 9

Smith was pleased with the control Lewis and Cunningham maintained on the boards, getting 27 rebounds between Kentucky coach Adolph Rupp was considerably calmer than Smith, but had little to be pleased about.

loose one more game we could win . . . but he came through. We knew Cunningham would be great, but Lewis was the "North Carolina does everything pretty well-they run their patterns well, rebound well and shoot excellently."

The veteran coach was surprised at the play of Gauntlett. "Where did he come from? I hadn't even heard of him, but he did a great job in every department . . . he's a good boy."

UNC Captain Cunningham was naturally very happy after defeating the Wildcats for the second time in his three varsity years. "I think we're coming around well. Bobby played a real good game."

The Kid thought that Cotton Nash was the big difference between this year's Kentucky team and last year's. "They miss him badly; he was really great under those boards."

Still somewhat tense after his first "big" game for the varsity, Bobby Lewis said that he had been greatly disappointed by his first three performances. "I was really tense, and still am to an extent, as my foul shooting indicates (7-14). Also there is quite a difference between freshman and varsity ball and it's taking me some time to adjust. I was trying too hard, but I'm coming around and may be ready now."

ines, pre-season favorites as the No. 1 college basketball team in the country, confirmed that estimate Tuesday with an almost unanimous vote in The Associated Press' first regular season basketball poll. The Wolverines, led by Cazzie Russell and Bill Buntin romped past three opponents in the first week of the season and romped off with 32 of the 34 first-place votes and a 100point bulge over second-place Wichita.

Impressive in an 86-79 decision over Top Ten opponent Duke last week, Michigan gained 337 points in the balloting based on 10 points for first, nine for second, etc. Wichita finished in the runner-up spot with 236 points. The Wheatshockers, who have had only one game to show their talents, get an opportunity to further impress the selectors when they tangle with Michigan Monday night. Besides top-ranked Michigan, only 10th-rated St. John's of New York held onto a preseason spot with the first week

Michigan's powerful Wolver- of play causing considerable shuffling. Fourth - ranked Davidson, seventh-ranked Syracuse and No. 8 Kansas State all plummeted from the elite after splitting their first two games.

Ninth-ranked Kentucky. however, lost to the Tar Heels 82-67 Monday night after the voting had been completed and are in jeopardy of dropping down in the next balloting.

Miller Scores 39 Points As Frosh Whip Wingate

Larry Miller poured in 39 points, 28 in the second half, as the Tar Babies crushed Wingate Junior College, 98-71, Monday night for their second straight win.

After missing eight minutes of the first half due to illness, Miller showed the Charlotte Coliseum fans why he was one of the most sought-after high school prospects last year, hitting on 17 of 27 shots from everywhere on the court.

Miller received able assistance from 6-8 Dickson Gribble, who scored 19 points and grabbed off 22 rebounds. Greg Campbell was the other Tar Baby in double . gures with Billy Hargette led the losers with 20 points. Mac Gaddy and Dick Yongue added 14 for Wingate.

The Tar Babies stumbled throughout most of the first half, unable to pull away from the stubborn Bulldogs. Led by Hargette, who scored 14 in the first half, Wingate overcame an early UNC margin and finally went ahead 28-26 with 7:52 left in the half.

Miller tied the score with a layup, but the Bulldogs hit six straight points to lead 34-28 with 5:36 remaining. But led by Miller and Gribble, the Tar Babies scored 16 straight points before Hargette hit at the halftime buzzer and the Tar Babies had a 44-36 halftime margin.

Then after Yongue hit from the corner, Miller ripped off nine points and Gribble added two in less than a minute to break the game wide open at 78-50. The biggest lead came at 2:18 when Gribble hit on a three-point play to run the lead to 96-63. ☐ none? ☐ 1 inch? ☐ 1½ inches?

How much foam should there be?

You'll hear some people say there shouldn't be any head at all. They say phooey on the foam . . . where's the beer! They shouldn't. Not when it's Budweiser, anyway.

Budweiser is brewed so that it will kick up a healthy head of foam. We go to a lot of trouble to let Budweiser create its own tiny bubbles, rather than pumping them in. Natural carbonation and our exclusive Beechwood Ageing are two things we just won't get modern about. It takes a lot longer this way, and costs more money. (In fact, it gives our treasurer fits.) But the results-a good head of foam, real beer taste, smoothness and drinkability-are more than worth it.

So pour your Budweiser with about an inch-and-a-half collar of foam. Two inches if it's a tall glass. Watch those bubbles gather . . . then taste. (That's what we tell our treasurer to do when he starts fussing about the high cost of bubbles and beechwood. And he just smiles and swallows his arguments.)
