Dying Village

to move I'll have to go deeper into debt. I am on a national defense loan now."

Cebun Gaustad, graduate, Absorokee—"I have four children. If I have to move out of the Village, my fellowship won't be sufficient. I wouldn't move to one of the University's brick apartments for the same rent. "I think the University needs more housing instead of tearing down the existing structures."

Robert Craig, graduate, political science—"I was already planning to leave in August. I hate to move for just two months."

"I have three children. I don't see how we could have made it in one of the brick apartments."

"Housing is one of the reasons I came to UNC. We feel that we were lucky to live here four years."

Richard French, graduate, political science, Lee, Mass.—"If we move out of the Village we will have to borrow another $500 a year. I probably wouldn't move to the brick apartments in Odum Village." No resident interviewed wanted to move out of the Village.

University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill alumni gave more to the University last year than at any previous year. Gifts, grants and bequests from all sources topped $17,000,000 for the fiscal year ending 1965.

Craige Will Hold Dinner, Sat. Dance

"Winter Mavericks" will be the theme of a series of meetings and parties to be held this week-end by Maverick House.

A private dinner at the Pines Restaurant is planned for Friday night. This will be followed by a stereo party in Craige's VooDoo room.

A Maverick Art Show will be held Saturday afternoon. Miss Jeane Rhodes, 1966 N. C. Heart Research Queen, will attend a party Saturday night in the Red Garter Room. She was named Maverick's February Sweetheart at a reception Sunday.

The party will be open to the public with a $2 admission charge. The Dixie Cups will play from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Maverick President Otto Reich said the party will last until 1 a.m. so that people can attend after seeing Carolina's game with V.P.I.

GM Plans Ski Trip

The GM Social Committee is investigating the possibility of a one day ski trip to Blowing Rock. A tentative date for the trip is Sunday, Feb. 27.

The committee is hoping to obtain reduced rates so that the cost for the entire trip will not exceed $18. Transportation will be by chartered buses which would leave at 6 a.m. and would return by midnight.

Before any further plans can be made, the committee will need a tentative list of interested students. Anyone wishing to who would like to go should sign up at the GM information desk by Tuesday.

Student insurance will cover the trip. Further announcements concerning the trip will appear in The Daily Tar Heel.

THE RAMSEY LEWIS TRIO is coming to Memorial Hall to perform for Carolina students who like to hear the Lewis bran of swinging jazz.

Trio To Perform

Tickets for the Ramsey Lewis Trio will go on sale today at 9 a.m. in G.M. The jazz threesome will be playing in Memorial Hall Saturday, Feb. 19, at 8 p.m.

With Ramsey Lewis on piano, Eldee Young on bass, and Red Holt on percussion, the Lewis trio are expected to put out a kind of "middle ground" music to appeal to any listener.

The Ramsey Lewis brand of jazz is not as traditional as that of some jazz groups or as esoteric as that of others. Instead, the trio hits somewhere in between with an easy listenable kind of music.

The combo can handle any type of tune, and the music they play is as easy for a jazz-oriented audience as for the musical, but not so "cool" listener.

The Ramsey Lewis trio began their rise to social prominence in Chicago.
