

AAUP At Pfeiffer Petitions Against Speaker Ban Law

The Pfeiffer College chapter of the American Association of University Professors Monday became the second state chapter to urge repeal of the Speaker Ban Law.

Fifty-two of the 60 chapter members signed a petition which was forwarded to Stanley County Rep. Clyde Whitley in Raleigh.

The AAUP at Davidson College recently passed a resolution expressing opposition to the law. The Pfeiffer petition noted the action of the Davidson AAUP.

In a note accompanying the petition, Dr. Warren E. Gates, chapter president, said: "The Speaker Ban Law infringes upon academic freedom in that it deprives the appointed officials who are in charge of higher education of state colleges and universities of their right to determine what is right for their student bodies in terms of education and citizenship."

THE INTIMATE BOOKSHOP PROUDLY OFFERS The Library of a Religious Philosopher PART I

This library, the collection of an outstanding scholar, will be shown in two sections, the second of which will go out a week from which will go out next week.

It includes books on philosophy, Religious History, and theology, with special emphasis on the Reformation. It is a multi-lingual collection, and in time ranges from 16th Century editions to review copies of fairly recent books. Prices will range as widely as dates, but we think any serious scholar will find treasure here.

Debaters Tie For 1st In 8th ACC Tournament

UNC and Wake Forest tied for championship awards at the Atlantic Coast Conference's eighth annual debate tournament at Clemson over the past weekend.

The Tar Heel freshmen took first in both affirmative and negative divisions.

The varsity placed second behind Wake Forest.

Sophomore Robert S. Powell was the best individual speaker. Freshman David Kiel took another first place for the Tar Heels as a novice division speaker.

However, Wake Forest had a cumulative total of two more points in all divisions than UNC, so they took home the first-place trophy.

Tar Heel debaters were Bob Powell, Eric VanLoon, Craig Bradley and Curtis Branscome, varsity; and David Kiel, Steve Kemic, Bill Clemens and John Olshinski, novice.

Charles Lucht, assistant director of debate, accompanied the team.

Former Student Charged In Fires On State Campus

A former N.C. State student was charged Monday with setting fires on the State campus that caused between $8,000 and $9,000 damage.

Charged in three warrants was David Landon Steele of Raleigh.

Steele, who recently dropped out of school, won a national scholarship after graduation from Broughton High School in 1962.

A warrant charging another former State student, William R. Fairchild, 20, with setting fire to Williams Hall was dropped and three new warrants identical to those against Steele were drawn.

The pair is accused of breaking into Williams Hall and setting fire to papers in a basement storeroom, then setting fire to a telephone booth in Withers Hall.

He said the Attorney General's office had located two eye-witnesses of the incident who testified that they heard the word "circus" mentioned in reference to the African's dress. Long said he had heard he would be invited to Friday's demonstration. "I have viewed these plans with a great deal of interest," he said, "but I have made no plans to either boycott or attend the demonstration."

Cynical, work-we college students drifting, aimless, weltschmerz life.

Drink lots of Herb-Ox bouillon and win a color TV set for your fraternity, sorority, dormitory, etc.

Take a break from Nietzsche, Kierkegaard, Kant, and Whitehead. Contribute to good, solid, material accomplishment—a color TV set for your dorm, companions, frat house, or what have you.

Drink Herb-Ox bouillon, the delicious, nourishing pick-me-up with 20% protein and only six calories. Save the wrappers and bring or send them to: CMC, 299 Madison Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10017

Whatever group totals the most, wins the set. Anything goes: get Herb-Ox wrappers from anyone and everyone. Your parents at home, their friends, kid brothers and sisters, older brothers and sisters, the UN, the president. From any source, everything's acceptable.

Smart dorms, frat houses, and sororities are going to serve it up with meals. Throw out the beer barrels and have hot water coming out of all the spigots. Start insisting now that all cafeterias carry and serve Herb-Ox.

And, Herb-Ox can't get boring: it's beef, chicken, onion, and vegetarian flavored. The contest runs from November 15 to March 15.

And one parting aphorism you won't find in Wittgenstein: the race is to the swift.
