The 'Silly Season' Is Here

Silly Season Studying

Carolina students are famous for knowing how to relax—you can spot it anywhere on campus. One well-dressed guy on his way back from classes suddenly notices a gnarled, knobby old tree—everybody knows they're the best kind for climbing. He slings his books to the ground and heads for it like a duckling who just spotted his mother.

But trees aren't just for climbing. They're for watching especially if they're falling. And falling one was in front of the Consolidated University offices Wednesday.

Then there are girls who start doing crazy things in front of GM. No, they were fighting. That's right, fighting, complete with those trusty weapons of war, sticks—and hefty ones at that.

Even those silly birds are acting dumber than usual. A little black sparrow perches on the edge of the water fountain at the Old Well to reflect on the state of this suddenly crazy world. Wonder if he really thinks he can take a bath in that? Come to think of it, the water is a little bad. . . .

READING DYNAMICS

READS 4.7 Times Faster Than His Beginning Speed With Equal or Better Comprehension.

What Students Say—

In Washington

"I must say that this is one of the most useful education experiences I have ever had. It certainly compares favorably with the experience I've had at Yale and Harvard."

—U. S. Senator Wm. Proxmire

"It is my opinion that if these techniques were instituted in the public and private schools of our country, it would be the greatest single step which we could take in educational progress."

—U. S. Senator Herman Talmadge

In North Carolina

I now have the ability to read a great many more books. I can easily read two average length books in an evening. I previously took two conventional reading courses and made no significant improvement. Based on beginning and end tests, my rate increased five fold with improved comprehension.

—Lt. Col. Louis Brooks, U. S. Marines Ret.

What She Said:

I can do my homework in half the time and know it better than I would have before. Yet, you get just as much out of the literary style as you would the old way. You get more of an overall picture instead of having the story come into your mind in bits and pieces.

High School Student
—Virginia Marshall Sutton.

What Her Mother Said:

I want to express my thanks for all you have done for Jinny. Before taking your course, she was having trouble in her schoolwork, although she had a high I.Q. and was very well-read. No one was able to diagnose her trouble as slow reading for she loved to read and had an extensive vocabulary. Finally, as a last resort, we decided to try your reading course. What a miracle it proved to be! Her reading rate came up from 250 w.p.m. to 5,281 w.p.m. and she has been on the Honor Roll at school ever since. It was a lucky day indeed when she enrolled in your course.

Thank you again—and now I am going to try Reading Dynamics myself and see if I can match Jinny's fabulous record.

—Mrs. Marshall Sutton, Mother

What Her Mother Said Later: I have not only greatly increased my reading speed but my comprehension as well. I have also learned to study and comprehend technical material at a rate I would have believed impossible to achieve.

—Mrs. Marshall Sutton

Conventional rapid reading courses aspire to 450-600 words per minute. Most Reading Dynamics graduates can read between 1,000 and 3,000 words per minute, and many go even higher.

In Today's Fast Moving World . . .

- where 9 out of every 10 scientists who ever lived, are still alive,
- where more scientific progress is made in 1 day than was made in the whole world in the first 1000 years of the Christian era . . .
- where more new technical information has been published in the last 15 years than in the previous 15,000 years . . . fast and efficient reading is necessary to keep mankind alive and free in this most dangerous of all ages!

Fast and efficient reading is not new. Julius Caesar, Theodore Roosevelt, John Kennedy, John Stuart Mill and many others read this way. . . . What IS new is Mrs. Wood's unique methods of teaching Reading Dynamics skills. Today, thanks to her pioneering work over many years, not just the fortunate few but nearly everyone can increase his reading efficiency 300%, 500%, 1000%, or even more. So sure are we of this that we make the following . . .

MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE

We guarantee to increase the reading efficiency of each student AT LEAST 3 times with good comprehension. We will refund the entire tuition to any student who, after completing minimum class and study requirements does not at least triple his reading efficiency as measured by our beginning and ending tests.
